May copy look for a wee stable ad from my gang. Won't be much, but...by

SPRING has sprung & so have the doors on all the barns; Horses are everywhere frisking about & kicking up their heels, The feel of the warm sun & the smell of new fresh grass is enough to make anyone catch spring fever; Let's spring up on our favorite mounts & take a gallop a. cross the countryside. It's been awhile since we dropped in to visit fellow horselovers so let's take a quick peek at Sagittarius Stables to see what Lois Hanson added. She tells us ol Santa left many beauties for her including a disc. mini H-R mare in gr. named *MOONMIST SUREYFN. NILE QUEEN & MULTIPLEYO (Brey alab Pr Arab m/filly) now join her Brey. PA stal., OIL EMBARGO. The Brey. QH family is also a new addition: EQUIO (stal.), mare/foal are nameless. SACAGAWEA (Brey.Fam.Arab mare rep. grey. App by Lois) looks on. Hey, look at that fellow over yonder. He's DAKOTA (bl/wh. Lefton overo Paint colt), whose daddy is GET 'EM UP SCOUT. Soaking up the sun we see INFO (Brey. char.fam.mare) & RIBTICK-LER (grerep Hart. Mustang), both bought from Liz Schuette, Her last 2 NA's are both unknown molds but real beauties just the same, One's a beau tiful bat Sado w/who blaze & 4 socks. The other is a small blk, china horse w/wh. points. She sure has an interesting bunch there, & I'm sure they'll prove themselves once in the showring. Well, guess we'd best be movin' on so we can take in as many beautiful sights as possible (horses of course. )... After a brisk & brief canter we fins ourselves as LongChamp Stables & Jennie Creighton proudly shows us what Santa left for her Hmm, Santa must have had his deer hitched up to a super-long horse trailer; She points out RYTHMROC (gorgeous bay PA stal. w/look of eagles & conf. to match!), and next we see an unnamed App whom she tells us will be trailered over to Peg Rowan's for his 1st coat of hair. Right now he has bandages on his real hair m/t & forelock. Guess he really tries his darndest to get those things off, too. BANDITO is a br Pinto mare rep. by Jen herself. The name fits since the mare has a brown mask over her eyes! *I-MNOAPPY (imported Knabstrup, gr. spots all over his body) Jennie tries not to mistake for a Dalmation: CAPT. ANTERREA is a pretty br.flocked 5 yr. old Steha Morgan. We next come upon *CICERO (5 yr. bay TB stal. show jumper by Brit. Ltd) & lying peacefully in the sun is PITTER PATTER, the Brey. App lying foal). We've seen some might fine horseflesh so far but must mount up for more is yet to come ! . Paula Pereau just joined stables w/her sister Robin, & since they're not too far away, let's gallop over to Moss Creek Stables & see how they're doing, Paula leads 2 Brey, Mid. Sun molds out of the barn for us to see, McDONAVONS MASTERPIECE & his 1/2 sister WINDJAMMER'S NISTY DAWN (rep. beauty, dap. buck. by Peg Rowan). Wow--they are beautiful; Robin takes us through the barn where we see WASEEKA'S NOCTRINE (unknown rear, mold shown as a Morgan), PEREAU'S PASO (Brey. Paso), CHEVERLY & her unnamed colt are the Brey, TB's, the mare now being a TWH & her foal a Morgan. Further down we see a Paint named LARADO'S CODY LARK (Brey, QH Yrlg.) & 2 Pinto/Arabs, WHIFT OF WINDSWEPT (Brey. Arab mare) & BITTERSWEET MEMORY (Brey. Pranc. Arab stal.), both are mares. Looks like this little fellow, PUZZLIN' PIECES (Brey.lying App foal) is sure taking it easy! Laura takes over the tour now & shows us FARAZDAC (Brey. alab. PA stal.) & *WILDFIRE (Brey.bay PA stal.).Another Paint is KENTUCKY WONDER (Brey. Yel. Mount). MOSS CREEK'S FAIRWIND (Brey. Adios rep. honey gold Palo. by Robin), CHARISMA (Brey. beautiful rep. App Indian Pony), plus more App reps. by Robin are: SNOWFROSTED CRYSTAL (Brey graz, foal), SNOWFURY (Brey disc, glos, Arab/App foal), MOSS V() CREEKS SAND BAR (Brey. Arab Palo. foal) & CHEIF'S RED HAWK (Brey. App Geld.). The nearby paddock is full of all their latest Morgans which include WINDDRIFT (Lefton TWH), FOXFIRE (Brey.Sad. wnlg.), MYSTIC GOLDEN GENIE (Brey.blk. Morgan rep. buck. by PR), FAIRWINDS PROMISE (Brey.5-Gaiter sorrel), FLIRTATION WALK (Brey.glos.wh. 5-Gaiter) & SUNKIST (Lefton Palo. mare). Whew; That took longer than we thought! Guess we'd best all mount up & head for home. Happy trails to you all! Be sure to get home before dark now. Canter on! New Arrival Power! (NAP?)

MARES, MARES...Sue Nicholls, 839 10th N., Edmonds, Wash.

COUNTRY SWEETNESS is Nancy's very beautiful Breyer dap. Shire mare, She shows quite well now and I hope you have her entered in many shows now. Another mare on the circuit is Sleepy Time Gal. She is a Beswick mare in Palo., owned by L. Walter, and this beautiful gal was chosen Top Ten in NAMSA several times. She is pretty much retired to the broodmare band at this time, but with better pix, she might again join the Champions in the ring. Her filly Piccadilly Lily is by her side. Happy mares!

FLOCK DUST ... featuring fibres of information on the flocked model

Ruth P. Diercks, 421 Main St., Bristow, Iowa 50611. Whether you have a stableful of flocked models or one lonely little flocked pony, I bid you welcome to the world of flocked models, their care & feeding. This column encourages your comments, questions, data,& I'll try to answer them in future editions of Flock Dust. I should also like to hear from those of you who are owners of animals NOT flocked by DIERCKS & ALGYRE, such as Stehas, Hong Kong flocked & others. Some types, such as Stehas, are rarely seen in this part of the country & I'd appreciate further info from the people who own them. Even those people who flock their own models are welcome here; and while this is primarily for flocked models, we'll occasionally take on other topics pertaining to related subjects. If you've a question you think might fit here, ask by all means. So, until next month's issue, THINK FLOCKED. (Ed. Write in!)

Hi! Mary Claveau wrote in since she sent much info, let's get started! There are 2 Morgans at the Brass Button Acres, but the 1 she'll tell about is MIDNIGHT STARFIRE, a 3 yr. old black M rgan stallion w/star & 4 flashy wh. socks. He's a ficty little guy standing 14.3 hh, & at his lit show he brought back 5th, 7th, 8th in breed, lst yr. showers & color. She's quite proud of him & can't wait to see how he does in performance, He's be shown in parade, WP & EP classes. He sounds wonderful and that is a GREAT starter record. It sbetter than alot of my horses started with Folks, where are those Morgan geldings and foals? Let'shear about them, too! Remember, geldings are great, and Morgan geldings are even better! Do you have a few you'd like to show off?

Last month we discussed making saddles. Here are a few added notes by Cindy Fiszer. Bridles are rather easy to make w/pliable cardboard. You can use wire from paper cips, ring binders, etc. for a bit. Carpetthread painted w/enamel becomes stiff & leather like, & it makes good reins. The back of your sad, seat should be supple enough so that you can bend it up for more realism, Extra cardboard can be glued on to the back of seat. She uses black or brown enamel model plane or car paint to paint things. The only drawback to the saddle is that it can be viewed from only one side, If you find you can't make one, then send 10¢ for a more detailed pattern. I don't plan'to make it a business, but if you need help, contact me. Cindy Fiszer, Miller Aye., Southampton, MA. 01073. Wow! That's a really good article. Our sincere thanks! A mini hint: Real-tack people, natural shoe polish (not too much) when applied to your leather (not suede) gives it a nice shine, Any leather conditioner is good for it, too, Brey. West. Prancer owners, open to bit ring & remove the chain & add leather reins for more realism. And please don't use those plastic saddles on other models. It may scratch the other model & it doesn't ap-give them goodhomes? Misty Bittner, 148 Coventry Pl., Ft. Worth, Tx. 76107.

MR MINI-Hgts., Va, 23834 This month we feature a father-son write-up. First mini we hear from Robin Snyder's DIABLO, a 3 yr, old Paso Fino stal. His ire is El Rey & his dam is Spanish Lace, owned by me. Diablo has never been shown but she has a good halter pic of him. He has no feals either. Our second write up is from Carolyn Daughters on EL REY, a 56 bay Paso Fine. 7 yr. old. She showed him in Dressage once & he won! She bought him for such & knew he'd do well. He was learning the fundamentals of jumping when he shied out on one & tore his hindquarters on a rusty nail. He's okay now & will be back soon, How is that for a father-son combination? They BOTH sound great! We still re-THOROUGHBRED MODEL HORSE SHOW: May 24-25-Jeanne Eckert, 317 W. Laurel

Howdy! Did anyone see the spread on Maureen Love Originals, page 496, of Arab Horse World, Jan. stal. issue? They even had the dsic. H-R 'Bed-ouin'. Breathtaking! Off we gallop into the model question land! What info should be given in show results? You should give model's name, owner's initials hext to name, the placing the model took, the name & number of the class & how many models entered it. Full results are an account of all horses 1st-10th in each class & should list the full names of the entrants of the show & all Champion/Res. models. Personal results list only the placings that a single person smodels took & should include all the details as listed above. I've been receiving gripes, so people had better listen up. When you promise full results, SEND THEM! This also holds with promised awards which alot of showers win & never receive. You don't get anything out of this policy except a bad reputaion! Keep the questions coming, they're needed! Bye! ED. Right on, Jan. In my years of showing several trophies, comm. rosettes; models, etc. have hever been sent, no word of why, just zilch. So people, word does get around fast about such antics. Send what's won!

January was another story. I was forced to take off that month. I had to undergo some bad knee surgery. I was involved in a 2-horse collision & my knee was the point of contact. Then the doctor decided I only tore a muscle, but a year later my knee collapsed. The doctor ran several tests to locate the problem & discovered I'd torn a cartilege & many other things. He performed surgery on it & I just got off my wooden legs, crutches, for good I hope. I was not able to answer any letters or do much else. So I owe you a letter, you'll have to wait but I'll get there; For those of you not familiar with us, we have many services. I have several fine stallions & mares up for hire. Look for our ad! We are not trying to get rich holding shows, State in your ad you have the right to change prizes, etc. to avoid confusion. State personal or full results, A nice ribbon can be made of paper, cloth, etc. But be resonable. If you charge $1 a stable, them you get 15 entries, hold it! Don't say lack of entries, because that's $15; That could buy 2 nice models & pay for their shipping/packing..." Anon. (Ed.Fine points taken! If you cancel the show Anon, (Ed. Fine points taken! If you cancel the show, please return the full entry fee, One recent show I entered cancelled at the last moment but kept my fee. Grrr. Think before holding a show. They are loads of work and are not for profit unless a benefit. Thanky!)

***** "Why do so many showholders leave out the very hecessary gelding classes in their showlists? There are many, many outstanding geldings in the model show world & they deserve just as good a chance to win top honors as the stallions, mares & foals. Have a golding class, showholders, & you might get more entries!" (Ed. Point well-taken. Someone asked me why are there so many stallions in showing. My reasoning went thusly: 1. We all read the famous horsebooks, and what do they ride, not geldings but stallions. 2. The stud fees. If the model is a winner, why not try to make a little income from him? and 3.Stallion models abound, but not so gelding ones. So we are naturally lead into thinking stallions are best ... ) BYE!! GRIPE: Please, people, when sending in drawings w/ads, make them small enough to fit on the sheet & no larger than 3" square. Space is so limited, and I hate to cut down drawings. Another point, please do not trace famous horse paintings, photographs or other peoples! artwork, This is plagarism, and even with photos it is stealing, especially if the pic is copyrighted. Many times I can tell you who did the photo or the painting, and then I must delete it from the ad or substitute for it; Even if the original artist/photographer never knows about this tracing, I do, & for all best efforts, results & relationships, please watch it. Sorry I didn't put this in sooner, but my year started off w/3 deaths & a small fire so haven't had time to do anything. The fire was of all the letters, ribbons, typed results that were for my meet so that's why (among other things) results haven't getten to anybody. I hardly remember anybody who entered, horse or owner, & can only remember a few of the placings. Before the fire some nerve-racking cousins came, . I'm terribly sorry this happened for it was a waste of everyones' money, If I can make it up to anybody who entered, please write. My typewriter was also lost but I got a new one. Thanks for reading,

Hello: Sad news to hear our beloved H-R's are disc. again, this time probably never to return (Ed. That's what I've heard, sniffle...). Now's the time to take care of the ones we own & keep them in l piece. The model I'm featuring this month is their beautiful chestnut Appaloosa w/a nice blanket over the hips; Kathy A. Murphy, owner of Shamrock of the Sea Highlands, owns this best shower in her stable, CINNAMON & SUGAR. She's the H-R B-749 App is one of Kathy's 37 H-R's & is certainly the best she claims. Besides being very graceful & lady-like.

she's an excellent stock horse. This App is the only large one H-R ever made. It's very versatile in the show world w/its action pose & arched neck. It's factory name, appropriately enough, is 'LOVE'. It was disc, in 1969. I have plenty of write-ups for the time-being, so please hold off for awhile? So long for now--HAGEN-RENAKER POWER! (Ed. This column is for H-R made horses, but not the Breyer-H-R's, okay? What shall we call the new Breyer/H-R's? How about Bregan-Renakers? Brenakers? Hmmm.)

Ever shown your collection to someone and had them guffaw, giggle or about laugh you silly? Why call "them "toys? They aren't for the most part, although many were made for kids to play with, but. sheesh. Our hobby is just as precious, dear & real to us as collecting stamps, coins, matchbox covers, buttons, etc. So why hang your head in embarrassed shame over something you enjoy doing & love? You are not wasting money on the models. You are making a collection to keep, save and pass on to another model lover someday. The point is, tell people about your hobby and make no apologies for it, Did you know your Editor's final exam speech in college for speech class was on showing—that she got an 'A' on it as well as for the course? Be proud of your collection, keep on collecting and if people laugh, it is only their ignorance showing. People all over the world collect models so you are not alone, Happy collecting! LW

The first 15 horses are new additions to the stable so the first 3 services for each will be only 1/2 If you mention this ad when requesting service & your foal is among the 1st 3, the fee minus 1/2 will be returned w/certifs, I have nice full-page certifs in beautiful script. Professional breeding certif is 10/2 extra per certif (or just 10/2 if you use 2 services for same foal). Info needed: dam/foal's names, ages, colors/markings, breeds, sexes, other parent's full info, sire/dam if other than 1 of my horses. Get some great blood in your model's pedigree! The 1st person ordering services from 5 or more horses getsa braided halter w/tassel. I adjusted the fees so some are new & listed below & go into effect in April. New ages are marked w/stariky age.
