YOUR FAITHFUL EDITORS.....

Heather Wells - 3985 Strong Street, Riverside, CA 92501 - Heather is in charge of correspondence, items of interest, good juicy gossip for "The Litterbox" & the money (we let Heather play with the cash because 1)we trust her more than we do ourselves or each other, 2)she's more organized, and 3)she's promised to count us in if she takes off to Mexico with the money)

Laurie Jensen - 32891 Calle del Tesoro, San Juan Capistrano, CA 92675 - Laurie is the Vice President of Facsimile Generation...or, in plain English, in charge of copying the issue. (We had to give her a VP title, or she wouldn't do it! Boy, you give them an inch....) She's also the person to whom you should send your display & photo ads (copy ready, if at all possible!!) Laurie is also the manager of the incredible "Bullfrog Band," and all inquiries about concert tours and personal appearances should be directed to her...

Kay Fowler - 414 S. Indian Hill #25, Claremont, CA 91711 - Kay is in charge of ~~typing~~ oops! ~~word processing~~ oops! creative expression! This is the person that you should inundate with all of your other ads. (Her mail carrier is going to be SO thrilled!)

We here at The Model Rag want to make this an informative and exciting magazine. We would appreciate your comments and suggestions, and will strive to make The Rag the kind of publication that YOU want!

INFORMATION

Our Format:

The Model Rag is divided into several sections to allow you to more easily find the things that you are most interested in. We have separate sections for classified ads, photo/display ads, model show classlists, a "People, Places & Things" section to let you hear about the (yes, you guessed it!) people, places & things that make this hobby special, and our commentary section, which includes "The Litterbox" where you can air your gripes about events, or get the lowdown on the latest runnours. The Model Rag is created with a MacIntosh 512K computer, using MacPaint, FullPaint, and Graphic Works programs.

Our Subscription Rates:

The Model Rag is published quarterly, and is sent on the 15th of the month. Subscriptions are $10 00 + 4 first-class stamps for a one-year subscription. Trial issues are $3.00 + 1 stamp. If we feel that we have enough support, we may adopt a bi-monthly or monthly format in the future!

Our Advertising Rates:

Every subscriber to The Model Rag receives one free 50-word classified ad (not including name/address) per issue. Plus, subscribers are offered reduced rates on additional ads. The ad rates are as follows:

	Subscribers	Non-subscribers
Full page	$1.50/page/issue	$3.00/page/issue
Half page	$.75/issue	$1.50/issue
Quarter page	$.50/issue	$1.00/issue
Classifieds (50 words or less)	$.25/issue	$.50/issue

Deadline for submission of advertising is the 1st of the month that the issue is due out. For example, the deadline for the February 15th issue is February 1st. Ad rates are subject to change with one issue's notice.

Our Founders: (But we won't tell you who's who!)

RESIN CASTS by BHR

The third piece in our series of cold cast resin models (made of a polyester type resin) is our Arabian stallion, custom sculpted for us by the talented Keren Woods of England. He is approx. 9" tall, and is in a walking pose. Since his introduction in February, 1986, 6 different horses, owned by 6 different people have accounted for Grand Championships or Reserve at all the major Congress' and Regional Championships! At present there have been over 35 pieces sold, with plans for an edition closure at 75 pieces or sooner, if the original mold gets damaged. The model comes in either custom painted ($45.00 each, plus $5.00 UPS Air), or pre-finished ($40.00 & $5.00 UPS Air). The pre-finished ones are ready made, and photos are available for viewing. Please state color preferences, and $1.00 deposit for each photo to view (refunded upon return or order). Due to our moving, we are backlogged a few pieces, and do not anticipate being able to accept new orders until Dec 1st. We will at that time be painting up some pre-finished models for Christmas delivery, but will not be able to ship custom painted ones in time for Christmas delivery. We also have approx. 5 pieces of pre-finished Thoroughbred Stallions, whose edition has closed already. Write for photos, stating preferences in colors. We look forward to a Welsh Pony & a racing Thoroughbred filly in 1987, also by Keren Woods.

In celebration of the premiere issue of The Model Rag, we are pleased to present one of our own show mares FOR SALE!! For your consideration, we offer....

Araña

Araña is a 1983 bay Peruvian Paso mare. Her name means "spider" in Spanish. She is the Breyer "Western Prancing Horse" remade into a proper Paso gait, with the molded bridle completely removed, and repainted (with airbrush) a pretty bay with black hair mane/tail (all work done by me). She has been on our showstring since last year, and is a multi-champ. She is always a consistent placer even in large shows. She is offered for sale for $45.00 (plus $2.00 shipping). She comes with many halter pix, a dazzling show record, and a fabulous pedigree (for those of you familiar with Paso breeding, she is by *Laurel, and out of the mare *Tesora de Oro C JR, a daughter of the great Sol de Oro J.). We hope that she will find a good show home with one of you! Please send SASE with all inquiries.

PEOPLE, PLACES, & THINGS

Cheryl Munde was given this at a live show, and submitted it to us:

"Ride a cock-horse to Banbury Cross (1)
To see a fine lady upon a white horse; (2)
Rings on her fingers and bells on her toes, (3)
She shall have music wherever she goes."

(1) Banbury - a municipal borough in Oxfordshire, England. Cross - a cross which stood in the marketplace in Banbury.

(2) Fine lady is either Queen Elizabeth I, Lady Godiva, or a lady named Celia Fionnes, who made many rides on horseback throughout England about 1697.

(3) Bells on her toes - refers to fifteenth-century custom of wearing a bell on the tapering toe of each shoe.

-William Baring-Gould and
Cecil Baring-Gould
The Annotated Mother Goose-

"Wish on the first white horse you see on New Year's Day and the wish will come true."

-Standard Dictionary of Folklore,
Mythology and Legend-

Well, hey...since this is our premiere issue...I think it might be good if we took a little (well, maybe MORE than a little...) of your precious and valuable time to introduce the friendly, efficient, courteous, and basically WONDERFUL staff here at LMR. (Well, actually, it's because I love having a captive audience, but...) So...since I'm typing this...I guess I'll start with me - Kay!(As in Katherine, the grape) I'm 23 years old (I know, I know! But I only ACT like I'm 6!), about 5'2", brown hair, brown eyes, two ears, one nose...but I digress. I have a Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Business Management (no- I'm not going to be a farmer!) from Cal. Poly Univ., Pomona, where I am currently finishing up my Master's degree in Business Administration, specializing in marketing. I've been married for 2 1/2 years, and am living in wedded bliss(wedded bliss, how much?) in the middle of the San Gabriel Valley smog belt with my husband, C.L. (that's short for Caleb Leighton Fowler, Jr.), and he too is getting his M.B.A. degree from Cal Poly. We're busy interviewing for jobs both here in So. Cal., and in the Philadelphia area, and Lord only knows where will end up! We own 2 ponies - one grade mare, Windy, and her half-Welsh daughter, Blue Sky's Melody - just got rid of the gelding, J.R. - to another model horse shower, in fact! And speaking of models... I began showing after reading about model horses in a Classic magazine article in 1979. I've been collecting since the late 1960's and our tiny two bedroom apartment currently houses about 800 models. (My husband keeps offering them to my friends when they come over- "Here take some H-R's!"). I collect mostly Breyers and Hagens, plus a few selected Beswicks and assorted other goodies. I enjoy remaking, and do some custom work to generate a little cash. And for those of you who have seen our stable name in results, "Caballos del Mar" is Spanish for "Horses of the Sea" (merely wishful thinking on my part! We're nowhere near the ocean!). I have little preference for breeds (we have about 140 of them!), although I do tend to be partial to ASB's and drafters. Oh, and I'm the director of the "A.L.L." Halter Club, in case anyone is interested, or cares in any way. Anyway...that's me in a nutshell, which is probably where I belong anyway! I'm basically a fun person, I buy a mean Baker's Square pie, and I have a nasty habit of remembering people's birthdays. Now, hopefully, I'll be able to get the rest of them to write something about themselves. Or...I guess I could do it for them!

Hey - here's something we found in going through some old issues of the now defunct Model Horse Shower's Journal. This is taken from the August, 1979 issue.

"HARMONY HILL FARM presents...The Lighter Side of Model Photography (Holly Hansen, writer)...WEDNESDAY MORNING: Wake up, notice the sun is shining, NO clouds in sight and those models are looking mighty good this morning. Quick! Run outside and set up that platform, tripod and camera. Run inside for those precious horses & tack. Oh no! Who has what picture in what tack? Oh well, try & guess. Notice as you tack up that the tack you have made to last during a hurricane, windstorm and 6 pound model rider, has suddenly lost 5 buckles, 1 stirrup and 2 'D' rings. Scotch tape time! Notice that the tape melts and pulls the paint off that $10 repaint job...Now the horse is standing nice and looks good--until you look in the camera. Eek! Quick! Adjust that tack, stand him in 35 different angles until he is perfect. This will make him dizzy so he naturally faints. This will happen a split second before you take his photo. Now we are all set up again, but your camera is shaking badly. Look down and see the neighbor's cat attacking the legs of the fierce tripod monster. Chase cat away. Notice this has frightened your model into another fainting spell. After you've shot the picture, remember this horse has 5 OTHER WP pix and you've just shot #6. Your next 5 pix go by quickly, then of course you run into trouble with a chronic fainter who refuses to listen to threats of being sold to a model glue factory. He is finally standing nice when you hear noises of plastic being chomped. Attack neighbor's cat who has picked up your favorite discontinued model as a chewtoy. As you set up the next horse, clouds will undoubtedly cover the sun for the next 45 minutes. During this time you answer questions from nosy neighbors who just can't believe their eyes and must inspect every horse. They will offer plenty of advice such as, 'Why don't you line them up and save film by taking a picture of the whole bunch?' Explain that you KNOW what you're doing and they'll leave in a huff. Now you are finally done! Except for cleaning up and this take about 3 hours so what else is your one day off good for? THURSDAY MORNING: Appear in court for 'needless slaughter' of an animal. Remember you never DID like the neighbor's cat...One week later receive your pix in the mail. Notice that they are all blurry because your close-up lens fell off after the first pic was taken. YAAAARGH! Swear NEVER to touch another model. That afternoon notice the sun is shining, no clouds in sight, and those models are looking mighty good this day. Quick! Run inside for the platform camera and tripod, go back to start, do not pass GO, do not collect $200...Such is the Fate of a Model Horse Freak. Happy showing folks! (Ed.-Ahhh, so true, only my cats like to sit on my back when I'm plastered to the earth focusing the camera. I threaten them all with such dire fates as becoming miniature stable blankets...And she's right about the fainting models. I think it has something to do with being camera-shy, but...then there are others who hog the whole photo session, especially when you have ONE SHOT left -- and accidentally grab the wrong horse, ending up with someone shot-less and others totally shot. Uh yeah...Or else that one, teeny tiny little raincloud 50 miles away sniffs your model out and lets fly over it, wetting it and nothing else within a 2,000 mile radius,,,Or the film jams in the camera and you end with a 24-exposed-on-1-frame selection. Talk about a 'herd' class! or even sire-get (but you SAID all in 1 photo, judge!) darn-produce..." (Kay here - please note that the "Ed." mentioned above is Linda Walter, editor of the now deceased MHSJ. She was, and still is, one of the hallmarks of our hobby. I can remember thinking that she must know EVERYTHING about model horses - and wondering how on earth she managed to put out the MHSJ every month. I still don't know that one! But, we ran across this article, and, once we stopped laughing, thought it should be shared again. Funny how little those things change! Except the price of the repaints...Of course, I don't have a cat to bother me - just the little kids in the apartment complex who climb into the tree next to my balcony yelling, "Hey lady! Whatcha doing with the little horsie?" "Hmmm, there's my husband's paint gun downstairs...just one shot at them...")

Now it's time to hear from the second member of our illustrious staff...Heather Wells, a.k.a. "THE MOUTH!"

Those of you who really know me know that this could not be possibly true....if you believe this, I have a really nice remake to sell (she also has some lovely swamp land in Riverside available...). Now seriously, I've been collecting since 1981 (or 1982). My husband, Michael, and I used to go on horsey hunts to find all those discontinued jewels (If you have ever been to Heather's house, you KNOW which "jewels" she's talking about - do I see GOLD & BLUE horses????). We really got into the search until this incident happened - we had a BABY!!!!!!! (actually a miniture remake) Yes, Dustin is now 3 1/2 years old, and yes he just LOVES to go antique shopping (She LIES!). He prefers Disney. Well back to the horses - our collection consists of just over 1000 models, Breyers, Hartlands, Beswicks, Morton Studio, Poppytrail, etc. Our farm is known as Springbrook Farms. We have two live horses, one 26 yr. old Mustang cross and a 19 yr. old Walker cross. Our Canadian geese are the greatest birds...one pair of Mallards, two black Labs, one Dalmation and four spunky cats, one of which is betrothed to Kitty Whompas (of the Shadow Hills Whompuses). I'm a part time bookkeeper (because my brain only works part-time), my husband, wonderful man that he is (can you tell that he will be reading this?), works at UCR. He too can be found at the local antique shops checking out the MODEL HORSES!!!! (Mikey does it because he knows that we'll take him out for breakfast if he drives us to the swap meets!) Well enough about us, I'm just glad that we can all get together and put this newsletter out for you! (Piled high & deep on that one!)

10. You (or your immediate family) stop eating Stablemates.

And now for... "LAURIE'S STORY"...

(Ha, ha, ha! We waited until Laurie left so that WE could write it for her!!)

Once upon a time...in a galaxy far, far away...no, wait, that's another story! We really don't know when Laurie appeared on the scene...she tells us that she's 30! (Oh- by the way...Heather is 33, or at least she says she is!) Anyway, Laurie is married to Bill, who still is not quite sure what to make of all of this! Laurie and Bill have a BABY too! (although it is RUMORED that she IS a changeling!) Her name is Merry! (named after her "AUNT CHERYL" - but Laurie & Bill don't spell very well!) She has (that's LAURIE, not MERRYL) some very NICE H-R's, Hartlands, Breyers and has a certain PASSION for the PAM mold! (It's so embarrassing - we can't take her anywhere - she drools, squirts, etc.) She loves to "Bic & Burn" her Breyers, change all the legs, and then send them out to be painted! She also makes really wonderful tack (harnesses, especially!). They live down by the beach (where all the "Surf Nazis" hang out), which may explain Laurie's strange affection for amphibious creatures.... Laurie is the proud owner of "THE BULLFROG BAND," stars of stage, screen, and an occasional pond! Yes folks, we're talking about those hideous dead, REAL, stuffed frogs, PLAYING INSTRUMENTS...I'm sure that you all have seen them at your favorite high quality department stores and dead end alleys.. And Laurie, being the epitome of good taste, keeps them in her living room. Oh - by the way - Laurie & Bill both graduated from Cal Poly, too. (Maybe there's something about that school that they're not telling us....) Laurie has a real horse, named TED, and she has ridden him in three-day-eventing. (We got to watch her video tapes!) Well, I guess that we've maligned her long enough...I'm sure she'll do the same to us!

LAURIE'S DRIVEL COLUMN

An now onward to the camp section of this otherwise well organized and nicely edited publication. Since I haven't figured out operational commands on my computer (that I bought from KAY, incidentally...) to make fancy-schmancy borders, pictures, etc. you all are stuck with me rap-a-tapping on this ol' IBM (Incredible-Booboo-Maker) of questionable reliability. Actually, the typewriter is far more reliable than my typing. (Which will become more obvious as I proceed, if it hasn't already become painfully obvious)... In any case, break glass no NO NO that's only if there's an emergency, well, maybe in my case, I AM an emergency. K and H keep telling me Im an emergency waiting to happen. (They, when passing by those glass things that hold the fire extinguisher, always threaten to break the glass, grab the little hatchet and...oooooooooooo)My friends (YES I DO HAVE SOME. Some is the key word that I use loosely here..) anyway my frëends keep wondering if motherhood will settle me down. Well, so far there is no sign of that. Like Kay says, "Some people mellow with age. But then again, some don't." Right!!!! Actually, I come by my craziness honestly. Look at who I hang around with:

A PICTURE OF OUR OWN CHAMPIONSHIP WRESTLER, KAY-"HULKA-CRUSHER" FOWLER

See what I mean? Incidentally, HEATHER, you lucked-out becaurs (?) because I have misplaced the delightful photo I took of you posing so thoughtfully with those enticingly captivating eyes/eggs ooo boy sure hope I can find that puppy. Readers, you will HAVE to stay tuned for THAT photo.

HO HO HO if you are my friend, yes, it is TRUE...you are at risk of being featured in this expose column.(Weellll there went all (2) of my feinds I mean frends....) My victims this month are the notorius(ly fun) Judy Renee Pope and Paula OKeefe of NWF fame. They have been fiary FAiry Godmothers to me in the RRH dept. Truly beautiful work. Highly intelligent inhabitants of Mo in the midwest, they have confided in me (will they wver again...?) that they love old vampire movvies , camp sci-fi (MY GIRLS!!!) and believe me, they write one heck of an entertaining letter. As a matter of fact, they and I are the original "meow-mix" dishers that inspired K, H, and myself to create the Litterbox column seen elsewhere in the Rag. HEE HEE we all just love to trade gossip on some rrrh oopsie bboobooos that we have seen or purchased. (In fact, if you own one of these BOW WOWS that you think we would enjoy shredding to bits, please send a photo of it to me. In fact, we'll have a contest. The rules can be that you don't say who did the remake(I don't like hurting people's feelings) unless it's you that did it and you think it's good for a laugh. Okay?) So send all those mesomorhs to LAURIE JENSEN 32891 Calle Del Tesoro, San Juan Capistrano, CA 92675. Oh, by the by, Those of you that sent for my sale list, be patient, I WILL send it out. I keep getting new stuff in and I never seem to have time to edit that darn list!!! Thank you for your patience and understanding.OK?)W&ll. Where the heck was I? That must have been the world's longest parenthetical note.

So now what. Oh, yes. A prize for the contest. How about a beauty makeover like they havein the glamour magazines. Kind of like a BEFORE AND AFTER typw thing? Whomever sends in the ugliest remake, will, after a vote by YOU the readers, will win a remake of the offending model by none other than ME alias "Burn-baby-burn-disco-inferno-Jensen"/ and I'll get Kay (alias paint-while-U-wait) Fowler to blast it with her airbrush. OK? (Now all I have to do is bribe her into doing this for me. Hmmm. I might have to part with my white Honora for this one.....) Anyway, we'll publish the before and after shots for your perusal. (Izzat how you spel it???) Hrumppt.

Next month, a rrrh Bow Wow, how to make model horse jumps, and MORE!
 and now, what you've all been waiting for...this issues delightful.....

LAURIE'S INSECT PICTURES*

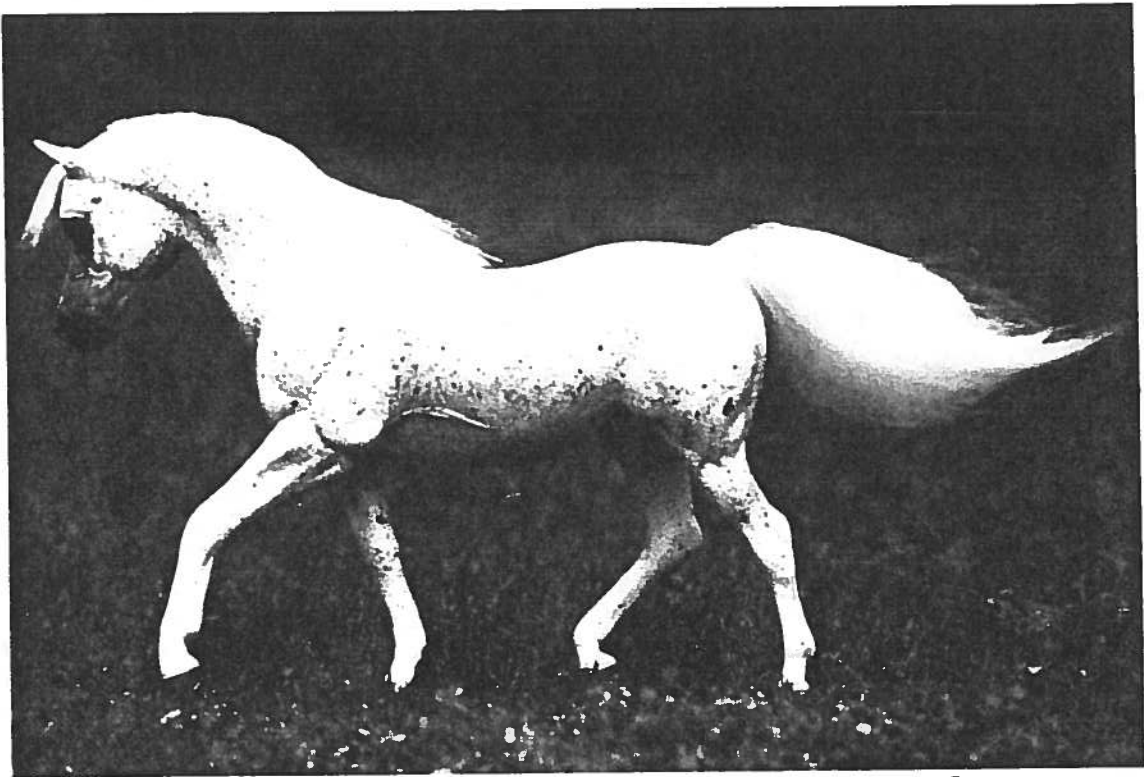

The Gluti, for instance, held little spiritual regard for insect heads or any other individual portion of bug anatomy, but rather consumed them whole—without even the dignified accompaniment of liquid refreshment!

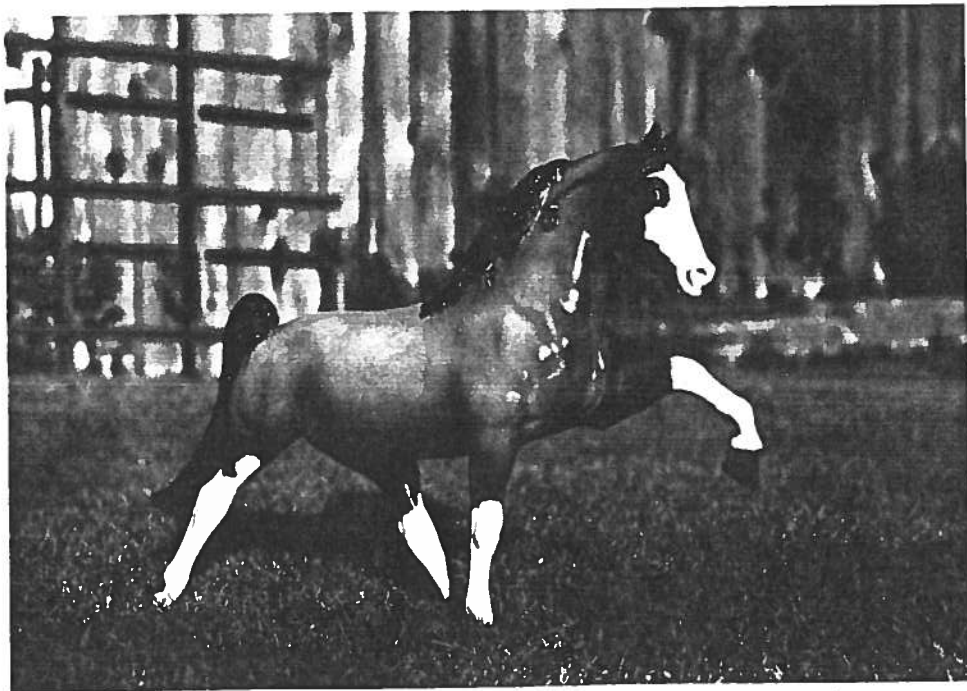

Elaborate rituals of spicing and dicing were favored by some.

MADLINE'S NEWSLETTER

PART 1: THE RAG QUEEN

♡♡ SUPRISE!! Bet you are all wondering what I'm doing here? Well, what's a Model Rag without the one and only RAG QUEEN? hee hee. But honeslty folks, I'm sure you will enjoy this mag, so get your friends out there to subscribe, especially just for this section of my wonderful travels in this crazy model kingdom. So on with the story.....

Abandoned in San Francisco, where I had lived most of my life with a wonderful old man pulling an olds and ends cart who had passed away therefore I became homeless, my humans had adopted me from the Humane Society. Well, it wasn't long before they found that I had a special personality and I made myself at home quite fast, needing all the necessary modern conveniences. You know, the simple stuff like hairdryers, curlers, makeup, toothbrush, and an elegant bathtub. My coat now gleams, my teeth are pearly white, although quite bucked, my eyeshadow carefully applied, ribbons in my mane and tail, a beauty mark upon my cheek, I deffinatly am the picture of refined grace and beauty. Of course, I won't tell you my age, somewhere in the forties I think, but I still pull my flower cart with ease. I love those LIVE shows and I try to go to as many as possible so that I may meet may friends (they can even pet my soft velvety nose). If you see me, please stop by. You may even get your picture taken with me, or I'd rather prefer a very sexy looking stallion!

♡♡ THE HUMANS SPEAK:

Traci Burns stays skinny because she's cut down on eating traditionals. Now she eats SMs, LBs, and an occasional classic (yum?). She also writes to say she tries to keep up with Jessie.

Flossie and Annabelle have sent me a real nice Christmas card and I wish to give them many warm hugs and kisses for thinking of me during that special occasion. If you know of anyone who could use a nice card (get well or cheer up kind) please don't ever hesitate to send it, as we all need a friend.

Now, are you all confused on who Flossie and Annabelle are? Well, for many years I have been searching for my children and through the publication of my own newsletter last year, I have been able to find many of them. If you have a fondness for #205 (may even look like it) love to be petted and talked to, love wearing hats, or maybe even look a little strange (like Jessie), then there is a big chance that you are mine, so please write in, in care of my human, and get a GENUINE pedigree.

♡♡ LOVE,
Maddy ♡

Who strikes fear in the hearts of grown men, fragile women, and small children?

Who can conquer an entire mascot class in the blink of an eye?

It's a bird.....
No-It's a plane!

Your both wrong!

It's the Nonnee Monster!

A ferocious and sometimes fierce mascot of DSF. Terrorizing various model publications (but meaning no harm), this "pink" (That's right, pink...and Madeline ought to appreciate that!) spiny crusty creature dines on ferocious fuzzy fat bumblebees (when in season) and lives to shed terror and havoc on mascot classes in the Modella Equis world. He lives on the ledge high above a dark valley in a dark dusty world (top of Mair's livingroom shelf...Eeek!) He's quite conceited and is out to show mascots everywhere that he means business!

"Nonners" (as he is affectionately called) was rescued 4 years ago from a over-heated window ledge in a home just newly rented by Mair, Marty, and Joshua (the unsuspected family). He was found "pigging out" on a very large dried bumble bee who I'm sure was stuck in his mouth for some time.

Now-it wasn't exactly "Love at First Sight" but in time we were all one big "ferocious family".

His name came from the "Jaws Soundtrack" (a ferocious source of course). (Hey-I'm a poet and didn't even know it!) You know the part where the base tones alert us that the evil fish is about to show up for dinner? Well-my 2 year old (who got along well with Nonners during those "terrible twos") would go around the house with "the horrible creature" chanting...."Nonnee... Nonnee....Nonnee..." before it would lunge at it's next victim.

Well-I dunno. There was just something about him. Likeable...that is. We needed a mascot - someone who would scare all the other entrants away.

He would be sent off to Jo Maness w/a Modella Equis for a photo session. Poor Jo was caught unaware....she never had a chance and with a jump of fright and curiosity asked him what he was doing in that box! Of course, you know Nonnees are stubborn by nature and wouldn't talk. After communication though, the camera was snapping and "The Nonnee Monster" was on his way to becoming a star! She had captured on film the true "nature" of this rare almost in-stinked creature.

He's been threatened...he's been beaten....but a Nonnee never says die!

Even after that misfortunate time when he became a victim of a teething accident, he was still determined as ever to strike terror in the hearts of...

the model world.

We are happy to announce that by good fortune (for us-not you!) that we have located another Nonnee Monster (species: Ferociosus Terrible) to continue the legacy on and to stand-in for photo sessions, interviews, etc. for the Nonnee Monster (species Ferociosus Originalis) and Nonners can spend his days recuperating after the loss of an arm in that terrible accident so long ago in our memories.

Who knows-if we can figure out what this new Nonnee is...(As in...Is it a boy...or a girl? Nonnees are very secretive). We just might be hearing the pitter patter of tiny ferocious footsteps around here and an invasion of the model kingdom.

So beware....and take care!! He just might visit you at your next show! (He's been known to sneak in envelopes and go to shows not even having a class for his kind. Then again-Nonnees...well-they just don't have any... class, that is).

Just when you thought it was safe to judge a mascot class.....

"NONNEE.....NONNEE.....NONNEE.....NONNEE.....NONNEE.....NONNEE....."

(This ad paid for by the "Save the Nonnee Committee" - a non-profit corporation developed for the preservation and presentation of that fierce rare creature...."The Nonnee Monster". If you want to see what he looks like....well-we just encourage you to include a mascot class at your next show!)

P.S. Madeline-Nonnee says Hello and that it was great to see you the last time you were up! Says you've been very helpful in broadening his repertoire (that's an awfully big word for a Nonnee). Said you'd know what he was talking about.)

THE MODEL RAG

(MADELINE APPROVED)

So, you have subscribed thinking you would have fun? Do you realize that if we do this, others might think of us as insane? Oh well, let's take that chance anyways!! I'll start with myself. I used to be the old timer model come to life in the magical skilled hands of Sue Guffey. I have been to many model LIVE shows and met many nice people. I am now trying to compete with the "other type" models in performance classes and having a wonderful time. I only wish judges would give me more credit!! (hint hint) I have my own custom made western saddle, complete with hearts, a very elegant padded sidesaddle, a beautiful sexy pink nightgown, and for Christmas, my Santa Suit. Of course, I have my own custom harness for pulling my flower cart as well. If you would like a pic of any of these, please send one dollar and an SASE. The dollar will go to the HUMANE SOCIETY as a donation. Now, I would love to put YOU under the spotlight, so please write!!

Well folks - here it is! The first installment of "The Litterbox!" Here's our chance to let you all hear what we hear, and (hopefully!) we'll be able to get feedback on whether our assumptions are right or not! Enjoy -- I know we will!

Hey! Those of you venturing into the heart of deepest, darkest Buena Park, CA, will have to be sure to hit a FUN place called "Medieval Times!!!" It is a restaurant with a medieval feast and jousting tournament, where you get to root for the knights (or, Python-ly, "Ken-nig-ettes") of the realm (although Heather & Kay always seem to end up with the Blue Knight - what a dud!) If you tuned into the Rose Parade coverage on New Year's Day, you may have seen some of the knights! But...all of this merry-making seems to bring out the bizarre in people! We seem to recall a gentleman standing in the back of a "duelie" in the parking lot, threatening to take on all comers! Who was that unmasked man? Could that have been Peter G. we saw? Of course, watch out for his wife's new horse, "Transvest-knight!" (Please Karen - NOT the Crusader!) But not to let Peter feel that we're picking on him...Heather managed to catch our gallant (yet clutzy) knight's attention by yelling "Do it to it!!" as he passed!! Ah well....

Have you ever "just missed out" on buying a model at a flea market or antique shop, or the seller tells you, "Oh yeah. I had about 50 of those plastic horses last week, but some lady came and..." But here at the Rag, we heard about the ultimate "OUCH" story!! At a swap meet here in So. Cal. a couple of months ago, a certain C.G. and her husband managed to grab not one but FIVE DECORATOR MODELS!!! Now normally this would be terrific, but the OUCH comes in when another model horse shower SAW C.G. buy the horses! OUCH!!

Heard that C.R. went to a garage sale and found some H-R's (yes, plural!) for pocket change! But I don't think she'll sell them for that...wishful thinking....Speaking of H-R's a certain K.F. was GIVEN, I said GIVEN, a "Turning Arabian" in white by a antique dealer she frequents. Now if all our dealers were so appreciative of our hobby... It's a great way to get return business. Wouldn't you say?

We here at The Model Rag are ECSTATIC to announce the betrothal of Miss Kitty Whompus Grimm, of Shadow Hills, CA., to Mr. Buff B. Wells, of Riverside, CA. A summer ceremony is planned, to be held at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Peter Grimm, parents of the bride. Reception to follow. B.Y.O.M. (Model, that is....)

Has anyone else noticed how high the remake/repaint prices have gone in the past few months?? We saw a horse go for over $300 at an auction in Tuscon last year! But we managed to get ahold of a real doozy of a pricelist!! How does this grab you:

Stablemate: $45.00
Little Bits: $150.00
Classic: $225.00
Traditional: $300.00
(WOW!!!)

As far as we're concerned, those babies better be able to walk, talk, and put on their own tack for that much money!!!

Of course, remake/repaint models aren't the only ones going for outrageous bucks! Saw two H-R palomino "Honoras" for sale for $175.00....EACH!!! Ow!!!

If you feel like you're ALWAYS the last to know what's going on with Reeves International, stay tuned.....The Clydesdale stallion and mare in dapple gray are available at your favorite mail order house. They are a very nice, soft gray, obviously different than the 1979 Special Run. Take note, all the current dapple grays are a softer, powder gray. Yes, another variation!!!! Now the Belgians: yes, the smoke model is the Buckshot coloring; no, the chestnut appears to be a re-issue; the black is supposed to have a "new" color for the tail ribbons; the bay and dapple are definite Special Runs!!!! This makes us Heavy Horse people extremely happy.....more, more, more. Our chunky little Quarterhorse is back....yes, he's chestnut. Rumour has it that the Mustang might be the same color. More on this later...one must have patience....especially concerning '87 horses and such!!! Now, the bay Stud Spider is available without a purchase from Your Horse Source. The chestnut Legionario, golden brown Haflinger and the Foundation Stallion (white with grey highlights) are also still available from Horses International. We hear (we've got very large ears--all of us) that the Mustang is going to be chestnut, the Five Gaiter is going to be dapple gray, the El Pastor (yes a older model brought back into circulation!) will be a Pinto modeled after a REAL horse. The models exiting for the year are: Sorrel 5-Gaiter, Buckskin Mustang, Appaloosa Scratching Foal, Sorrel Stock Mare, Appaloosa Stock Stallion, Appaloosa Stock Foal and Chestnut Action Foal. And the SADDEST news of all, Brenda and Ben Breyer are leaving us. Lets PARTY!!!!!!!

Now for the latest news from Stevens Manufacturing Well none of us have really heard anything definite...but there are stories about molds that have been destroyed and will not be brought back because of repair costs. Hartland Collectables is offering a limited number of horses that are painted differently than the original line. I (Heather) have received some of these horses, the Tennessee Walking Family is beautiful!!!! I heard that they might not even bring back the Hartland molds and just might create a few new molds and start from scratch. Now that could be exciting!!!!

Hey - late news about Hartlands! We've HEARD that Stevens will no longer be selling the Hartland horses. Our information tells us that two ladies will be selling them instead. The Morgan and QH family molds are irreparable, BUT the TWH and Arab families will be brought back in NEW COLORS this year!! Hartland Collectables said that they would be coming out with a new color brochure, AND some SPECIAL RUNS later this year!! If you would like to contact Hartland Collectables, their address is:

Hartland Collectables
RR 2, Box 137
New Haven, MO 63068

Everyone, I'm sure is just waiting to hear about Beswick. There are three new molds for 1987. One is a fantastic trotting Shire, he is one horse you'll want to add to your collection. Another is kinda spread legged looking down, a very different pose. The last one is lying down. All are available in a variety of colors and finishes. Now if we could just get someone to sell them in the store down on the corner. We do have an antique dealer who has some horses for sale. Please look for his ad somewhere in this issue!!!!

Well now that I've spilt alot of what I know, I'll tell you now that I haven't spilt everything..... so look forward to the next exciting issue!

We thought we should let you know - Heather really has TWO nicknames... "The Mouth" & "The Ears!" First she finds out what's going on - and THEN she tells EVERYONE! (Poor Heather - we're so mean to her!) But she manages to have friends in high places who tell her what's in the works, so she's usually pretty accurate. We'll try to have her nail down some new rumors floating around regarding Breyer possibly bringing back a couple of discontinued molds - and they're not what you think!!

Have you all been getting your "Brenda-Pops" when you order models from Bentleys and Your Horse Source??? I seem to have a whole mob of them floating aimlessly around my apartment. (Is mob the right term? Let's see, there's a herd of horses, a pride of lions, a gaggle of geese, a murder of crows....what do Brendas come in, a bevy?? Hey, I have it - an ugly of Brendas!!!) Sad to think that we won't have dear Brenda to kick around anymore.....or her little pal, Ben, with his salmon pink lipstick...we've always wondered about him...We hope to have a "Farewell to Brenda & Ben" party sometime...maybe we'll bake them in a cake, or something...

Hey- been seeing Liz Bouras' new Clydesdale mare ("RM Last Rose of Summer") frequently in the results lately! Got a kick out of the results from the December HALSC Benefit Show, judged by Judy Renee Pope* - only she couldn't quite get the name right...kept calling her "RM Last Paycheck of Liz"....well, maybe!!!

 Source note: DMF - Super Horse of SEFE - in Claret's Study*

Heard from G.G. that she saw a BUCKSKIN RUNNING FOAL for sale - FOR $10.00!!!! Someone got a good buy!

How about some more color variations??? Did YOUR "El Pastor" come WITH or WITHOUT a star?? The ones pictured in the 1974 & 1975 catalogs DO NOT have stars, but those in the 1976 & 1977 catalogs DO!! Also...does anyone have a "Lady Phase" that looks like the one pictured in the 1976 catalog?? FOUR white stockings!! Oh - and how about those Sears "CAS's" in bay - came with a white nose & without!! Does anyone have a "Yellow Mount" that looks like the one pictured in the earlier catalogs (up until 1976) - he has a dramatically different pattern than those actually sold. OR--how about the chestnut SM "5-Gaiter" and the liver chestnut SM Drafter pictured in the 1976 catalog?? Love to know where those guys are!

Has anyone ever seen an O.F. dapple grey Ruffian?? According to our information, there were 500 of these babies made - but no one that we know has ever seen one!! Also, we'd love to know if anyone has ever seen the fabled buckskin Running Mare!

If you haven't yet ordered your Breyer Special Runs -- better get a move on! "Your Horse Source" is already sold out of them! Word has it that there are 1500 each of the dapple grey, "smoke", chestnut, and black Belgians (we don't know if there are the same number of bays or not!); 1500 each of the dapple grey Clydesdale Mare & Stallion; and 1200 of the chestnut QH geldings.

We've heard from different sources that the new color "El Pastor" will only be available for ONE YEAR!! AND -- that the price tag will be between $19 & $20!! Yeow! We speculate that this high price may be due to royalties for the use of the horse's name (remember - this is supposed to be painted after a real horse!).

Till next time...keep that Meow Mix coming!
