Model

(Of course, there is that slight tic that Eric developed when he spent THREE DAYS copying the MONSTER February issue...but he seems to be recovering nicely!)

Rag

Kay, casually ticking off the days left before the Rag mailing deadline, is mildly curious as to what excuse Laurie will use to explain the tardiness of this issue's Drivel.

Will it be:

- A) Screaming Baby, B) Meteor Strike on house, C) Dog Ate It, or D) It got "Barbie-Dolled."

See "Drivel Column" for answer!

Volume 3, Number 2

Circulation: 200

Single Issue: $3.25

April, 1989

Well...Here she is - in the flesh! (so to speak...)

That pungent padded portrait of permanently paralyzed palfrey

"MISTY OF CHINCOTEAGUE"

Inside this issue.....

"Misty of Chincoteague" -- a blow-by-blow Travelogue.....The Drivel continues.....The return of Fred Horse!.....Plus...Be a part of The Model Rag's First Annual Swimsuit Issue!

THE MODEL RAG INFORMATION

Our Format:

The Model Rag is divided into several sections to allow you to more easily find the things that you are most interested in. We have separate sections for items for sale, items wanted, misc (toek, services, clubs, etc.) model show classlists, a "People, Places & Things" section to let you hear about the (yes, you guessed it!) people, places & things that make this hobby special, and our commentary section, which includes "The Litterbox" where you can air your gripes about events, or get the lowdown on the latest rumours. The Model Rag is created with a Macintosh 512K computer, using MacPaint, FullPaint, WetPaint, Mac the Knife, Art a la Mac, and Graphic Works programs.

Our Subscription Rates:

The Model Rag is published bi-monthly, and is sent on the 15th of the month (February, April, June, August, October, December). Subscriptions are $15.00 for a one-year subscription. Trial issues are $3.25. All issues are mailed flat in manila envelopes, and are sent FIRST CLASS!

Our Advertising Rates:

Every subscriber to The Model Rag receives one free 50-word classified ad (not including name/address) per issue. Plus, subscribers are offered reduced rates on additional ads. The ad rates are as follows:

	Subscribers	Non-subscribers
Half page	$2.50/issue	$5.00/issue
Quarter page	$1.25/issue	$2.50/issue
Classifieds (50 words or less)	$.75/issue	$1.50/issue

Deadline for submission of advertising is the 1st of the month that the issue is due out. For example, the deadline for the February 15th issue is February 1st. Advertising and subscription rates are subject to change with one issue's notice. We reserve the right to re-type, shrink-to-fit, and/or edit copy.

FIRST TIME EVER OFFERED!!! AN ORIGINAL CHRIS COOK SCULPTURE!!!

As some of you may know, I was asked to sculpt a model horse for Stevens Manufacturing Co., for consideration in their 1989 line. They chose the work of another artist instead, and so I am offering this one and only original sculpture for sale.

It was done in the style of the old original Hartlands and looks just like it could have walked off of the lines back in the 1960's. It's in a cantering pose, and will be well suited for most all pleasure events. Painted a beautiful black tobiano pinto, it will be a sure show-stopping original finish! Definitely one-of-a-kind! $500.00

NEWS FLASH!!!

Volume II of the book TRADE SECRETS is in the works!!! It will be available very soon. Text is done, and completely updated and expanded from the original version. Reserve your copy now for $27.00 ppd.

Also, I AM accepting orders for custom repaints. You must supply the model, cost will range from $25-50.00 for a Trad. sized model. Hairing will be an additional $10-15.00. Please write and send an SASE for an exact quote. Now's your chance to get something new for your showstring!

And due to overwhelming demand, I will also accept a limited amount of custom calf R/R orders. You supply the calf, priced from $20-50.00. Once again write and include an SASE for exact quote.

- CHESTNUT TRAKEHNER* - #0036 of the JAH Special Run. A very handsome fellow and a Live Show ribbon winner: $45.00
- APPALOOSA BUCKING BRONCO - Lovely color, lots of small spots with grey mane, tail and shading: $25.00
- CHESTNUT LEGIONERIO III* - Golden brown chestnut with flaxen mane and tail, 4 socks and grey hooves: $40.00
- BLACK BELGIAN* - Shown by me as a Percheron stallion. Live show ribbon winner. Has red and white tail band: $20.00

- BLACK CLYDESDALE FOAL* - "Heathcliff" is absolutely adorable, and won the OF Foal Reserve Championship at a live show last summer. He has a diamond-shaped star and four stockings: $25.00
- CHESTNUT/SORREL PHAR LAP* - This was the most popular color, I believe, in the set offered by Your Horse Source. He has some very nice halter photos taken by me: $30.00
- PALOMINO/CHESTNUT YELLOW MOUNT* - This guy also has a couple of nice halter photos: $15.00
- BUCKSHOT - One of the earlier paint jobs, very blue, with a distinct light-spotted "blanket": $20.00

OTHER ITEMS FOR SALE:

- "THE TENNESSEE RAZZLE"* - Midnight Sun repainted and haired by me, to a bold bay tobiano pinto. Has mixed black and white wavy mohair mane, his tail is pure white. "Razz" went reserve R/R Gelding Champion at the first live show I took him to (judged by Michelle Bacon). A real knock-out! Unfortunately, I have had terrible luck getting a decent photo of him. The ones I have give an idea of his color and "presence", but do not do him justice by half! If you like, I will try to get some good halter shots of him for you. $45.00
- "GOLDEN GIRL"* - Azteca repainted by me to a lovely golden palomino. Not live show quality, I'm afraid, but she photos excellently as her set of pix by Shelly Poirier show. She has two halter pix, one western trail, one western pleasure, and an English side-saddle. A great horse for the beginning photo shower: $17.00

ARABIAN COSTUME - Sized to fit the PAS, made of light and dark purple felt, with gold accents and lots of hand-sewn beadwork, trimmed with hand-made tassels. Photo available. Live show blue ribbon winner! $20.00

FOR TRADE: Help! I desperately need some RED and GREEN Breyer coolers. The trouble is, every time I order some, all I get are blue and yellow! I have two unopened packages (one blue, one yellow in each) that I will trade for red and green. They don't have to be still in the package, just in new condition. Somebody please help me!

R/R/H's

- MK's Music City - black roan Arabian filly - PAF repainted w/white hair mane/tail by Brandie Hooper - done all right with so-so pictures $20
- Greybon - Morganglanz remade head lowered and repainted/haired dapple/fleabitten grey by Laurie Jensen. This guy could go far if the right person got a hold of him. I'm not big on Trakehners, so he would be a great horse for someone who is. $65
- Mystical - Fighting Stallion R/R/H into palomino flying unicorn. I've lost his horn and he has a crack in his neck where his mane is but that hasn't stopped my number 1 fantasy creature from placing well! $40, has pictures
- Mystic Vision - Rearing Stallion made into unicorn - OF with added horn and hair. Does extremely well in fantasy and mascot classes with so-so pix $22
- Winkum - Classic Mustang mare remade trotting on base and repainted a very pretty dapple grey with white hair mane and tail. Shown as a Shetland Pony mare with much success! Seems she always places in pony classes. I think she is live show quality. Here is the pony you always wanted! R/R/H by Susan Berry who I think has a lot of talent! $45

Anastasia - Duchess repainted medium bay by BHR - has 2 halter pix and 1 western pleasure $20

Matilda - SM Swaps stretched out into ASB pose. Shown as a mare. Repainted bay with black hair mane/tail. Another one by Susan Berry. Has pix but not all that great. $15

Casanova - one of my first attempts at R/R/H. He is the Classic Man O'War into stretched out pose. Not live show quality as remaking is rough. Repainted dark chestnut with same color mane and tail. Green ribbons. Shown as a Tennessee Walker. Doesn't do too bad. $20

Goldfire - I really don't want to sell him and may not. SM Seabiscuit remade head lowered and turned to side. Repainted palomino with white hair mane and tail. Has pictures in almost all events but they are not all that great. Also an early attempt by me but he came out a little better than Casanova. $15

WE'RE BACK!!

Following a brief hiatus from model horse-dom, Riddermark Stables -- AND Riddermark Repaints! -- are back to the world of showing.

What better way to celebrate than with an auction of top quality show horses from a stable of Congress Champions? As you read this, I am furiously at work fitting little metal shoes on feet, adding delicate veining, attaching hand-dyed mohair manes and tails, and all the other 'extras' you would expect from a Riddermark horse.

I hope to be offering 20 or more horses in every Breyer scale and a wide range of breeds: Arabians, Appaloosas, Paints, Morgans, Saddlebreds, Show Shetlands, Hackney Ponies, TB/hunter, Paso, Andalusian, Icelandic, Fjord, and more. I have over 30 in construction and am not positive exactly what will be on the list when it is finished, but every horse ON that list will be finished, ready to ship to the high bidder, and ready to show, before the list goes out. No waiting for unfinished horses! Each horse will be ready for your summer show season immediately. Every horse on the list will be up to the standards of my own personal show-string, no second, or 'photo-show only' quality horses -- in fact, a number of the horses offered were for my own show string and I wouldn't mind keeping them.

To get your copy of my auction list, send LSASE for mailing when horses are completed (projected date -- May). Horses sold through auction only, sealed bids. For complete rules of auction and list, send to:

If you think having a referral service for model horses sounds good, let me know by answering these questions.

1. Have you traded for tack or models and you didn't get either item sent to you?
2. Did you send your model to an RRH person and it came back in terrible shape and you couldn't get your money back?
3. Did you send for LSQ tack and it came back to you in sorry shape?
4. Have you paid to have either R or RR or RRH done and it took so long to get it, you forgot about it? I'm talking months, 6 or longer.
5. Have you sent your dimes and quarters to get a sire or dam for your model and either didn't hear from them at all, or it took months?

If you can answer yes to any of these questions write to me and tell me what happened. I will need some type of proof, a bill of sale or insurance forms to back up your story, etc.

I will start a list of all the people and companies that are living up to their advertising pitch.

If you want to be on the referral service list send $2.00 and what you do or sell, it's a one time payment.

It will cost everyone $1.00 and an SASE to get the listing. All of this is legal as I have gone through a real Better Business Bureau to see how it is done. Start sending in those complaints.....It would also be nice to know who you think is very good, and, you have no complaints....Shadow Mist Farms, Jeanne M. Luddeni, R5, 600E, Columbia City, IN 46727. # Laurie's Drivel Column

(With added Editorial Comments by Kay - Hee hee!)

Well, it finally happened. Had to put an AK-47 to my head to force myself to write this column! You see, if I don't get this done by the end of the month, our charming, loving, ever-forgiving, stunningly beautiful, tranquil (I hope), (did I mention forgiving?), (No, you mentioned "ever-forgiving"), loving, breathtakingly beautiful editor, Kay (the "Forgiving Beautiful") (Actually, it's "The Great and Powerful Kay," the one with the supreme editorial power, which is about to come into play in this very column!) will, WITHOUT WARNING, grow 6" fangs, pointy (yet beautiful) spiky horns, develop breasts ha ha, just kidding! (At least I didn't have to get pregnant to get them! Ha ha ha...) develop bunsen-burner-breath and otherwise will become decidedly perturbed, (yet forgivingly, tranquilly, beautiful). Right, Kay? Think "A" waves. (May I mention here that she did NOT get this done by the end of the month! That it is, in fact, the TENTH of April, even as I sit here, typing furiously...and more furiously...I think that we've finally discovered what the "Or Else" threat really means - If you don't resubscribe, we will KIDNAP you and force you to type Laurie's Drivel Column!)

WO!! When I ask for weird stuff, you guys don't disappoint me! All I have to do is peruse the "Drivel" file and I am convulsed (repulsed?) with laughter (and genuine disgust).

Renee Mareska sent me, WITHOUT WARNING, a lovely advertisement for her favorite candy, GUMMY BOOGERS. (Q: "What's the difference between broccoli and boogers?" A: "Kids don't eat broccoli.") The ad says, "Boogers...a new gummy candy that BLEW into town...give new meaning to the phrase 'phlegm-flam'..." (mascot is "Boogerman") The company president coyly admits that it's "hard to actually put your finger on (in?) why this gummy candy is a hit." (Now, really folks, could you get THIS on network TV?) Wonder if it tastes as realistic as it looks. Maybe I'll ask Cheryl Munde (HA). Or my daughter...(3 years old)...Merryl. A final note on this sticky subject, Renee adds: "this is nothing to sneeze at!" That's snot funny, Renee. Ha ha. I really know how to pick 'em. Jokes, I mean.

Next in the file is an entire series of photos depicting the natural wonders (?) of Idaho that PICKS fun at that all-time favorite state of Rag Readers everywhere. (Their second favorite state is Pennsylvania, right, Kay?). (Ha ha...don't bet on it...) Since the person who sent these photos lives in Idaho, I suppose she thinks they're funny and so would not mind that we all make fun of where she lives (Right, JANICE BRUSKY?). We'll run one each issue (Oh, joy...) starting with this one (Oops, no room...see next page...) Next month: Grizzly Bear Artificial Insemination Team!

Oh darn. I have more slug drivel and I really should have stuck it in with the gummy booger discussion, seeing as how they're both slime-related. (I thought that was mandatory in this column...) Oh well, you guys are used to the schizophrenic way I write this column, so I will just stick it right here: (From an article from Smithsonian magazine that someone [WITHOUT WARNING] sent to me. I forget who. Sorry, you nice person.

Idaho's Olympic Uphill
Bobsled
Team

Forgive me for forgetting who you are. If it makes you feel any better, I often forget who other people are, also. Like myself, for example. (And like Kay, the dangerously forgiving editor...) "(Slugs commonly)...engage in animated mating rituals that can last more than a day." (Kay's comment: "Ouch.") (Kay here: "Ouch.") Boy, that evokes vivid thoughts, doesn't it? I question the use of the word "animated" when discussing slugs. I mean, just how animated can a slug get? (Well, with the proper motivation...) I admit, perhaps they are a bit more animated than usual when engaging in a 24-hour carnal session, but c'mon!

Since we're on the slug section of this fine piece of ~~s~~ literary diversion, it's time now for the slug recipe of the issue (courtesy of Kay and her copier...)

SLUGS ROCKEFELLER

(a salt water oyster substitute)

Ingredients:

- 2 dozen Pacific Oyster shells
- 2 dozen fresh slugs
- 3 green onions minced
- Parsley, sage, rosemary & thyme
- 1 C. creamed butter
- salt

Place slugs on oyster shells (1 per shell) and salt them well. This will keep the slugs from crawling out of their shells and makes them resemble oysters, especially if antennas are snipped off.

Cover with mixture of onion, spices and butter, and bake until they look done.

YUM YUM! And while we're at it, let's all try Steph Robson's Secret Recipe (for real...):

Steph's Salmon à la Maytag

Procure a large salmon. Clean out all the slimy bits (See? Slimy is mandatory!) and things you can't (or won't) identify. Take the scales off (1 mile is equal to...) Wrap fishie really (REALLY) well in foil.

Cooking procedure:

1. Put foil wrapped fish in DISHWASHER.
(Laurie has a question...which shelf?)
2. Don't add detergent or dirty dishes.
3. Start dishwasher set on a full wash cycle.

After wash cycle is over (Laurie has another question: Do you let it go through the dry cycle, too?) take the fish out and let it stand (or lie, actually) for about 15 minutes. Remove foil. Eat the damn thing. Strange? Steph says, "You know how we Canadians are!" Well, I didn't but now I do. Thanks, Steph! (Has anyone ever told this poor woman about things like OVENS, or STOVES? I mean, jeez, what does the instruction manual for her oven say? "Put in load of white clothing, add detergent, and set to 'CLEAN' "?)

One last slug item...my fellow model horse arsonist, Sarah Minkiewicz, sent some items she stole borrowed from the "activity board" at her school, U.C. Santa Cruz. (I keep asking her what she's studying and she keeps telling me she doesn't know. (Ah...must be a psychology student! Also might explain why she reads this trash rag...)) Wonder when she'll figure it out... Here are the two flyers on activities she sent:

Oops! I forgot one more slug item. So I lied. (So what else is new?) Sorry! (Just when you thought it was safe to open "The Rag"...) (Are you kidding me? These people are JADED VETERANS! They know it's NEVER safe to open the Rag!) Sheri Johnson sent an article from OMNI (A respectable magazine) (Until now) titled "Slug Fest" ... held in Monte Rio, CA. Features a slug cooking contest. Also, the champion slug (largest) is dressed in a purple velvet cape (hope it doesn't have to be dry-cleaned...must be washable) carried out on a purple pillow to strains of the theme from "Rocky." Where is Monte Rio? Is it near Napa? Maybe when we go up for the big Hartland live show we can also visit the Slug Fest (You mean it's ON-GOING?) Heather would love it. (Ha. Fat chance.)

Got several photos of remakes for the "Bow Wow of the Issue"...have you guys been busy ~~deforming~~ I mean remaking lately? Have I inspired you all to become remakers? (That must be it...you've inspired us to new lows...) Here is the Bow Wow for this time:

Paula Hecker's own Bow Wow. (Not that bad...the hind leg's a little funky...and the hair is hideous...but we've seen worse, haven't we?) (We personally have CREATED worse, so I certainly am not one to talk!)

Next month: "Zorrie Horse From Outer Space." (Do not attempt to adjust your glasses...WE ARE IN CONTROL OF ALL THAT YOU SEE AND READ!)

Linda Sturhan wrote with this comment about last issue's Bow-wow..."The last time I saw a tail in that position, the stray tom cat in the area was leaving his calling card on our kitchen door." Linda sent in her entry into the "Weird Pet Contest"...a car...GOOD, Linda. (Why not? She is, after all, keeping with the basic theme of this contest...STUPID!) Incidentally, she also went on about tacky lawn ornaments that she has in her neighborhood...and yet she thinks it's perfectly normal to display her "pet car"...a 1956 Plymouth with "dead paint, primer...rust..." Sounds absolutely PICTURESQUE. Anyhow, Linda says that at XMas there were houses festooned with all sorts of ~~crap~~ oh, I mean decorations, including one that had Christmas music being "pumped through destroyed speakers." I think Heather should take note...she can borrow my speakers for HER XMas display this coming holiday season!

Linda also sent a whole bunch of interesting (incriminating) photos, including one of her at the New York Renaissance Festival. (See next page for extremely incriminating photo!) Says Linda: "Because there is no place for me to change at the Festival, I have to drive 50 minutes on a multi-lane highway, horns and all." Well, Linda, you're not the only

"Me (Laurie Jensen) conducting a remaking remaking seminar... "Remaking is not for the weak-hearted" ... (altho being "weak-headed" does not preclude one from being a remaker... For example, take me!)"

Back to the subject of "Weird Pets," here is Karen Grimm's entry, her own, personal "Black crested Polish cock" (I won't touch that one even with a ten-foot pole... or is that pole?). We call this one our "Beak -of-the-Week":

Got a note from Laura Hornick Behning about a recent "reptile episode" she heard about... apparently a fire broke out near a Morgan horse farm... set by a woman who thought that snakes were crawling on her so she hastily removed her clothes and burned them to "purify" herself. (And they call us Californians strange...)

Holly Reeves sent me a tidbit on how to kill tomato hornworms (you know, those BIG FAT JUICY GREEN worms with the pointy red tail-thingie?) that has been perfected by her husband...it's called the "Remove and Squash Method." Holly's hubby goes one step further and throws the worms into the air conditioning fan-unit. (Kay here: "Ouch.") Says Holly... "Talk about 'La Machine!'"

In keeping with our fascination with lower life forms, I have included Dave Barry's categories of life:

- 1) Plants...Divided into subcategories: Green Veggies, Yellow Veggies & Weeds.
- 2) Animals...Divided as follows:
  - a. Animals You Can Eat: cows, turkeys, porks, bolognas
  - b. Animals You Can Sit On: horses, certain turtles
  - c. Animals That Can Overturn Your Car: rhinos, soccer fans
  - d. Animals That Are Easily Impressed: dogs
  - e. Animals Whose Sole Goal In Life Is To Wait At The Bottom Of Sleeping Bags And Sting Or Bite People To Death: scorpions, snakes
  - f. Animals That Are Not Easily Impressed: cats

I received so many "sniglets" that Kay will have to intersperse them throughout the issue -- so watch out!! Thanks to all who sent them.

Time to stop for now. I will list some of Mindy Binkley's Universal Rules to Remember:

Jennings Corollary: The chance of the bread falling with the buttered side down is directly proportional to the cost of the carpet.

AND...

Ninety-Ninety Rule of Project Schedules: The first 90% of the project takes 90% of the time; the last 10% takes the other 90%.

No more till next time, Laurie Jensen

Kay here - One last goodie for you guys... here is "Portrait of the Artist as a Child: 7-year old Judy Renee Pope with a HUGE FROG!! (Proving she's never been quite normal...if we'd doubted it...)"

And now, in keeping with our "Play Misty For Me" theme...we have a travel report from one of our tackier readers...Paula O'Keefe:

"TOURIST TRAPS OF CHINCOTEAGUE"

First, let me say that we didn't really go to collect kitsch. We went because yours truly's roomies took pity on their seaside-raised flunkie's pitiful whimpers for salt air one weekend (we'd been in underpaid exile in Missouri, which is a long way from either coast, for years - but since moving to Maryland it had dawned on me that the glorious Atlantic was now within driving distance). But in between communes with nature and splashes in the surf we couldn't resist taking in some of the more impressive displays of All-American Commercial Exotica with which these two islets are abundantly (and how) supplied...

Chincoteague and Assateague are WEIRD. I'm not kidding. There's not a business establishment that doesn't feel duty-bound to decorate with horses of some kind, even real scary ones, like the giant plaster QH you sometimes see on the roofs of feed-&-grain stores (Sound like anyone we know...KAREN & HEATHER???) or even worse equinoids in lurid colors. Motels have them frolicking in patches of green gravel by the swimming pool (our favorite was the Highway Distress Orange rearing stallion looming over two mini copies of self - Liz dubbed him My Pervert Pony), restaurants have horsie logo signs, and I swear even the gas-stations and supermarkets sell Breyers. It's like some sort of unsettling amusement park except that people actually LIVE there! And that's just a general impression; the really notable individual sights of any trip to Chincoteague are as follows:

1) Lawn Art. Now Liz tells me that she's a real keen devoted admirer of this stuff and has photoed it in all its kitschy glory from coast to coast and elsewhere. Well, she's blessed well welcome to it, say I. I've seen it all my life and am no more than resigned to it...we've done Hannibal, Missouri, which is nothing but Mark Twaineyland from one end to the other (someday, when all the kids are well out of earshot, let us tell you about the giant pinheaded plaster Huckleberry Finn fishing off a condo development wall...) (Let's all mark our calendars for that one...)...and I have NEVER seen such a display of it as on Chincoteague and Assateague. Just name it! Flamingoes! Cute little froggie-trimmed lily ponds in which giant marlin are being hooked by Huck Finn-type barefoot-and-bluejean boys - new heights (or lows) in surrealism! Birdbaths formed & supported by sea-horses in terrible colors (orange, green, violet...)! Dutch boys and girls kissing, coyly bent (at unnatural angles, I'm sure) well forward at the waist lest they contact below the belt! Metal deer! Gnomes and elves! And every sort of malformed, deformed, grisly caricature of a horse that was ever supposed to represent a pony to anyone! IT'S ALL HERE! You doubt me? Hah! We have photographs...

2) Ghastly Horse Souvenirs of Doom. Here's where it gets real tasty. Flockies...head-bobbing flockies for your rear window (of course THE classiest way to tell the world, "I've Been To Chincoteague," is a frantically nodding felted horsie in the back of your car...) (And here I thought that spelling out "I Love Misty" in huge, glow-in-the-dark letters on your front lawn was the method of choice...); Western Prancer knockoff flockies in (what else?) palomino pinto. Three-dee wall posters of various equine things rearing against delirious iridescent skies. Dreadful plastic minis fifth-generation from Tynymites, SMS or some Incredibly Strange Creature spawned in the darkest undercorners of horsie hell. Not to mention anything that can possibly have something like a horse painted, stenciled, or silkscreened onto it. (Only thing they've missed is a painting of Misty in Heaven. With Elvis.) Picture the psychotronic horror of the 24-hour factories where they churn out endless fluorescent ponies, felt pennants, and strange ballpoint pens with water and sliding figures inside for the insatiable maw of the Mistyland gift industry...I blanch at the thought. (But I bought a mug.)

Oh, and a million MILLION Mistys, Sea Stars, Stormys, and Phantom Wingsies. Naturally. Even, as mentioned before, in the drugstores, gas stations and supermarkets. (Along with Maggie Henry paperbacks.)

-----and most unforgettable of all, something you MUST NOT MISS>>>>

3) The Misty Museum...hallowed shrine to the island's main financial resource. Yes, after you browse through the gift shop (all the above-listed goodies in plenty, plus lots LOTS more) and visit the barn where many of her near descendants live (including Stormy HERSELF, Cyclone, who's a snob, and Foggy Mist, world's sweetest filly)...you pay your extra $1.00 and are escorted into the holy-of-holies, the converted mobile home, nay, (neigh?) the Trailer Tabernacle of Misty Herself.

(Dim light and angel choirs please...)

And there she stands, in one end of the trailer - which is made up like a stall, with a brass nameplate on it yet - the (badly) stuffed, moth-nibbled, glass-eyed hide of the Sainted Pony. Yipe. It's my sad duty to report that Misty of Chincoteague, darling of generations of kids, smells a bit these days...and is wearing the tackiest red rhinestone halter imaginable, decorated with a photo-button of Marguerite Henry's smiling mug, to add insult to injury. You may, if you prefer, read the yellowed copies of every newspaper and magazine blurb ever published on Misty and her produce, or you can observe the cute schoolchildren's drawings of Herself that dot the walls, but most likely you will wish to simply stand in reverent silence and gaze upon the legend.

(It's REAL creepy.)

We did buy some postcards...

Seriously, it's dreadful. Liz, who met her in life (and knows a bit about taxidermy) testifies that it's a crummy preservation job, and even I can swear that the poor beastie features some odd lumps. Hardly seems a fair way to treat a little mare who's provided livelihood for generations of island residents, selling distorto souvenirs and Pony Tails taffy and ghodknows what all...they even have posted a photo-feature on how the taxidermy was achieved, for those with REAL ghoulish tastes. Yeek.

But there you have it...something no one should miss.

If you'd like something more wholesome (and you will, after breathing the semi-fetid air of the Misty Museum) I'd say, spend more time with the live ponies. Nice pinto patterns, they're sweet, and you might catch a glimpse of the barn ferret! (Better yet, drive out to the Assateague National Seashore and see the ponies in their native habitat - they're absurdly friendly and about as wild as a box of kittens, given to stopping traffic by standing in the road to mooch from tourists).

We attach pix of the whole grisly establishment for your edification and amusement, thus saving you the cost of a plane ticket plus $1.00.

Contact Heather Wells, 3985 Strong St., Riverside, CA 92501.

Hi folks...this is your editor-in-chief speaking! In the past, we have been able to accept ads that were sent to Heather instead of to me. But this is really wreaking havoc with the page lay-outs!! So from now on...ALL ADVERTISING MUST BE SENT TO ME (KAY) by the 1st of the month deadline!! Sorry, but if you want the issue to go out on the 15th, I must have the advertising here and ready to go by the deadline! If you have a problem, call and let me know (see inside front cover). Thanks! Kay

Well, folks, as you can probably tell by our cover, you all have assured your places in the "Tacky Hall of Fame" by letting us know that you wanted us to...."PLAY MISTY FOR ME!" So subscribing to this fine journalistic enterprise was not ENOUGH to assuage your tawdry, aberrant tastes, eh? No, YOU couldn't be happy with NORMAL Cover Photos (i.e. Jumping Slugs, Centre Neptune award winners, Bullfrog Bands, The Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles vs. "Howdy" - the killer Longhorn...). Well, O.K....maybe it WAS our idea to let you vote...and maybe we DID manage to get our grubby little hands on the pictures. But you guys wrote in to let us know what you thought - and you even signed your names, you fools! Here are just a few of the responses that we received:

"I'm casting my vote for Misty on the Cover of the Rag. Suffice it to say, to savor the stiff sanctimonious shaving-stuffed statuette would surely stir a shameless display of satisfied shrieks and shudders. So...show that sensual shining simulation of splendid horseflesh and satiate our souls." - S.L. -

"C'mon, be a rebel 'n' put her on the cover!" - L.S. -

"I want to see this pinto pony in all her petrified pageantry!" - R.M. -

"Re: the vote on potential cover 'girl' Misty - I think ya ought to put her on the cover. After all she's not a model horse; and frankly, taxidermied equines really aren't much better than slugs! I say put the pony on the cover!" - J.B. -

"I for one vote for Misty, The Moth-Eaten (and Poorly Preserved) Marvel be allowed onto ye Hallowed Cover. After all, 1. she stinks in real 'life' as she slowly molders away, and 2. that red rhinestone-encrusted halter is one of the tackiest things to put on a horse I've ever seen. My only complaint is that they didn't do anything really creative with her..." - J.F. -

"P. 72 (of last issue) instructs us to say "YES--Play Misty for Me" if we do want to see you violate the Rag's prime directive: to seek out strange new life forms to boldly go where only one equine has ever gone before, namely on the cover. Yes, yes, yes, please violate away; in fact, let it become a habit. For my money, the more models there are in my model magazine, the better. This sentiment may, I know, strike some as irrational, perhaps even irreverent, but there it is." -N.A. -

"My vote: Play Misty for Me ONLY if she is in a suitably tacky position as the beloved Trigger was/is. (Joints? What joints?)" - S.R. -

"As for the MISTY issue...hum...I think that since she's dead (poor thing!) it's not quite the same. So I think she should adorn the cover. After all, what could be stranger than a dead (A real, live, dead!) pony! - WAIT, don't answer that!" - P.H. -

"WHAT!? STUFFED? They STUFFED Misty!? Oh my God! I suppose Paul and Maureen got done too? Along with Grandma and Grandpa; all staring out at the world with their beady little glass eyes. How disgusting! Just the thing for a Model Rag cover." - L.R. -

"I say you should go ahead and let Misty play! It's in such poor taste that it is definitely perfect for the cover of "The Rag." - K.B. -

And from the "Devil's Advocate" camp:

"I vote NO MISTY on Cover!! You have to stick to your editorial decisions, no matter how long it's been since Misty was a horse! If you get slack with your standards, next thing you know, there will be an OF Breyer on the cover! Then your readership will be dazed and confused because they thought TMR was a model horse publication...!" - K.G. -

Well, sorry K.G.: the other, more (how shall I say this?) OFFENSIVE members of our elite subscription list voted you down! Since we only had two NO votes, I guess that you guys have crossed that thin line between curious and macabre (i.e. normal people and RAG Readers!!)

At any rate, since we received such a terrific response from you poor souls, we feel that we should continue to involve you (WITHOUT WARNING) in the intense and highly sophisticated editorial decision making such as is found here at the Model Rag:

ME: "What do you think about putting (TOP SECRET IDEA GUARANTEED TO REPULSE EVEN THE MOST STOIC RAG READER) in the next issue?"
HEATHER: "Oh, that's just TOO gross! That could even drive subscribers away!"
LAURIE: "Well, that settles it! If Heather is grossed out, then it should be just perfect for the deviant crew that reads this pulp!"

So...to that end...we are pleased to announce that the June/July issue will be the First Annual Model Rag SWIMSUIT Issue! And (this is where you come in!) we need swimsuits!! No, not real ones! PICTURES! DRAWINGS! CARTOONS! Whatever your demented little brains can dream up! Help us out - send us your contributions! Be a part of yet another carefully staged subterfuge designed to dupe you into believing that this more than just a dictatorship! Have a good blackmail photo taken of another shower while he/she was poolside at a live show? Send it in! Have a bizarre pic of your favorite weird mascot in its bathing togs? Send it in! Have any old, rare, incredibly valuable discontinued Hagens or Breyers that you just want to give to a good home, somewhere in nearly rural Pennsylvania? Send them in! (Yeah, well, it was worth a try...) Send WHATEVER to: Kay Fowler, 160 Stony Bank Rd., Glen Mills, PA 19342.

Well, since I have you hear, I might as well put in some of our other reader comments:

"I love The Rag! My husband was even seen surreptitiously reading Laurie's Drivel Column last issue!" - D.M. -

"How can I turn down a chance to support the Monty Python of model mags? Heartily enjoy the Rag - by far the best mag that trundles this way (with the possible exception of the Model Horseman - but I'm biased 'coz I write for it!)" - S.R. -

"I am glad I decided to subscribe to the Model Rag and I plan to renew before I get my Or Else notice so you don't have to come looking for me, but then again, I wonder what would happen?" - S.J. -

"This is definitely one publication I look forward to getting (wish it came out every month instead of bi-monthly!)" - D.V. -

"It's a great mag, but I'm sure you've heard all that before, but I'll tell you again...TMR Rules!! Yes, I'm a "Ragite" - a full-blooded "Ragian." You guys have really produced a unique (to say the least) and informative mag!" -S. "Truly a Rag-doll" M. -

Oh, I would like to take a moment to thank Laurie for sending me those two "delightful" pets - Ferdinand and Isabella, the matched pair of black Washington State common garden variety SLUGS! She received these lovely creatures from "Corky's Happy Slug Ranch," but, alas, her Homeowners' Association would not permit her to keep them. So...the pair now live in Glen Mills, much to the delight of my cat, who thinks they are a gift to her!

CHEAP THRILLS

Send submissions to: Gale Good, 1359 Sherrill, Anaheim, CA 92804

Before I start there is a pet peeve I'd like to air. It has come to my attention, somewhat frequently of late, that some collectors are finding "cheap thrills", buying them, and then turning around and bragging to the seller how much they're really worth!! Don't these idiots realize that if that seller ever gets another model (be it Hagen-Renaker, Decorator, or simply a Hong Kong plastic) he/she will equally mark them all up an arm-and-a-leg? I've been steadily watching the prices on regular, scuffed up Breyers go through the roof at swapmeets and antique stores because of these egotistical nincompoops (Note: language has been cleaned up for our younger readers!) It's fine and dandy to brag to friends, family, fellow collectors or this column but not to the non-collecting seller. There is not one good reason to do it!

Okay, off the soapbox again. We've had several nice "cheap thrills" come in since the last issue. Joan Berkwitz, who has the willpower to collect only one type of model horse (HRs of course), found a mint rosegrey FEZ foal complete with factory sticker at a swapmeet for a mere $2.00! Way to go, Joan.

Gay Mahlandt of Kansas found an Ebony Woodgrain Hartland Rearing Mustang awhile back in mint condition for only $7. She planned to sell him but found she couldn't part with him (I've had that problem many times--Gale). Her faith in him was justified as he took Halter Champion at Tina English's All Hartland Show in 1988! She'd also found the 7" woodgrain TB mare and foal. Good thing she waited until after the show to tell Tina she'd sold them, Tina was ready to choke her. Gay also reports finding one of the horses to the Hartland Horse and Rider series. Looks like Hartlands are plentiful out there in the Mid-West. Keep up the good work.

Heather Wells roped in a woodgrain FAM in very nice condition which she is going to offer to TMR readers by way of an auction. Heather and Kay work very hard on TMR and who can forget (as much as some might want--just kidding, Laurie) the infamous Drival Column. These ladies deserve a big hand of applause as TMR starts its THIRD year of publication!

In the last issue, we mentioned Heather's "cheap thrill" find of a Breyer grey Bucking Bronco. Well, a relatively new TMR reader had the same kind of luck and then some. Let's hear it in her own words: My name is Kim Fairbrother. A friend of mine and I were at a flea market around the second week in January this year and we were about half way through when we happened upon a table of Breyers (about 6). The two best ones were a super mint glossy charcoal Mustang and a matte grey Bucking Bronco in good condition. I only paid a total of $6 for the two. Then three weeks later, I stopped at a little roadside building. It wasn't far from the flea market and inside an elderly lady (the owner) had a large collection of horses. Most were Hong Kong copies, cheap chinas, a few common Hartlands (Oh, yeah?--Gale) and a couple of Breyers. I bought one of the Breyers and the lady said she had a real old Breyer at home. She described it as "real big and lots of spots". I was told to come back next week and it would be there. So all week long, I was trying to figure out what it was. The next Monday I was there before the store opened as I wanted to be the first to look at this "special" Breyer. When the lady arrived, I told her why I was there and she reached into her car and pulled out a near mint Glossy Dapple Black Belgian! I could hardly believe my eyes! I nearly grabbed it out of her hands. She only wanted $20.00 and needless to say, I now own a Dapple Black Belgian. He's a beautiful addition to my collection. (WOW! I bet he is!--Gale)

Cheri Stewart, formerly of California and now living in Colorado, wrote to say she collected back in the early 60's and then stopped until she moved to Denver with her husband. Only a few stores there carry Breyers so she has to mail order everything. While browsing in an antique store, she found--under papers and other mounds of junk--a Breyer. Not just your average, everyday Breyer, but she was looking for!! A mint, glossy charcoal Mustang. After buying a few other things, Cheri found the sales lady only charged her $13.00 although the tag said $15.00. (Some places will mark things down if you buy more than one item.--Gale) The other good deal Cheri received was a pinto Indian Pony w/war paint that was advertised as scuffed and scratched. She put it in a solution of dishwasher crystal detergent and water and used some of the crumbly stuff on a sponge to get every single mark came off and there were no scratches! She only paid $30 for a model she's seen advertised for $70-$100.

Karen (? you forget to include your first name) Daviston from Washington has some great cheap thrills to tell you about. Her first was that she managed to save every model horse from when she was a child; many of which are rare collector's pieces. Then she had a friend give her a Gold Charm Decorator Foal left over from her garage sale! But best of all, in mid March she went to see a lady's collection that the woman had since she was a child. "She brought out a huge garbage sack full of models. Well, first came a woodgrain Fighting Stallion, glossy palomino Fighting Stallion and an old PAM--all three had broken legs. Next a glossy bay QH Gelding, a glossy alabaster Fighting Stallion and an PAF--all with broken ear tips. (Things are getting better, I thought!) What came next was quite a thrill! There was a woodgrain FAM and FAF, a glossy charcoal Mustang w/eyewhites, a glossy bay Running Mare w/eyewhites, an old glossy bay PAM, a glossy appaloosa Fighting Stallion, an alabaster 5-Gaiter and, when I thought things couldn't get much better than this, out came an old glossy appaloosa PAM and matching PAF!" (Double Wow! Want to trade those two for another Decorator?--Gale)

Trep Parish's sister was talking about collections (she collects dolls) to her nail stylist when she mentioned she had a sister who collected model horses. "Well, as usual, the old and famous line came up of 'I used to have some of those models when I was a kid. I think my mom still has them in a box somewhere.' Naturally, about 80% of those people never come through with anything but, lo and behold, when Pat went to get her nails done yesterday, there was a huge bag waiting for her...Needless to say, I bought the lot." Trep paid $75.00 for 8 discontinued Breyers, all over 20 years old and in almost perfect condition. That's less than $10 each! Inside that bag was a glossy charcoal FAS, a glossy bay Clydesdale Stallion, a glossy appaloosa Fighting Stallion (!), matte smoke Running Foal, matte alabaster Fighting Stallion, matte smoke Western Prancer, semi-glossy appaloosa FAS and FAF. And the lady thought she had more somewhere but these were all her mother could find at the moment! (Well, keep us posted if more show up, Trep.--Gale)

My own great excitement, although certainly not cheap, was a big thrill! I purchased a Hagen-Renaker horse collection recently that contained three Comella's (my first HR was a Comella that has sadly gone the way of many fragile models), a Roan Lady, a Payday and various other San Dimas molds. Most had a break or two but that is to be expected nowadays. There was even a bisque copy of the 9" Zara and Zilla done by a defunct company called Shalamar who used the actual HR molds I'm told. I upgraded a few of my HR collection with these new ones, traded or sold a couple others but kept most of collection. This is my first real big find of HRs. Lets hope this type of find also come in threes.

After the success of the 1988 Breyer Line Round-up, it has been suggested that Cheap Thrills take on a few more projects e.g. listing variations (Heather is already working on it so it might be printed sometime this year), special runs (so far my list is ten plus pages and may have to be printed over several issues), mold variations (HR, Hartland and even Breyer and Beswick do have a couple) and the "borrowing" of a mold by other companies (how many of you have seen Breyer PAS and Mustang metal hood ornaments?). We seriously consider all suggestions and hope to have some in the next issue (or the one after that). It depends on the page count. I would like to request information on when the solid faced bay Morgan was issued (I've heard it was through a Morgan Horse club or show) and the same on the matte dapple grey Running Mare and Foal (with the grey mane and tails). So far, I've heard early 70's mentioned for the Morgans. Need this for the new updated special run list.

WARNING - TMR has learned that there are FAKE GLOSSY DAPPLE GREY BELGIANS on the market!! Three TMR readers have bought these fake O.F.'s! They are coming out of Colorado, and while they are NOT the real thing, they are very professionally done. They have an excellent finish, and are almost too white. If you find models like this, and the price is just TOO low, beware! Also beware of "O.F." glossy models if the plastic sticks to the finish, or if it smells peculiar. Ask about the return policy when you buy ANY model, and keep the documentation (letters, sales lists, etc) when you purchase. If any other readers have received fake OF models, write to Heather with the details.

While we are on the subject of care in buying models, here's a tip when you are selling models as well. UPS offers an "AOD - Advice of Delivery" service, to let you know that the recipient has gotten the package. The person receiving the package must sign for it, and confirmation of delivery is given to the sender.

Hope that you all liked our TMR Exclusive Post-it Notice on the "Silver" Special Run - BHR phoned as we were preparing to mail the last issue. This is the name that Breyer has attached to the 5,000 piece run of grey "QH Gelding" molds commemorating their 40th anniversary! This run will be available in a limited quantity to mail-order dealers only, so check with your various dealers.

Sad news on the prospective Decorator or Woodgrain special run...it is not to be, folks. At least not this year. The painters have said that the paint jobs are just too difficult. But maybe sometime in the future???

News from Black Horse Ranch...Karen has available a Breyer promotional videotape. It is the type that you see in toy stores and runs about 6 minutes. She has about a half dozen available for $25.00. She also has Breyer baseball caps for sale. They are blue and white with the Breyer logo on front and an outline of the Mustang on each side. These are available for $7.50.

1989 marks the 20th anniversary of Bendley Sales Company!! Mr. Bendley's father started the business, and now Stewart & Arlene run the shop. They're even getting some help from their kids, too! Congrats to Bendleys, and be sure to stop by and see them at their signing party August 9th at the Kentucky Horse Park. Oh, and they still have about a dozen each of the grey and chestnut Bucking Broncos left. Tell them you heard about it in TMR.

Your Horse Source is completely sold out of their 2,000 piece Phar Lap special run. And, contrary to popular belief, there was no shortage of dapple greys...they just sold out quicker than the other colors. YHS's new 32-page color catalog is due to be mailed right around the middle of April, so look for your copy within the month. It is full of horses, horse stationery, stamps, jewelry and shirts. If you don't receive your catalog within a reasonable time, drop them a line at: Box 4155, Jackson, WY 83001-4155. If you tell them you read about it in The Model Rag, they will waive the postage and send you the catalog free of charge!

Oops! Almost forgot! VERY HAPPY TMR BIRTHDAY GREETINGS to our own HEATHER WELLS (April 18) and MERRYL JENSEN (April 28)!! Meryll is going to be three years old...Heather is, well, let's just say that Meryll has some catching up to do!
