Heather and Laurie attempting to motivate Kay to get The Rag out on time.

Some disgusting object, no doubt; maybe even a FROG!

Volume 1, Number 3

August, 1987

Ola! Or, "Olé!," as the case may be. We're back again...and YOU thought it was all a horrible dream last time! Now...a message from the Great and Powerful KAY:

"Pay no attention to that man behind the curtain..." Oops - wrong script. Anyhow...I am babbling on trying to avoid explaining why we (notice how I cleverly include Heather and Laurie!) are late with this issue. In truth, it is my fault. Settlement on our house was July 31st, with the movers scheduled to come on August 7th - no problem - that gives me plenty of time! Unfortunately, we didn't realize that the paneling covering every flat surface of the interior was a rare, yet notorious strain of Eastern "paint sucking" paneling, which proceeded to drink multiple gallons of our pretty "Pure Alabaster" and "Bunny White" paint as if it were Gatorade. So...three coats later...including the 2nd story of our 2-story, cathedral-ceilinged living room... well, let's just say it took a little longer than expected. Plus, the P.O. was holding all of our mail until we got a new mailbox, including a packet of pictures for this issue. So, my life has been a bit preoccupied with other things for a while ("Hinges and handles and doorknobs, oh my!"). But I do apologize for the delay. Oh...my "new and improved" address: Kay Fowler, 160 Stony Bank Road, Glen Mills, PA 19342. If you have sent stuff to the addy in Berwyn, don't worry about it; that's my in-law's house, so I'll get anything that goes there, albeit late.

Item #2: The Model Rag is pleased to announce a format change: beginning February, 1988, we will be going bi-monthly!! We will let you know the details regarding deadlines, subscriptions, etc. next issue.

Kay here -- just wanted to take a minute to thank everyone in So. Cal. for all the great times we had! I miss you all -- I think I need a little bit of insanity in my life in order to thrive!! Any lunatics here in Southeastern Penn?

On a sadder note -- I want to offer my condolences to Heather and Michael Wells on the death of their cat, Buff. Buff was my seat-mate on many a trip to Karen and Peter's, and I know that he will be missed by many...he was loved.

THE MODEL RAG INFORMATION

Our Format:

The Model Rag is divided into several sections to allow you to more easily find the things that you are most interested in. We have separate sections for items for sale, items wanted, misc (tack & remaking services, clubs, etc.), model show classlists, a "People, Places & Things" section to let you hear about the (yes, you guessed it!) people, places & things that make this hobby special, and our commentary section, which includes "The Litterbox" where you can air your gripes about events, or get the lowdown on the latest rumours. The Model Rag is created with a Macintosh 512K computer, using MacPaint, FullPaint, and Graphic Works programs.

Our Subscription Rates:

The Model Rag is published quarterly, and is sent on the 15th of the month (February, May, August, November). Subscriptions are $10.00 + 4 first-class stamps for a one-year subscription. Trial issues are $3.00 + 1 stamp. All issues are mailed flat in manila envelopes, and are sent FIRST CLASS! If we feel that we have enough support, we will adopt a bi-monthly format beginning February 1988!!

Our Advertising Rates:

Every subscriber to The Model Rag receives one free 50-word classified ad (not including name/address) per issue. (If a new ad is not received by the deadline, subscribers' classified ads will be re-run until we are told differently.) Plus, subscribers are offered reduced rates on additional ads. The ad rates are as follows:

	Subscribers	Non-subscribers
Full page	$1.50/page/issue	$3.00/page/issue
Half page	$.75/issue	$1.50/issue
Quarter page	$.50/issue	$1.00/issue
Classifieds (50 words or less)	$.25/issue	$.50/issue

Deadline for submission of advertising is the 1st of the month that the issue is due out. For example, the deadline for the February 15th issue is February 1st. Advertising and subscription rates are subject to change with one issue's notice. We reserve the right to re-type and/or edit copy.

Editors:

Heather Wells: 3985 Strong Street, Riverside, CA 92501. Heather is in charge of subscriptions and material for "The Litterbox" and the "People, Places and Things" columns.

Kay Fowler: 160 Stony Bank Road, Glen Mills, PA 19342. All advertising should be sent to Kay. Please specify which section you would prefer your ad(s) to go in; e.g. For Sale, Wanted, Misc, Showtime. (215) 459-0484.

Laurie Jensen: 32891 Calle del Tesoro, San Juan Capistrano, CA 92675. Send her anything you want for her Drivel column, plus any pix for Remaker of the Issue, & Old Timer's Album.

To Whom It May Concern:

I would like to clear up some concern over a rumor that H-R is passibly selling or leasing their metal molds to either Stevens or another firm. This is NOT TRUE! A am sorry if I have upset anyone by this. I felt that the person who told me was "in the know", but in fact was only talking. So, please don't be hurt by this rumor, I never intended to hurt anyone.

Modelly,
Kathleen Rose

Dig out and dust off those neglected Stablemate and Little Bit sized models -- now there is a club JUST FOR THEM!

THE MINI MODEL HORSE REGISTRY & CLUB

features Registries for models with traceable pedigrees (A Reg.) and those without (B Reg.), monthly club shows, newsletter, benefits, year-end awards and National show. Now in our second year, MMHRC gives those smaller models the recognition they deserve.

Madeline and I wish to thank Sheryl Leisure for designing and making those perfect pink sleeper shirts we gave away to the judges and show committee members (and anyone else silly enough to wear them)!!! Sheryl did an excellent job of catching the inner beauty of Madeline and printing them on the shirts. We recommend Sheryl anytime!! Cheryl Munde, 1025 Sheffield Pl., Thousand Oaks, CA 91360.

AUCTIONAUCTIONAUCTIONAUCTIONAUCTIONAUCTIONAUCTIONAUCTION

Yes, the long-awaited MODEL RAG AUCTION, at last! We have, for your consideration, a Breyer "Woodgrain" Bloodhound. For those of you who have never seen one, it is NOT a true woodgrain, but is, instead, a solid brown "Jolly Cholly Bassett Hound", with tri-colored eyes, red nostril detail, and black shading. This model is in good condition, with a few marks and nicks on the body, and some LIGHT rubs on the ears and top of head. We wanted to find an uncommon O.F. model for our Model Rag friends, and we are offering him with a starting bid of just $10.00. The ending date of the auction is Saturday, OCTOBER 31, 1987 at 6:00 p.m. PDT. Please forward all bids to: Heather Wells, 3985 Strong St., Riverside, CA 92501.

Mc DANIEL FARMS

Home of "Real" Champion Purebred Arabian Mares. Here's our leading ladies!

SEYN LADY MAE #146090 (Seynri++ X Mohfi) Halter champion, winner of over 250 awards, many times Grand Champion at halter, open showing only.

KANDEE ROSE #216525 (Colimar Cabul X Riahzahhna) upcoming "English Delight", first level dressage, winner at eventing, jumping, proven endurance horse.

BADI RIGATA #131667 (Gato Gordo X Farah Riba) "Badi" meaning of the highest, halter winner, true class, limited open showing.

Here at Mc Daniel Farms, we are tired of the politics in "real" horse - horse shows. We have been into Appys, AQHA'S, Paints, Welsh Ponies, and our beloved Arabians. We are small-time exhibitors, however, out here in Appy and AQHA country, our Arabian mares have stood their ground, and in doing so made their mark. We've decided why go through all the "pains" in real showing, why not just load the show string into a suitcase and off we go. We've been collecting OF Breyers around 25 years. We know nothing about model showing. Looking for many discontinued models in excellent to mint condition. Want to purchase Breyer dealer catalogs (no photo copies) starting with the year 1974 through to the beginning. We invite your sales lists, and or any inquires. No SASE required. We are very excited about our new venture, and we hope to hear from you soon. Watch for our next ad introducing our "real" champion AQHA show string. Til then, we've got the Breyer fever!!!!

Mc DANIEL FARMS

We at Mc Daniel Farms are breeding and training for a natural horse. Each breed is an individual; the poetry of the Andalusians, fluid action of Arabians, the gaited Saddlebred, the ever versatile, popular Quarter horse, and the racing and jumping Thoroughbreds.

This month we are introducing our "real" Quarter Horse Division:

- Miss Sunny Go (Sunny Go Bars X Miss Boquillas) proven broodmare, she out produces herself time and again, true family friend.
- Rumors Rainy Day (Rumor X Rainy Tip) high point and youth high point performance horse. Her offspring are all halter winners and Grand and Reserve winners.
- Tee Two (Tee One X Miss Sunny Go) 1977 National Cutting Horse Assoc. entrant. He's a versatile and effective performer.
- Holey High Time (Holey Sox X Windy High Time) cutting mare and cutting futurity winner.
- Suns Classy Chick (Sun Bars X Miss Sunny Go) halter winner, many times Grand and Reserve Champion, currently in Western Pleasure training.
- Rumors Raincheck (Rumor X Miss Sunny Go) halter winner, racing and cutting training; senior stallion, sire of many halter and performance champions.
- A Little Extra Imp (Bueno Chex Imp X Rumors Rainy Day) junior stallion, halter winner, currently in Western Pleasure training, excellent stock horse prospect.

With our combined years of experience with "real" horses, our main aim is to apply this knowledge to model showing. We are starting to gather our model show string, and our expectations and goals are high. Still looking for many discontinued OF Breyer models. We invite your saleslists and any inquires. Our next ad will feature our Appaloosa Division, til then we have the ever growing Breyer fever.....

"REWORKER'S REVIEW--A NEW TRADITION IN MODEL SHOWING"

oops. look at all the room I have left.

CHECK OUT ELITE DECORATIONS FEATURED IN OUR REMAKER OF THE ISSUE SECTION..SHE'S GREAT!!

(There. That filled it in a little!)

PEOPLE, PLACES, & THINGS

Hey, hey, hey...we have some birthdays to report!

Bill Jensen: August 7th (the big 31!)

Bill & Laurie Jensen's anniversary: August 6th (4 years!)

C. L. & Kay Fowler's anniversary: September 1st (3 years!)

Cheryl Munde: Sept 3rd (30 !?!? Somehow I have a hard time believing she's over 5!)

Kay's B-Day: September 21st (24 y.o. - Ha! I can tell you guys now since you can't do anything to me anymore!)

In honor of all of the anniversaries, we have a special anniversary recipe...

Laurie's Frog-tastic Day-Glo Spaghetti!!!

Ingredients:

- | | |
|--|-------------------------------|
| 1 package (any size) spaghetti | 1/2 tsp garlic salt |
| 1 jar (or so) Ralph's Plain Wrap spaghetti sauce | 1-29 oz. can pork & beans |
| Optional: | 1-15 oz. can butter beans |
| 1 can mushrooms | 1-15 oz. can lima beans |
| 1 onion, sauteed | 1-15 oz. can red kidney beans |
| 1 green pepper, chopped | |
| 1 frog, dried and stuffed | |

Cook spaghetti. Drain. Mix all the rest of the stuff into the spaghetti. Garnish with rubber dime-store insects. Serve in a big dish with those stupid, cheap plastic forks that break if you try to eat with them. (Kay here - be sure and serve on thin paper plates!) Serves a sort of hungry medium sized group, or a very hungry small group.

Hey, we have some more "Video Models" to report! Thanks to Cheryl Greene for sending these:

"Here is a quick list of some more movies with models in them.-----"

1. Final Conflict (Omen III) 3 metal horses behind bad guy's head and 1 large Drafter in the living room of his best aide.
2. Firestarter Many Breyers on wall in store when they are running away.
3. "The Tinker" (Little House on the Prairie) The tinker dumped what were supposed to be his tin creations into a fire to make a bell, but they were Breyers. (Kay here - they had a Pacer and an El Pastor) ...the kids from the store had many wild animals in their room, also supposed to be tin."

Kay here again - I think that I saw a "Misty" in an Ex-Lax commercial - no, I'm NOT kidding!! (Would I lie about something as serious as irregularity!?) Anybody else know of any (models, that is)? This is your big chance for fame here, folks...

Oops! A misprint in my Virginia Orison article (May '87, p.41) states, "...Virginia Orison models were made from 1845, when Mrs. J. Orison started them as a hobby, until her death around 1970." Let's see. That means that woman produced models for 125 years! She sure must have been spry, making model horses in her oven at 100+ years! It should say, "...from 1945..."

Hey, hey! We have another recipe - yes, even BETTER than "Day-Glo Spaghetti!"

"This recipe is one of many hand downs given to us on our wedding. I have made it many times, as it is easy and quick, and have even used other kinds of fruit. Do not ever use any kind of canned fruit; it won't bake right, but any kind of fresh fruit is fine.

ENGLISH APPLE PIE

- mix one egg with 3/4 cup sugar, set aside
- mix 1/2 cup flour, 1 tsp baking powder, 1/4 tsp salt in a larger bowl
- add egg/sugar mixture to flour mixture.
- add 1/2 cup nuts, 1 cup chopped apples, and cinnamon to batter
- put this goop in a 9" greased pie pan
- bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes

This pie does not have a pie crust. Just mix and put in, bake, and then enjoy thirty minutes later!! I have also put in peaches, nectarines, fresh cherries, etc.

This recipe was from my Aunt Ruth Montgomery (my husband Rick's father's sister). She lives in Kansas." (Recipe submitted by Cheryl Munde.)

Thanks Cheryl - this one sounds GREAT!

Kay here - Well, since I've made us this late, I may as well drag it out further and tell you all what I've been doing (yes, besides breathing!). Let's take a walk down memory lane...all the way back to June...It's the week of June 7th - I have a Marketing seminar final on Monday. On Tuesday, C.L. & I decide maybe we should start writing our thesis-es (now there's a word you don't see in the plural very often!) - well, maybe it wasn't QUITE that bad, although the procrastination bug didn't help at this point in time! We turn them in to the instructor, and arrange to meet on Wednesday to discuss any possible revisions. Wednesday arrives, bringing with it the moving men (Guido, Lefty, Thumbs, Hans, etc. You know, it isn't so much the vacant expression in the face, it's the drooling and grunting that makes you wonder about how many cards are missing out of the old pack...). They come at around 11:00, and stay until 8:00, with one poor guy, Mike, assigned to the "horse packing detail" (No kidding - one guy JUST to pack the models - and it took him TWO days!! He said he had nightmares about them on Wednesday...). We receive the papers back, with instructions for MAJOR revisions -ughh. We had a very nice dinner with Mike and Heather - thanks guys - then back to the salt mines for an all-nighter. At this point in time, all that remains in the apartment are 2 tables, the 2 computers (1 borrowed from Mom), the microwave (no food, no fridge), the bed, and three lamps. Caught 10 minutes of sleep before the movers arrived in the morning - yawn - finished the papers, turned them in, collected our suitcases, went to Mom & Dad's for the night, and flew to Pennsylvania on Friday morning. No stress at all!! Then - we took a whole weekend off

LOUDLY, "Heather, how much would you pay for a man?" Well, I glanced up at Michael and thought, well, BIG BUCKS, I suppose?!? Then I started laughing and turned around and looked at Karen and she's holding this Hartland MAN rider....I thought my gut would bust from laughing - everyone around us was laughing too! (Kay here - well, practically everyone in the show hall heard - Karen is not known for her soft-spoken ways! There are SO MANY good responses to a questions like that, I about died trying to get them all out....) What a circus! That about wound up the first day... (You forgot to tell them about staying in the infamous "Sylmar Roach Motel!" Yum, yum...) Well, classes were on the upbeat Sunday also, and they just clicked right along. We had no great quotes this day! The Mascot classes were held at noon...we all just loved Kay's "Breyer's Ice Cream." Yes, that was Ben and Brenda in the banana split dish, complete with real whipped cream. JUDGE THAT PUPPY FAST!!! She got a 2nd place for that effort! (Yeah - I think I lost out to the "living bead purse" again...To the uninitiated, that refers to Kathy Hartman's iguana, alias "Banjo" - at least I've stopped calling him "That Luggage"...) And if you haven't heard about the one-of-ten Red Bay Welsh Pony, some of us got together and got high bid. Then we raffled it off between us! The lucky winner...Kay Fowler. The Red Bay now resides in Penn! Rich Ruddish showed up in the afternoon. It was very nice to meet him and have him sign models and catalogs. Glad he could make it! The top winners were:

RR Novice: Linda Westphal

OF Novice: Gee Phelps

RR Senior: Kay Fowler

OF Senior: Kathleen Rose

Anyway, a good time was had by all: excellent judging, excellent food, excellent friends...just wait till next year...

Here's an amusing show premium sent in by Kathy Hartman for a "Mock Dressage Show" that she was going to:

"During the rider's first test, the judge may make suggestions, correction, or outright nagging demands."

"Our judge has promised to be as kind as possible under the circumstances, consistent, and will not giggle during the tests."

"Since this is an educational event, as many obstacles as possible have been combined to stimulate both the horse and rider (deer on the hillside, backfiring trucks, streaking cats, and a kamakaze ground squirrel)."

The classes included:

1. Maiden Walk-Trot (for the real greenies)
2. Walk-Trot 2 (rider still frozen in place, but able to cope with a change in pattern)
3. Maiden Training Level 1 (for those who can canter with some degree of safety, but have never considered being in an arena alone)
- g. Anything Else (indicate what you're planning on doing on the entry -- sitting quietly in the middle of the arena is acceptable, but the judge may find it difficult to score.)

And then there is the entry form's hold harmless clause:

"I understand that riding (or even being around) horses is dangerous and someone is likely to be injured - probably me. However, I promise not to get hurt nor sue anyone, no matter how tempting the idea, nor reasonable the thought. I realize the rules of this show are being made up as we go along and agree to whatever insanities may be forthcoming. Above all, I agree that there will be no screaming at the management. Signed _____ Guardian _____ (Obviously anyone messing around with horses needs a guardian)

The Unknown Column

This column is going to be devoted to random prattling, bits of news, helpful hints (or gripes), and just about anything else you can think of. It doesn't have a name yet but we're considering having a column-naming contest. The prize would be a discontinued Breyer, a BHR repaint or something else that's very desirable (like dead, stuffed frogs, right?!) Send your letters or postcards to: Gale Good, 1350 Sherrill St., Anaheim, CA 92804. The deadline...when I get the winning entry (hopefully before the end of the year).

For the first few issues, I'd like to hear from everyone about their best finds, modelwise. Brag a little. And, believe it or not, these stories might help others find some treasured models by giving them ideas on how and where to look.

My best finds are divided both by years and manufacturers. I figure one terrific find a year is enough to keep you looking. And please, don't say you never find anything. The last person who said that to me found a Hagen-Renaker Roan Lady and Camella at a garage sale a couple of months later for a DOLLAR a piece!! So I'll start with my best Hagen-Renaker finds. I don't have too many of the real old H-R's (Horse Feathers, Gale! - Notice how I am maintaining the "G-rating" of this magazine by not saying what she's REALLY dishing out!), but two of the ones I do have were well worth the wait.

While purchasing the old HR mini circus pony with plume (And this ain't even the find, folks!) I asked the seller if she had any other model horses. She proceeded to describe a HR Bedouin which she did not bring because it had four broken legs. After four months of getting the runaround (either she forgot it or didn't come or I couldn't go), she finally told me her daughter had decided to keep it. Sigh. I thought that was that. Then the following month I was floored to see another dealer with a HR Bedouin at the same swapmeet! It had no breaks except for one tassel missing from the bridle and was complete with ruff. She was asking $95 because she thought it was porcelain. It doesn't pay to argue with some dealers (she also insisted that it was made before 1952) especially if you want what their selling. Someone had tried to buy it earlier but only had a check and she wanted cash only. I figured it was worth at least $200 but only had $20 on me. I asked if she'd take the $20 as down payment and I would bring the rest to her home during the week. She agreed and I was a nervous wreck until I was able to pick him up. This was eight years ago and definately my best find of the 70's.

At a craft show just last year I was showing photos of my model dogs to a dealer friend when she had to go wait on a customer. The dealer next to her looked at them and exclaimed how lifelike they were. I said that it was only an offshoot of my real interest: model horses. She mentioned that she had a few broken model horses at home and wondered if they were worth anything. I suggested she bring them the next day. I was there early and she waved a hand towards her table and said the bag was under the table. I nearly choked when the first thing I pulled out was a beautiful white HR Monrovia 9" Zara with a clean rear leg break. The rest of the models were junk but I happily wrote out a check for $25 for all of them.

Next, we hear from Kay:

My best find, in the HR department was one I got a few months ago. I was in visiting a local antique dealer friend, checking out what Breyers he'd found. He said, "...I just got these this morning." He pulled out a few models, nothing great, but I picked out a couple to buy. Then he said, "Oh, I found this too...", and pulled out a HR Turning Arab in white. It was all I could do to remain upright. He said, "It has a broken ear, but you can have it if you want." Guess what - I wanted it. Thank you, Jerry!

Oh - just had another find - actually a JOINT find with Heather. We were at a certain swap meet not long ago... we had already found 2 Tom Masterson minis, a mini mini mare (unusual color), a "Brunhilda" (dog), and a chestnut SM Morgan Mare... we were cruising along, going past the last row of stalls, when WE BOTH SAW THEM!!! We left my poor mother in the dust and pounced...coming up with an HR "Heather" in white (perfect!), and a "Sherif" in white (couple of repairs). Sold as a pair, "Horse and Pony" for $18. We said, "Gale is going to have a fit!" (or something to that effect). However, Gale, in the meantime, is at the same swapmeet buying a WOODGRAIN MORGAN and a HR DW Elephant!! I'd say that was a pretty good swapmeet!

And speaking of that swapmeet...at the same place a couple of years earlier, I had my best Breyer find. I was looking around and spotted a table full of ears and hooves. Off I raced, and ended up purchasing: a smoke Running Mare, an alabaster 5-Gaiter, a smoke Running foal, a white Running foal, a woodgrain Fighting Stallion, and a Golden Charm Fighting Stallion, plus a few others all for about $60. And I'm not the only one to find Decorators there, either. A certain GALE GOOD managed to snag a dapple blue 5-Gaiter the following year!

Now we hear from Heather:

O.K. - now the next story! Once upon a time, no, that's not how it goes! My most thrilling find...by Heather Wells!! Back when I started actively looking for models I would talk Michael and his son into "horse hunts." We would take the whole day and go to ALL the places I charted for nearby cities. We'd do swap meets in the early morning, then antique shops all afternoon. Well, on this particular hunt, I was dragging them all over the Inland Empire. We had already found some good models, but boy was I getting some ribbing! "Ohhh, Heather, look! A glossy! Can we go eat now?" O.K., O.K. guys, just one more shop. Then I'd do two shops! So we finally get to the last stop. The guys are naturally last out of the car, making terrible little remarks. I'm telling them to be nice to me, looking in the windows as we approach the entrance. There's a stall with cups and saucers and all kinds of dishes...and...right in the middle...blue dapple Breyers...a Running Mare, a fighting Stallion, and a Mustang. I grabbed Michael's arm and gasped, then took off thru the entrance. I could hear Michael and his son telling each other, "...Oooh, lookie, BLUE horsies!" There was a lady right in front of the Mustang, looking at plates. I grabbed the other two and almost pushed her out of the way to get the Mustang. I had all three in my hot hands when Moe and Larry came in! I really didn't know for sure what they were except they were Breyers - they had seals. Michael thought they weren't because they were blue!! Well, we bought them for $7.50 each and when I got home I immediately phoned Lani Keller. She confirmed they were Breyer Decorators and said she couldn't believe my luck. Now when I ask the guys to go on a "horse hunt" I really rub their noses in it. "Come on guys, we just might find some Decorators!!"

Now I expect to hear from every subscriber. Come on Nancy. Tell us the story behind your HR Racehorse and Jockey. And Sheryl, how about your Breyer white Buffalo? Til next time, Thock.

Laurie's Drivel Column

Hi there, frog fans! Time for another installment of "All My Polliwogs." (Kay: "The Green and the Restless?" "As the World Croaks?" "The Guiding Toad?" I could go on, but I sense that I have taken this to its natural demise...) Hee hee. And GUESS WHAT!! At Western Regional Congress, Kathleen Rose presented me with a new member of the Bullfrog Band! He's absolutely INDESCRIBABLE. But I will try! (You KNEW she would!) He's a dead, stuffed TURTLE, playing a wooden saxophone. Actually, he looks like he's gagging on it. SO ATTRACTIVE. I feel kinda sorry for the poor thing, actually. I mean, most frogs are relatively short-lived, but turtles live as long or longer than people, usually. And this one is pretty big. So I feel badly that his life was cut short just to be stuffed and forced to play a wooden saxophone, mummified that way for all eternity, for all to see. Poor guy. But feeling sorry for him doesn't really help his situation now, so I guess his fate is sealed (Unless you want to try that new "Bringing Frogs Back From the Dead" ritual that you read on your breakfast cereal box...), and I may as well display him so that his life being snuffed out wasn't for nothing. (sniff) (well, at least he went to someone who could appreciate him!)

It seems I'm not the only sicko who has had petrified reptiles and amphibians in her possession. Turns out, my good pals Judy René Pope and Paula O'Keefe (I KNEW we had a lot in common...) have the following confession... (Paula writes)"...Alas, I no longer have my stuffed ALLIGATOR. (!) My Aunt Shirley used to trek to Florida every winter when my sister and I were wee tads, (me: WEE TADS? If I ever was one, I wouldn't admit it... but then there are a lot of things I won't admit to...), and she always brought us back something...one year, when I was about 7 and Nancy was 6, it was two stuffed baby alligators (caymans, I suppose) in dreadful doll outfits, hers in a fairy princess getup and mine in a cowboy suit. Honest! Would I lie? (me: I believe you, I believe you.) Six-guns and all...poor little beast. I adored it, of course, (me: OF COURSE.) and had fun prying open its nailed-shut mouth to admire the rows and rows of needly little teeth. I was a strange child. (me: Well! That goes without saying! But wait, there's MORE...) As for Judy's dried frog and toads, she ceremonially abandoned them in a tree (me: How else?) before we left Boulder. (Of course, the famous Boulder dried frog burial forest...) A gesture of formal departure, I daresay." WELL. What can anyone add to that? Any other closet frog/reptile/? collectors out there?

On the same subject - the Bullfrog Band now has an official name! I wasn't exactly BLITZED with entries, you guys, but the ones I got were great! But the best suggestion for the "Name the Frogs" contest came from (you guessed it...) JUDY RENEE POPE! (I'm sure PAULA had something to do with it, too...) (Laurie, you flake, you forgot to say what the name was!! But...luckily, I remembered what your bizarre and totally disjointed letter said, so...here it is:

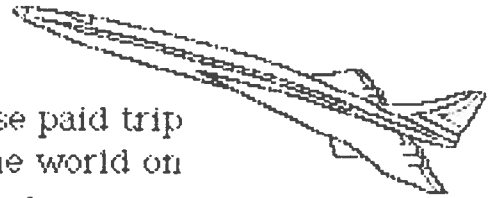

THE ZOMBÖID HÖPPERS

Judy and Paula will receive this typically cheap and disgusting prize, as we promised in the last issue: (Please note: we were unable to capture the essence of this cheap and disgusting prize on film for this issue, so, Laurie has given ME permission to ad lib...hee hee...so, here goes...) JUDY & PAULA COME ON DOWN!!!! You, yes you, are the lucky winners of the incredible Model Rag "Name the Froggies" Contest!! Due to your amazing lack of sense and taste, we here at the Rag are thrilled to inform you of outstanding and expensive awards from which your very own prize WILL be selected. You, JUDY AND PAULA, have already won ONE of the following:

A. Your own yacht.

B. All expense paid trip around the world on the Concorde.

C. Your own over-priced sports car.

D. (Artist's rendition) Actual prize may differ.

Kay thinks we should name each band member individually, Well, that's not a bad idea. I think I'll take a group picture of all the band members for the next issue and you all can show the same "tremendous" response you showed last time and SEND IN NAMES!

Speaking of tremendous response, I guess my "send Bow Wows or else" threat is working. I received several Bow Wows. The one I have selected this issue is the first submission I received, a FAS remake by Linda Watson McCormick. She submitted it herself, and she even laughs good-naturedly about him. So WE CAN ALL HAVE A LAUGH AT HER EXPENSE!! Here he is:

Linda writes: "Here is a Bow Wow for your drivel column (actually I couldn't stand all the crying because no one had sent one in) (me: Crying? Moi?) And...I didn't want to find out what 'or else' meant!" (me: You're right. You don't.)

"Unfortunately this Bow Wow is my very own original. In fact, it's my first ever repaint and first saddle - could you tell? The hairing material came from my dog (true: HER DOG. Did she also teach it to walk backwards?) He was a cockapoo... (Emo: "How about a cockatoo? No thanks, just the bird...") ...hmmm, fitting name. (me: Linda, did you have to pick up after the little dickens? Kay: "Little dickens" - wasn't that what Marney was warning us about at WRC?) No, I didn't do anything drastic to the poor dog - I just saved the hair after one of his haircuts."

Well, well. Who else has a Bow Wow that they'll admit to? How about tack? (Linda's saddle blanket looks suspiciously like a cannibalized pot-holder...) I have a really HIDEOUS Bow Wow for next issue, but after that BIG ZERO! So unless you want to find out what "or else" is, send BOW WOWS!

Hey, Mair Dodd's autobiography, "Confessions of a Deprived Northern California Shower," should be a big seller. Except I think she should change the word "Deprived" in the title to "Depraved." Har har. So what DO you have to confess to, Mair? I've wondered about your mental state ever since you sent those photos of the frogs wearing wiglets.

Well, it's that time again! "Time for what?", all the new subscribers are asking. TIME FOR THE INSECT PICTURES OF THE ISSUE. (You couldn't wait, so here they are!)

bugs were discovered to be of commercial value. On April 1, 1778, in Boston, the insect made its debut in the marketplace.

Husbands and wives fought over who would take the family bug for a walk.

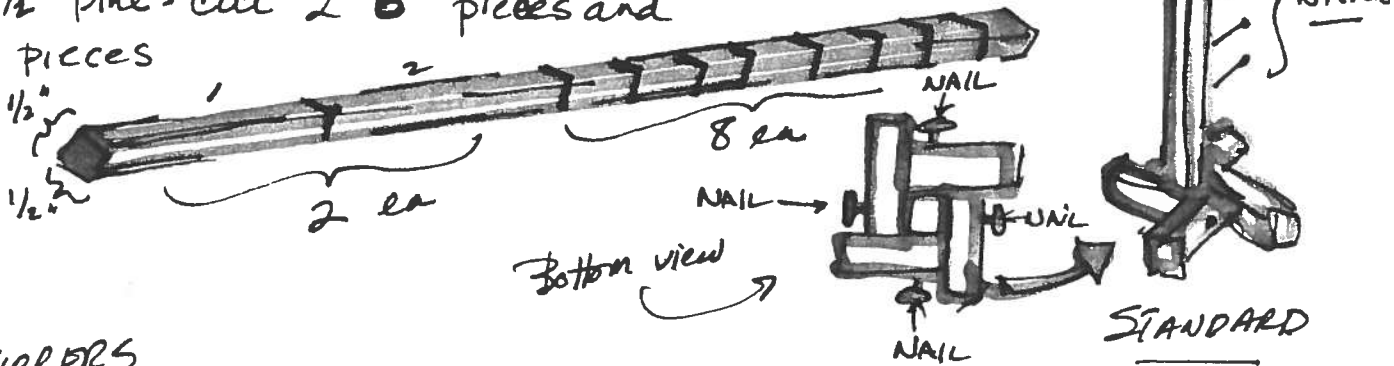

As I promised, but didn't deliver, I will now draw what I meant in the last issue regarding jumps for models. (O.K. so she's a little late...what do you expect from someone with a college degree...well, maybe she has a "COLLAGE" degree...that would really explain a lot...)

- TO MAKE MODEL JUMPS -

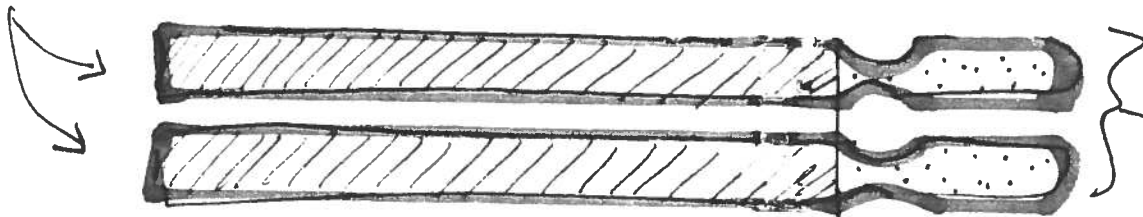

(make poles or rails as long as this paper (11" or so) for trad size, as long as this is wide (8 1/2" or so) for classic.)

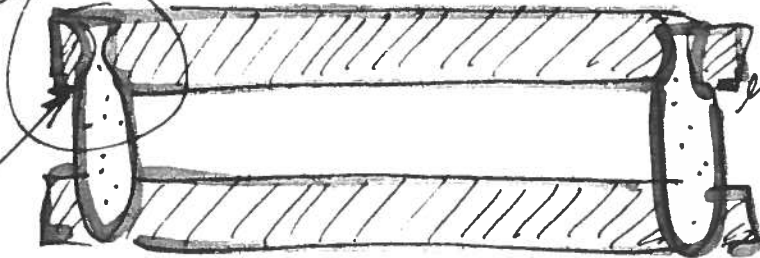

1/2 x 1/2 Pine - cut 2 6" pieces and 8-1 1/2" pieces

PAINT STIRRERS

hot glue together

make sure ends protrude so that they'll hang on nails on standards.

PAINT ALL PARTS AS YOU LIKE (I recommend white...)

(This is pretty self-explanatory - any? please write me)
(Jamie)

On a slightly serious note (only slightly). I have to say I agree with what Madeline had to say in her column last time about us all helping each other in this hobby. I may be guilty of "dishing meow mix" (being catty) (Heavens! Not you, Laurie!), but if anyone asks for help, or they want to know how to remake or make tack or whatever, I am very happy to supply info. I even take show pix for people, with my tack and set-ups for free, on occasion! (Gasp!) I am not one to hoard the knowledge I have (what LITTLE I have, Har, har.) So lets all be sports and share what we know! (Kay here - I know that I'm hogging in on Laurie's drive!, but... Just wanted to say "thanks" to all of the people from whom I have learned about tack, obstacles, etc. Thanks to Laurie, Kathy Hartman, Cheryl Munde, Carolyn Ruth, and everyone else who shared their expertise with others!! I did well at WRC this year, and I can assure you that it was largely due to what I learned from other showers! Here's a suggestion for future shows: If you are not in a particular class, ask the judge's permission to listen to them as they judge. If they agree, it can be very informative, and will help you when you enter that class at other shows. Also, watch the placings in the other division(s), and ask the judges for their reasons. Believe me, I learned quite a bit from watching the Novice performance classes this year!)

I judged both days at Western Regional Congress, and I must say I was impressed with the creativity used in the set-ups. If anyone has any ideas they'd like to share, please send them in! I saw a games event that I hadn't heard of before (and I DID win a state championship in REAL LIVE HORSE Show gaming in 1975 and 1976 - Brag, brag!) but this person (Actually it was Kay) put the reference material next to her setup so I could check the accuracy. Each judge is different; but my policy when showing is to let the judge know that you care about the presentation of your horse. Even an O.F. will win (when I'm judging anyway) if it is presented well and is appropriate.

One last thing... (whew...this is LONG!) I wanted to tell all persons I judged for and with at WRC that I really enjoyed EVERYONE's company. I had a wonderful time (aside from the "Little friends" in my motel bathroom - whose company I did NOT enjoy...) and I hope to see everyone PLUS all you other model showers at the next live Model Rag show and at WRC '88!

Write with your thoughts. (A postcard should suffice for the lot of you...NAH!) All my love to all my pals...as always,

Laurie Jo

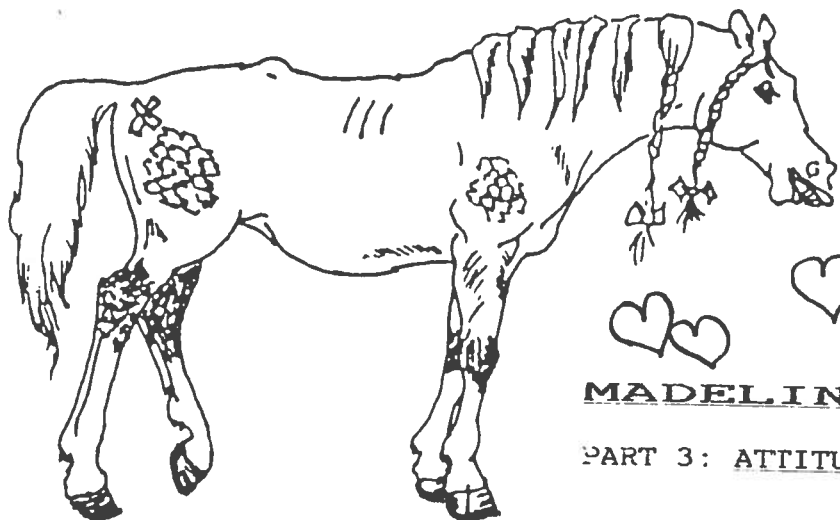

P.S. I still haven't unearthed THE photo of Heather with the deviled eggs. But don't worry (Except you, Heather), it'll turn up!

Quote of the day (#2) -

"...Watch out for small NICKS..."
-MJW-

(Although she didn't really say "nicks", but we promised that we wouldn't print what she REALLY said - after all, this is a FAMILY publication!)

MADELINE'S NEWSLETTER

PART 3: ATTITUDE

THE MADELINE AWARD. Those of you who went to Western Regional Congress probably noticed a very different type of award sitting on the table on Sunday. How did YOU interpret this trophy? A large red cup mounted on a base of plastic and imitation wood and alongside of it, the year, and sitting so shiny upon the cup, a horses rear end. Sounds like the all American beauty queen trophy? As famous as the "Oscar", the Noble Prize, and the "Fickle Finger of Fate"? The recipient of this trophy was in a coma for days. Busily tacking up for the next class, the announcement and speech for this honorable masterpiece was made and when her name was called, there was deffinitely a shocked look on her face. Embarrassed, she stumbled up to the stage. Speechless, she posed for all the cameras, a proud look on her face. Yes, on this day of history, Barbara McCullough made the headlines and she slipped quietly back to her corner to finish up tacking.

THE MADELINE AWARD was not donated to WESTERN REGIONAL CONGRESS as an insult. It was meant to be humorous and given to the person with honorable intention. Given to the person who is kind, helpful, friendly, and with a good attitude towards this hobby.

THANK YOU BARBARA and to others who deserve THE MADELINE AWARD (Kay, Heather, Laurie too!!)

Look out, I.M.H.C. (INTERNATIONAL MODEL HORSE CONVENTION run by Marney Walerius). THE MADELINE AWARD is coming your way!! Those of you who will be going will get to view this magnificent trophy on display. Will YOU be the LUCKY one?

Summer is just about over (aigh, why did I remind you?) and school will soon be here. I was hoping to take a few college courses (like human behavior training). Do you think they will accept me at MY age? Did you all see "Back to School" with Rodney Dangerfield? Deffinitely my type of man!! And how about "Howard the Duck"? Made me want to replace the goose-down feathers in my pillows with the fake stuff! And what did you enjoy this summer?

LIVE SHOW APPEARANCES

LAS VEGAS WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS Sept. 12-13. Bettye Brown will be picking us up and we shall go a-trekking across the desert into the wild state of Nevada, excited about the lights and action. Oh, that reminds me of a joke I heard about Reno, Nevada. Here goes, and I hope you guys get it, "Reno is sooooo hot.....(how hot is it?).....that you can see Sparks a mile away"!! Har har, hee hee, ho ho!! Oh, you don't get it? Sparks is a town a mile away from Reno!! Chuckle, chuckle. Oh well, I tried Personal to NONNEE: If you can ever convince your human to visit me, I will have a lovely candlelight dinner of your favorite dish (dried bumblebees) and then we can relax in my jacuzzi and drink champagne.

LITTLE BLUE THING, GLENN CODY MUNDEE, IS 20 months old!!

Dear Madeline:

Have you ever heard of this "Friend from the Past"? (Good riddance?)

Back in 1981, Calif. Model Horse Showers club held it's first live show at the home of Doris Rau, North Fork, Calif.

Regardless of the deck that shook like an earthquake whenever anyone moved, regardless of the 100+ degree weather that started to melt some of the horses -- the show was a success.

Somewhere between the melting legs, earthquakes and showers' sweat--this "friend" appeared. First he was just magically "sitting" in a halter class - a real looser if I ever saw one! Then he appeared complete with string in the showmanship class. He popped up in trail with sticks, and again in costume with his farmer-red scarf. Altho he was a complete looser, he won a spot in "show memories" and was given the name of "Lucky 7".

Lucky 7's growth progress was reported regularly in the now-extinct TMA and his identity remained a mystery for some time - except for the exhibitors at the show, of course.

For a short while, Lucky 7 entered a few special mascot classes and gathered several 1st, some 10th's, one 10 1/2, and a Dishonorable Mention! His "career" had to end as his growth rate increased rapidly.

At CMHS second live show the following year - Lucky 7 put in his appearance. He couldn't believe the hysterical laughter. After all, he had developed beautifully - a yearling Appy - he was, he was!

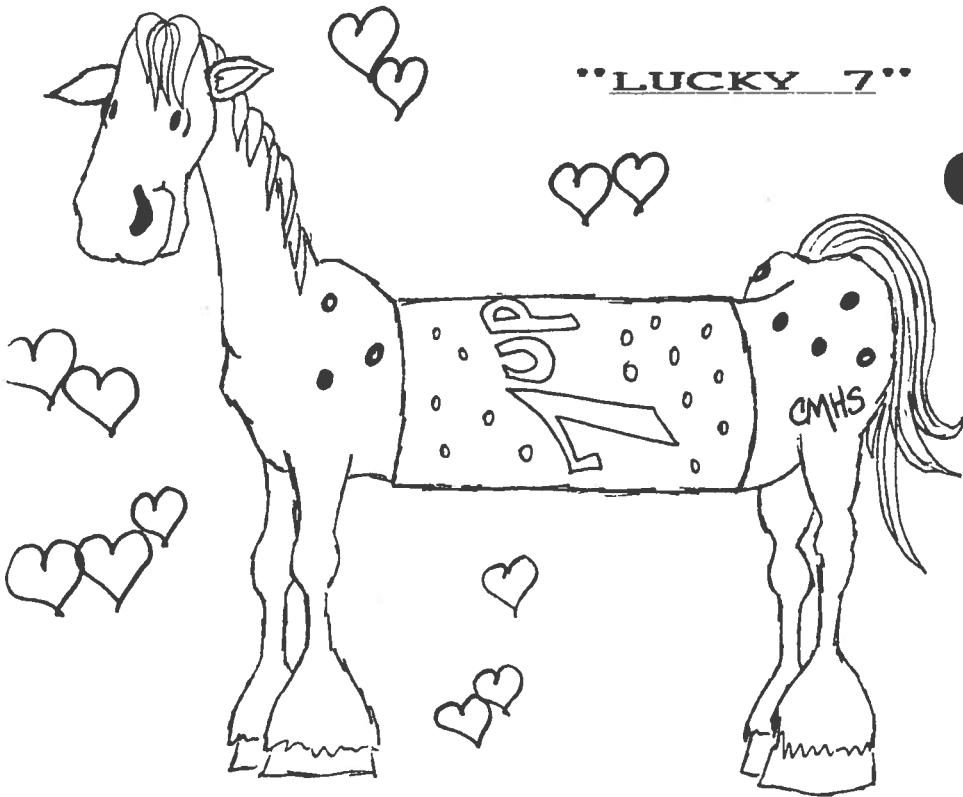

Yes, there stood Lucky 7, where at the 1st live show he had only been a new born 7-up can, this time he stood proudly matured. He had a family Arab front + can + the rest of the Arab; real human hair mane curled clear to his knees and a tail curled and dragging 6" behind in the dirt. Now if that wasn't enough, he had "grown" matching color - 7-up green, complete with silver "spots". Not only had he all this magnificence, but to top it off with real elegance - he had silver hooves and a silver CMHS brand!

Why did everyone laugh? Well "7" didn't want to show off, but he knew they were just trying to cover up their disappointment. Yep, they knew as well as he, that his taking Grand Champion was a sure bet, so trying to cover up their disappointment with laughs didn't fool him for one minute!

"7" didn't win that day - he didn't even enter a class! After all, when you host a show, everyone knows you can't take all the honors, right????

Sometime ago, approx. 4 years, Lucky 7 met with a tragic accident. He accidentally tangled with a trash compactor. An untimely premature death, as surely by now he would have been a much sought-after fine Appy Stallion. Probably a real heart-breaker, eh Madeline????

TO

♡ CHERYL MUNDEE ♡

(SEPTEMBER 3rd, she will be 30!!!!)

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!!

♡ MAIR DODD (DECEMBER 7th) ALSO 30!! ♡

♡ SUSAN FORD (SEPTEMBER 6th) ALSO 30!! ♡

Kinda scary that the WHOLE WORLD might be taken over by 30 YR OLDS!!
Thanks to the MS&CD I found more!! Duria Yount (3/22), Greg Kleensang
(5/11), Rebecca Hileman (7/1), Tina English (10/11), Laura Pervier (10/31), Abigail Fuller (?/?), and Cece O'Connor (oops, I forgot the date!).

Heather and Kay did a wonderful job harassing the judges at WRC (see front
lough, Marney Walerius, and Diane Jenkins were the judges!! We hear Kay might judge next year.....REVENGE!!

Remakers of the Issue...

By Laurie Jensen

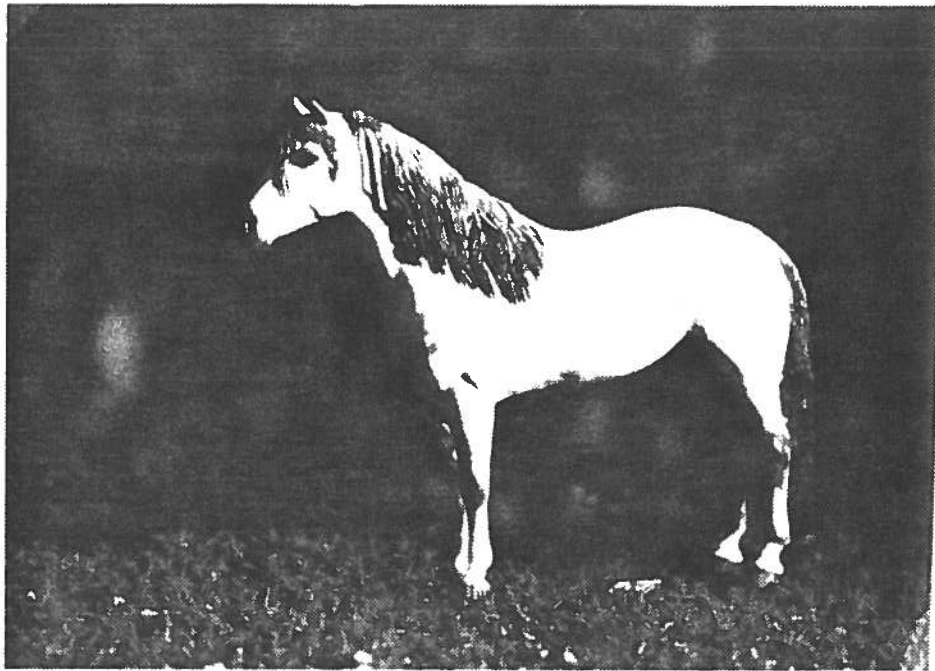

This time we have two remakers...one is relatively famous, the other, a newcomer, both with talent to spare! (Wish they'd throw some MY way - ahem.) Our first featured talented person extraordinaire is BARBARA JONES. Barbara has been remaking for several years, and has a unique style that features soft airbrush effects combined with sharp detailing in faces, mapping on pintos, and accurate markings and shadings. I've also seen photos of her oil paintings and pencil sketches, and she's very good in any media! The trotting horse featured here was sent to us by Barbara to show an example of her work. You can write Barbara (send SASE) for prices and sales list: Barbara Jones, PO Box 734, Conifer, CO 80433.

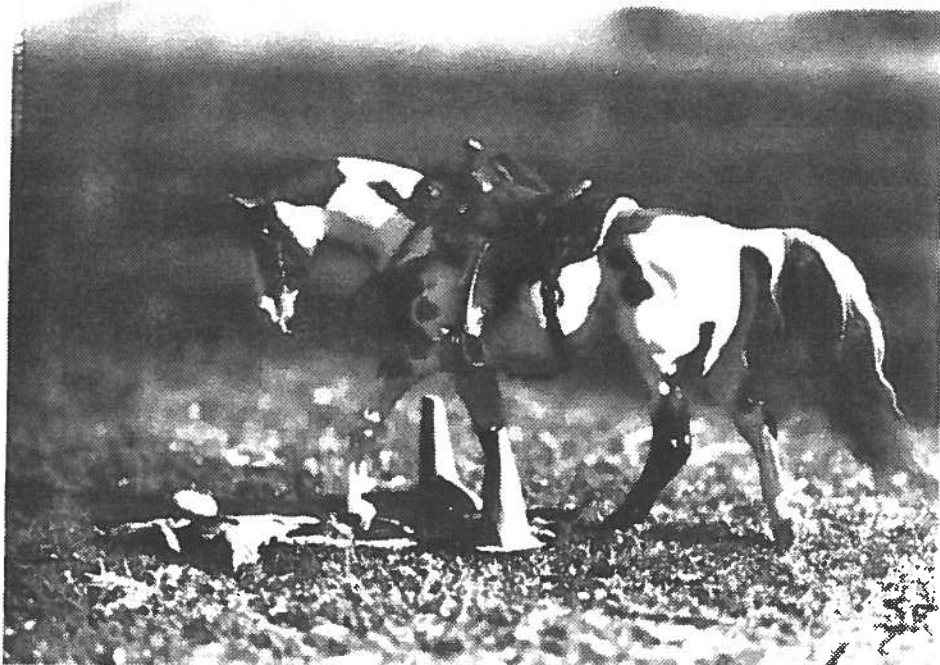

The second remaker sent me TONS of info, and I'll try to tell y'all about her right now! (Do I sound like a game show host or what?!) (Laurie, we know that you moonlight as Pat Sajak...)

Our next contestant Oh - I mean remaker is KATHLEEN MOODY of Elite Decorations. Kathleen writes that she's had (my term here) Model-itis* (a common affliction...) since she was around eight years old. Her first model, a "fury," got her going until she turned into (her words here...) a "budding adolescent." (Budding what? Wish my buds would develop. (From the way you were at WRC, I'd say your buds have past developed, moved right through bloom, and are headed towards wilt. But, of course, I'm not the Ornamental Hort person here - why not ask Bill what he thinks of your buds?) AHM. How 'bout you, Kay? (My buds are just fine, thank you.) Sorry, my mean streak is coming out.) Anyway, she budded and on account of all that budding, she gave (eek!) all her models away!!! (eek! Oh, I'm SO depressed just listening to this.) Anyhow...she found a palomino Western Horse 2-3 years ago and she started budding I mean, collecting all over again! (I'm familiar with this...but more about me later...bet you can't wait...) (Bet we can...) Anyway - she became a possessed woman, collecting models and piling them up around her elbows (well - - she SAID she was up to her elbows in them...) She started Elite Decorations 3 years ago to make Xmas decorations for malls. She knows a lot about decorating/remaking/building, because she had the job of FURRING and FEATHERING all the Animatronic animals fro Walt Disney!!! (We're talking lots of fur and feathers, here, people.) She used to own 3 real horses, but sold 2 and now just has the Welsh pony to pull her 3 kids in a cart. Sounds like she's plenty busy to me! And the work she does is SOMETHING TO BEHOLD! Check it out for yourself:

"Galiceño pony rework - body is shortened - face redone - mane & tail "enhanced" - glass eyes & sculpted red rose." And she does tack & props, too:

"Mare remade from SHS - remuscled, head & neck lowered, foreleg straightened, conformation corrected, hair m/t, metal horeshoes, glass eyes."

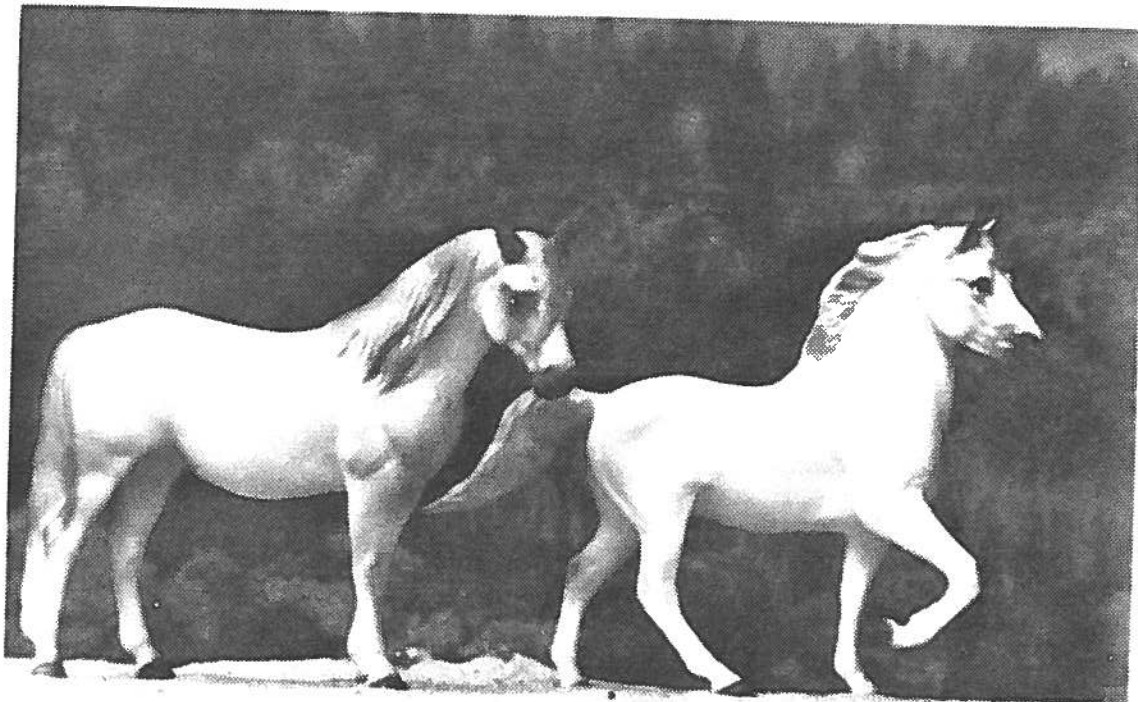

"PAM rework - cart, harness, driver also by Elite Decorations."

To obtain her price list, send LSASE to: Elite Decorations 5312 W. Beck, Glendale, AZ 85306. Tell her Laurie at "The Model Rag" sent you!

OLD TIMER'S Album....

Time, once again, for another offering of "The Litterbox." Kay here - speaking of which...we just got a new kitten. Black, with white socks in the back, and white toes in the front, with a white bib and a little white goatee, and HUGE bug eyes - named, "ALIEN." We'll probably go dog shopping soon - I've been busy thinking up more unusual names...like "Neeeee" and "Icky-icky-icky-icky" (those of you who've seen "Monty Python and the Holy Grail" know what I mean.); or "Fizzbo" (from "For Sale By Owner - "FSBO"); or how about "Ben" and "Brenda" - no, I couldn't do that to them... We saw a ferret for sale - I suggested we name it "Ferret Fawcett," but that didn't go over really big...

From our local dealer...Maxine Renaker states that the DW molds are an asset of the company and will not be sold! So toss the rumor about H-R's in plastic out the window! (See "Misc." for more on this.)

The following Hartland molds are being retired. Buy any you need as they will soon be gone!
-the 11" Saddlebred

-Horses for riders (with reins) will not be offered again in current colors w/o riders.

Bentley's is offering, FREE, a Ben or Brenda-Pop (inside joke) with any order over $30. Bentley's addy is: 642 Sandy Lane, Des Plaines, IL 60016. (Actually, we mean a free Ben or Brenda BREYER, ahem...)

The Franklin Mint, Franklin Center, PA 19091, has a GORGEOUS "My Friend Flicka" porcelain model. $150.00 + tax + $3.00 postage. (Kay again - You know, you all will have to come to visit me --- The Franklin Mint is maybe FIVE MINUTES from my house --- drool...)

Hartland Collectibles has a new special run list available...and they also are selling live show quality tack and accessories. Write them (tell 'em you saw it in The Model Rag). Hartland Collectibles, RR 2, Box 137, New Haven, MO 63068. (314) 237-2554 - Eves only.

All of you in the L.A. area -- Pete Stone from Breyer is scheduled to come out for a signing party sometime in the next month or so. Contact Karen Grimm for further details.

We have a "Breyer Horror Story" to report....M.C. had a dapple gred Running Foal when she was a young (stupid) child. She wanted a white one more, so she RUBBED ALL THE GOLD OFF!!! Cry-Cry!!

Report on the "My First Pony" sets -- the Arab foal is BROWN/white, not BLACK/white like the pic in the catalog! O.K....who got the one in the picture....???

Have a MEDICAL EMERGENCY report on Merryll Jensen (Laurie's daughter). Sometime in June/July/?, Merryll swallowed a penny (No, I don't THINK that Laurie was feeding them to her, concerned about her copper intake...). Anyway, it got stuck in her esophagus for at least a WEEK (maybe longer...), and all the food she ate backed up into her lungs, and decomposed (ooo...hope none of you were eating when you read this...), and Laurie took her to the Emergency Room 3 times because she couldn't breathe. The first time, the doctor said she had croup and she'll be O.K. Two days later, she was WORSE, and they took her in at 11:00 p.m. and they x-rayed her and found the penny. Took her into the O.R. - under general anesthesia - put an airway tube in and got the penny with a pair of "long tweezer-grabber things" (Laurie's term, not mine...). Anyway, she seemed better after spending a night in an OXYGEN TENT ("just try to convince her it's not a brown-in-bag ready to go in la oven...), and after Laurie got to stay in a "taco-shaped" bed next to her (whatever...). She couldn't breathe again, and spent two days in the hospital... She's back home now, but still not out of the woods, so keep her in your thoughts and prayers. Poor Merryll!

Well, that was disturbing enough...now for something light and completely without merit...here's an exerpt from "Horse Nonsense" by W.C Sellar & R.J. Yeatman, 1933. I got it ten years ago, when I was in England.

"It is not very knowing just to mention 'my horse': it is much nobler to talk about my mare, filly, spalding, and so on.

"These terms are easy. All horses are born foals, the female adolescents being called 'fillies', and the males 'sillies.' When they reach 2 years old, horses are called (for some filly reason) 'Two-year-olds'. A mare (hen-horse or hinny), so long as she is youngish and unmarried, is called 'A Heiffer' (pronounced 'heffer'); and a grown-up male is either (pronounced eether) 'A Spalding' or else 'A Bullion' - the latter being the very dangerous kind with a ring in its nose. Horse-fathers are called 'shires' and horse-mothers "d*ms" (some of this horse-language is, we agree, rather soiling.)" Next time: colours of the horse!

Kay here - for those of you who noticed: I've changed my stable name. Since we were nowhere near either Mexico or the ocean ("mar"), "Caballos del Mar" didn't do it. So, we are now, "Stonefox Farm." I wanted "Pukka Place" or "Rabid Rabbit Ranch", and Laurie suggested "Vorpall Bunny Farm," but we were vetoed by the hubby...ah well...

Hey - guess who has another album out ... EMO PHILIPS!!!! Now, for the majority who are asking, "Who the heck (or an expletive of your own design) is Emo Philips, just ask Laurie or Kathy Hartman, who, by the way, is the most fun to watch while she is listening to Emo - what with the convulsions and hyperventilating...

Linda Watson-McCormick thinks that the Kelso or Swaps should be special run in red roan!! That would be neat. What is YOUR dream special run?? (Kay here - better yet...tell KAREN GRIMM! She has included a questionnaire regarding this topic with the Indian Pony sets - she might be able to do something about these suggestions!!)

Ooooo...got some GOOD, JUICY finds to report this issue!! Looks like the woodgrains have been coming out of the (you can feel this one coming, can't you...) WOODWORK! L.K. lucked into not ONE, but TWO Breyer WOODGRAIN Brahmas. Congrats to H.K. on a WOODGRAIN Belgian, S.L. on a WOODGRAIN Poodle, K.F. on a WOODGRAIN Bloodhound, and to G.G. on a WOODGRAIN Morgan!! Oh...and G.G. also found a FLORENTINE Running Foal... for $3.00!! Oh, and to H & K on an H-R "Heather" & "Sherif" in white (Hee...). Anyone else???

Oh - Karen Grimm still has some special run ADIOS and PAS models left!! Check your last Model Rag for details or contact Karen. Get 'em while they last!! The sooner those are gone, the sooner she can "clear the stalls" for some NEW ones!

S.L. found a glossy dapple grey Clydesdale Stallion - when she compared it to her old one, found that one has muscling and one doesn't!! Wierd!

Oh - more special run news. "Your Horse Source" has special run Hanoverians: bay w/white stockings and blaze, chestnut, black, and flea-bitten white/grey. $15.50 each plus postage. P.O. Box 4155, Jackson, WY 83001. (307) 733-5070 for credit card orders.

We have a name and addy change to report: Lee Shrader is now Lee FRANCIS, 12416 SW 203 Terr, Miami, FL 33177.

Glad to report that Kitty Whompus Grimm is back home again, after spending a couple of nights "on the town." A little roughed up, but safe & sound!
