We have separate sections for items for sale, items wanted, misc (tack & remaking services, clubs, etc.), model show classlists, a "People, Places & Things" section to let you hear about the (yes, you guessed it!) people, places & things that make this hobby special, and our commentary section, which includes "The Litterbox" where you can air your gripes about events, or get the lowdown on the latest rumours. The Model Rag is created with a Macintosh 512K computer, using MacPaint, FullPaint, and Graphic Works programs.

SPECIAL RUN BREYERS

BHR is offering to the public a limited number of special run Breyer horses manufactured for us.

ADIOS

Same mold as the #51 Yellow Mount, this horse was made for us in two special run colors of dapple grey & palomino. We serialize each horse with it's own number on the bottom of a hoof. From our run of 500 pieces of each color, we are down to our final 100 pieces of each color. There is no limit on quantity.

PROUD ARABIAN STALLION

This favorite mold was special run for us in a very limited number of 333 pieces of each of 3 colors; blood bay with no white (similar to current Sham model coloring), chestnut with flaxen mane & tail, and black with 4 white stockings. We currently have the last 100 pieces of each color available. (Note: this item was returned to Breyer as defective. Estimating return of these by November 15th.)

INDIAN PONY SETS

This discontinued mold has been brought back as a BHR EXCLUSIVE, available only at BHR. These will probably be the most collectable of all special runs, with a small number of them being made. We have available 400 sets of 4 models. Their colors are: black leopard Appaloosa, pink nose, grey shaded striped mane & tail. Bay, medium color, bald face, 2 hind stockings. BENEFIT AUCTION

The following model horses have been donated by BHR and others. All proceeds will be sent to University of California at Davis, Companion Animal Fund, and will be earmarked for the research grant on cardiomyopathy.

At the beginning of August of this year, our 3 1/2 year old blue Doberman male, Early, was diagnosed as having cardiomyopathy (heart disease). We were made aware of the current study being done at Davis, under Dr. Mark Kittleson. We flew him to Davis at the beginning of September for a heart biopsy, and evaluation. During the next month, we saw an improvement in his quality of life, when started on an amino acid, carnatine, which research had shown most dogs with this disease to be deficient in. But this medication is very expensive, so most people could not afford to put dogs on it. We held a fundraiser at the Las Vegas Live show, raffling off 2 BHR resin casts, which netted us over $200.00 for other people's dogs on the program.

On Oct. 7, we flew Early to Davis again for evaluation, after having some problems with other medications, where another drug was tried. He became weaker at Davis. Nothing else could be done. He came home that night. In the early morning the following day, Early left us. I do not think he suffered, but rather died in his sleep, at home, with those that cherished him. We had 3 1/2 loving years, which we will always be thankful for. Early touched many people's hearts with his happiness, silliness, and his extreme sensitivity.

With this in mind, we dedicate this auction to his memory, with the hope that his passing may shed light on a cure for this disease. This is a leading killer in all breeds and cats too. If further research saves even one person's friend, then we shall have succeeded. Pets give so much to people, maybe we can give something back to them. Thank-you.

 R E P A I N T S *****
The following items are BHR Look-Alike Original Finish Repaints. These models are done with the same technique as the Breyer factory uses. All models are completely stripped of their color, then airbrushed in the same patterns that are on regular Breyers. These fool even the most knowledgeable Breyer collectors, so to avoid confusion, each is permanently marked "BHR" between the hind legs. These models will not be duplicated for anyone else. The last auction we held, a charcoal gloss Morgan fetched a bid of $125.00, and a Copenhagen Western Prancer went for $75.00. These are truly collectable, and a chance to have a color never before issued by Breyer on that model. Most of these are from our own private collection of show horses. No longer thaking custom orders, so here's your chance to get one.

ITEM #10: Clydesdale Stallion: old no muscle mold, in Copenhagen. Gold braids. Dappled blue gloss. Live show winner. SB $30.00

ITEM #11: Mustang; glossy black/white pinto. Stunning in this color. Same pattern that is on the Western Horse. SB$30.00

ITEM #12: Lying Foal; disc. mold now. Glossy charcoal. Matches the running stallion in coloring. SB $15.00

ITEM #13: Belgian; glossy alabaster. Stunning coloring! SB $30.00

ITEM #14: Grazing Mare; red roan. Matches the coloring of the running mare. Live show winner. SB $30.00 disc. mold.

ITEM #15: Indian Pony; disc. mold. Black & white pinto, with Indian markings. Exact pattern as the brown pinto, except in black. (1 of 2 made). Sure to fool anyone. SB $30.00

ITEM #16: Steif (German) stuffed horse. The finest quality of stuffed animals, and very collectable. Suggested retail for these are $53.00. Model # 5475/20, brown horse "Ferdy" w/ beige mane & tail. 20 cm (aprox. 8") tall. Thanks to Tom & Mary Sullivan (reps. for Breyer) for donating #16 & #17. SB $35.00

ITEM #17: Steif horse # 5476/20 "Yello"; beige horse with brown mane & tail. Same as above SB $35.00

It is with the greatest thanks to Mr. Peter Stone for donating from Reeves the following items.

ITEM #18: Discontinued Breyer #3095 Appaloosa in chestnut Appaloosa. Originally released in the Brenda Breyer Gift set. We have six pieces donated, and autographed by Peter Stone of Breyer Molding Co. Not only are these discontinued models collectable, but the autographed models are doubly valuable. The highest bidder will have his/her choice of buying 1 or more of these. In case there are any left, the next highest bidder will be contacted. SB $20.00 each.

SALESLIST OF LAURIE JENSEN 32891 Calle del Tesoro, San Juan Capistrano, CA 92675

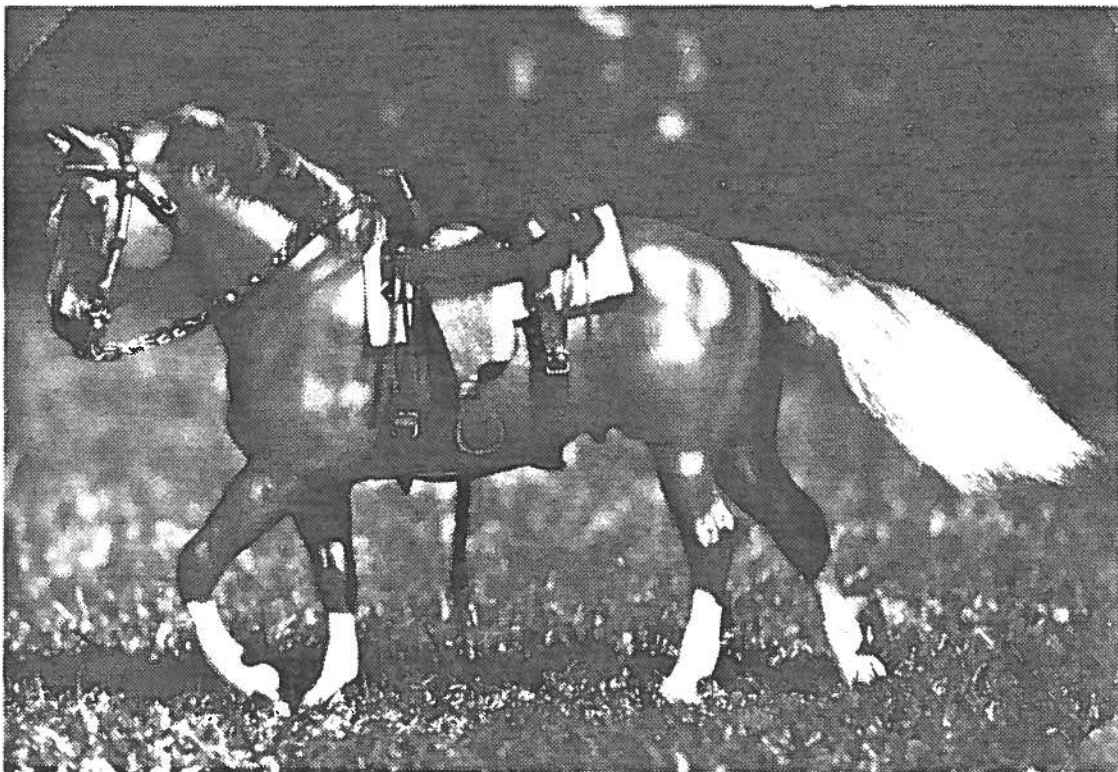

I am selling horses I thought I'd never part with to help pay medical bills from my baby's recent hospitalization. Satisfaction guaranteed. Return model within 10 days for refund. Include $2.00 postage for first model, $1.00 each one after that. Photos available of some. All are very nice unless I say otherwise.

REMAKES

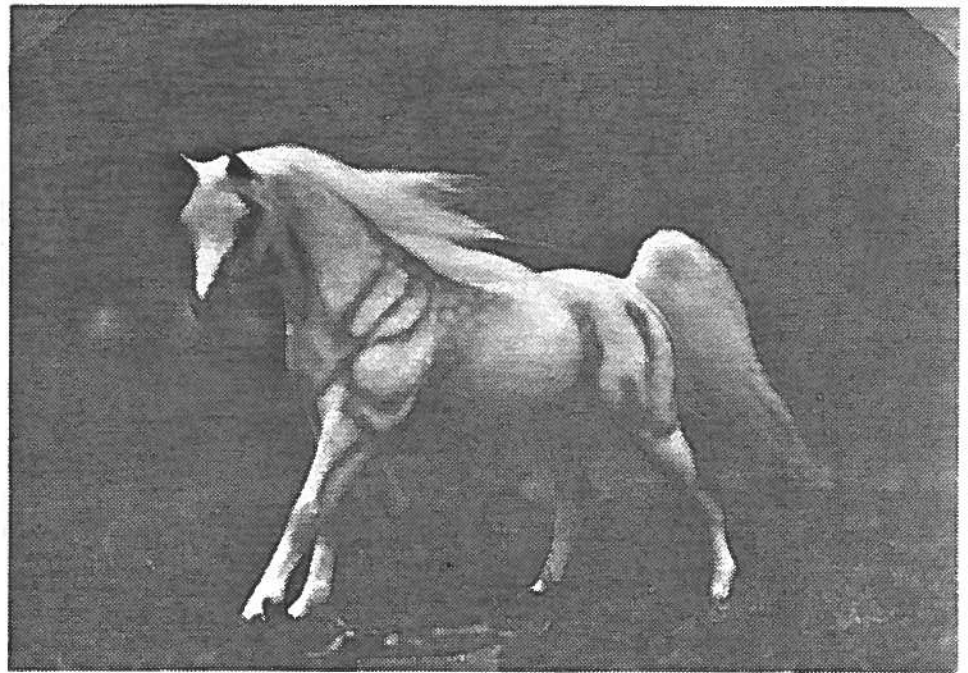

MUHAJJEL EL ARBAA+. Yes, it's true. I am selling "the old man." He's won countless championships and is one of Fara Shimbo's winningest "critters." He is a PAM with resculpted ears, head tucked, in a very collected trot...he balances on two legs with a third leg barely touching the ground...Fara did him for herself and showed him for a few years. He is now collecting cobwebs and needs someone to show him. His hair mane and tail are a gorgeous flaxen color, and his tail has a wire in it so you can position it several ways. Comes with TONS of photos...even get of sire with cute foals. $50.00

JHETA. Well, what can I say? This mare has won it all. She was 1986 ROCKY MOUNTAIN LIVE GRAND CHAMPION ARABIAN. She was overall performance hi point at this show. This mare ALSO was GRAND CHAMPION OVERALL REMAKE at 1986 Copper Country amidst GRUELLING competition. She has won several local live show Championships. This mare has photo shown to countless wins and championships. A PAM repositioned to a slow jog, head tucked and turned, painted a stunning flea-bitten grey with the most exquisite facial detail I have ever seen, she was made for me by Judy Renee Pope two years ago. She has a pure white hair mane and tail, and is shod. $200.00 obo.

FLASHPOINTE. Adios rem by me and rep by Carla Clifford in her typical GORGEOUS style. This horse won Grand Champion his first time out at a live show. He is very flashy with a blaze, four socks, and flaxen mane and tail with streaks of copper hair. He has great, large 35mm pix in ALL events. He is personality plus and needs a good show home. Perfect condition. $100.00

Here is a rare opportunity to purchase a drastic remake by Carla Clifford. Carla no longer does custom work. This mare is exquisite. A "strawberry-grey" rose grey dappled with flowing white hair mane and tail, in frisky full gallop as if at pasture. Originally she was a standing PAM! Her head is turned and neck lowered, her tail arched high. She also has glass eyes and carved ears. VERY NICE. Perfect condition. Halter pix only. $125.00 →

MOZAMBIQUE. An Azteca remade slightly by me. A black and white "medicine hat" type paint. Very striking and really stand out. Remade and painted only, no hair. $25.00
PACER - remade by me to a cutting/turning pose. Really neat "doing" horse. Very Nice blue roan. $50.00
11" Hartland Arabian - remade, neck stretched, epoxy m/t, gorgeous dapple grey, great Andalusian. MAGNIFICENT!! Pix available. $50.00

MIGHTY FROSTY DIAMOND - Old Hartland 11" Regal QH, repainted to a bay appaloosa. A beautiful older work, his paint needs some touch-up, but he's personality-plus! (A rare find, too, mold-wise!) $50.00 →

MC DANIEL FARMS

Like color ? Into spots ? Check out our "real" Appaloosa stock.

GYPSEY QUEEN'S TOPAZ 42,684 (War Council L. X Blaze) blue papered through production, proven broodmare, trail horse, never shown. Great babysitter for foals and real kids-all ages. Sound and clean legged at the age of 26.

CHIEF ROMAN CLOUD 374,618 (Romans Straw Power X Vallys Fancy Baby) halter winner, trail horse, lots of spirit and class. Currently in English and jumping training.

Ever tried to show that Appy ? In California ? We at Mc Daniel farms believe Appy's were meant to be Appaloosas not Appaloosas with that hunking AQHA body with maybe a little color. We are very proud of our Appaloosas. Ours are kid proof, broke to death, and just good babysitters for young and old alike. The "Queen" of Mc Daniel Farms is Gypsy Queen's Topaz who is the dam of six colored foals (3 colts, 3 fillies) three of which were sired by AQHA stallions. Topaz is our "dean" of the staff, however age hasn't slowed down this old prancer. We love this old mare who's just a character among her juniors, and she has proved her worth time and again which makes her a valuable member of Mc Daniel Farms.

Watch out English eventors and jumpers, here comes Chief Roman Cloud ! He's half Appaloosa and half Thoroughbred, and we have high hopes for him in his jumping career. Congradulations Clare, on the purchase of "Cloud" - you got a sure winner here.

Mc Daniel Farms is very involved with our "real" horses and our Breyer models. Still looking for many discontinued models and dealer catalogs prior to 1975. Inquires invited and show etiquette questions answered. We got the fever - the Breyer fever.....

MC DANIEL FARMS

FEATURING OUR "REAL" WELSH PONY AND PAINT DIVISION:

SEAMAIR ROYALE ROGUE 15,600 (Criban Button B X Kirby Cane Gamble)

Currently, Mc Daniel Farms only has one Welsh Pony, however when you possess the little gentleman pony we have you really don't need another. Seamair Royale Rogue (we call him Duster) is everything anyone could ever want for in a Welsh Pony. With those tiny ears, wide set, expressive, bulby brown eyes, cute little dished head, Duster looks like a miniature Arabian. Pretty is as pretty does ?? Yes, in this case; down through the years, he has won his share of blues at halter. Not only a halter pony, Duster is an excellent driving pony. Into animation ?? Duster is truly a showman with his neck arched proudly, high flexing hock action, and that never ceasing animated strong trot with those front legs reaching out at full extention. His animation is breathtaking.

PAINT DIVISION

DIAMOND 2 FLASH (Diamond Image X Suns Classy Chick) weanling breeding stock paint filly, already many wins at halter.

DARLING MILLIE (Milford One X Carla Cody) breeding stock paint mare, halter winner, Western Pleasure wins, currently being shown English.

DIAMOND MERCHANT (Diamond Image X Dallas) palomino tobiano weanling filly, just starting her halter career.

Do you ask yourself----why are we advertising our "real" horses ??? We want you to get to know us. It has come to our attention that many model collectors are also "real" horse owners. We invite your model saleslists, and any inquires. Our next ad will feature Mc Daniel Farms' special mascot. Til then, we wish you happy collecting.....

This is the way to Laurie's house...

1. Not responsible for anyone else's stuff but my own! No one allowed upstairs without my permission!
2. Card tables are appreciated.
3. TYPE CLASSES - If you're not sure what type each of your horses is, ask the judge at the show.

A. An English Pleasure type horse is one that is shown in a flat saddle with good action, but not as extreme as a Park type. Can be any breed but usually Arabs, Morgans, NSH, sometimes ASB & TWH are EP types.

B. Hunter type horses are shown in a forward seat saddle. Braids are optional. This type of horse is frequently shown over fences. Can be any breed but you will commonly see QH, TB, Warmblood, and other working breeds. Arabs and Morgans are acceptable as well.

C. Park type horses are very flashy, very animated horses that are shown in a flat saddle. They should have lots of action and be very refined. (Arab, NSH, ASB, Morgan, others).

D. WP type - any of the horses listed under Hunter type. No braids. Cross entries are NOT allowed.

E. Draft type - draft horses

4. No cross entering! You can enter each horse in its breed class, its type class & its gender class.

5. Foals are to be shown in the foal classes ONLY. No foals in any other classes.

We have SOOOO many good quotes this time, we've decided to put them all together!

"I take it when I can get it. (lunch)" - K.G.

"One time, at the Marina Hotel, I got a man!" - C.M.

"Carolyn Garcia has a bunch of men. (Breyer)" - K.G.

"Merryl, don't put your foot in the raisins." - L.J.

"You really settle down once you have a kid." - C.M. (O.K., Cheryl, what's your excuse?)

"I'm a convulsive gambler." - G.G.

And...a real classic... "There comes a point at which enough is too much." - Sandy Tomezik in Liz Bouras' remaking videotape.

Laurie's Drivel Column

Howdy, all you "amphibi-animals!" Time once again for your quarterly (soon to be bi-monthly...) dose of drivel. I'm starting this column off on a typically sour note... (Sour notes are what emit frequently from the amplifiers of my infamous and much-sought-after stuffed dead frog band, THE ZOMBOID HOPPERS.) Anyway, I have been compiling quite a phone bill talking to some of you guys, and THE TRUTH IS COMING OUT!!

First, a certain K.M. of Arizona has NO ROOM to talk about my dried frog collection. Seems she's had (are you ready to just SCREAM?...) a real live dead (LIVE DEAD?) horse head preserved for posterity in her garage for quite some time!! Actually, it is a real live dead horse head skin, (oh, that's MUCH better...why didn't you say so...) and she is going to taxidermize it (a new word I made up but you get what I mean) and she just hasn't found the time to finish it. (I know that's always been a problem for me - finding time to finish taxidermizing! I even mentioned that to the movers as they were putting one of my many large crates of real live dead horse head skins out in the shed...) Sounds like something out of "The Godfather" to me. But hey, what the heck. At least it's in her garage and not in her bed! Anyway, I hope it's in Kathleen oops K.M.'s garage. (No one is safe...)

Tomorrow I leave for "The Breyer World Championships" in Las Vegas. I should have some interesting stuff to add to this column after I get back. In my typical half-wit fashion (actually, it's usually only an eighth of a wit, although she has been known to use a quarter wit, but only during a full moon or a K-Mart Blue Light Special...), I haven't entered, I haven't packed, I haven't figured out who to take (models, I mean). Generally, this is how I plan things every time I go to a live show. So I'm not worried. If I do well, fine. If the judges think my horses are icky poo, then that's fine too! I'll just "visit" (translation: irritate, annoy, embarrass) people and generally make a pest of myself

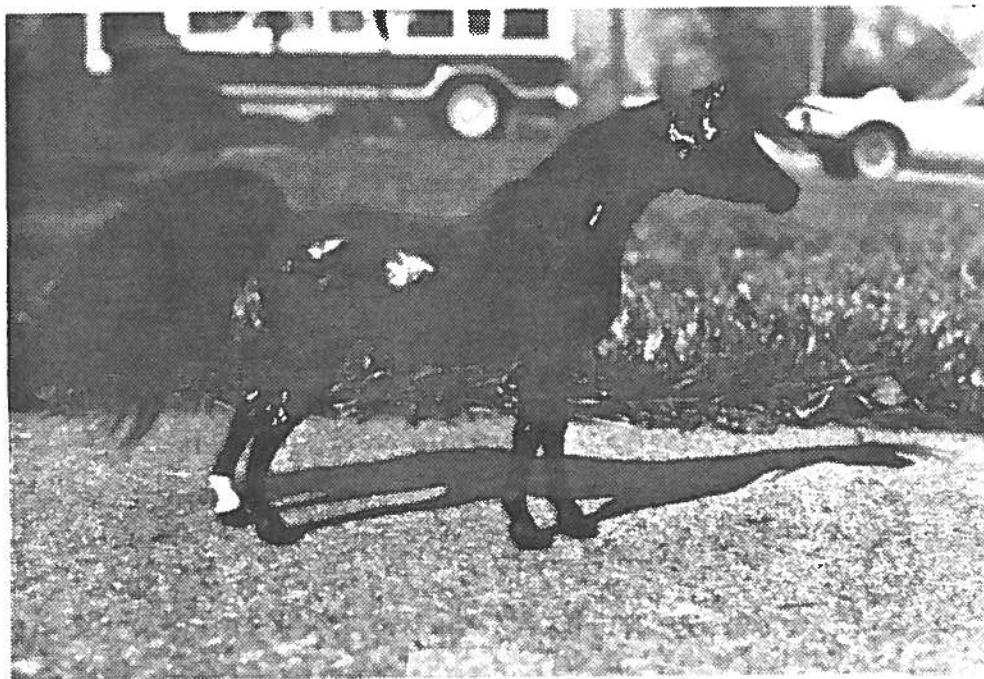

At least a week later...

Las Vegas was fun but I could have done without the constant droning of Vintage Roy Rogers tunes (the "hits" just kept on a-comin'!). My poor roommate, G.G., was whipped into a frothing frenzy by these oldie-but-moldies, and by Sunday she was a crazed woman. Fortunately, she persuaded the nice man to turn the music down a tad. (It's O.K., Gale. Put down the 12-gauge and relax...) There were some judging errors (Especially the first day.) Did I mention that I judged on the first day? I was recruited as a judge at the last moment and had a good time making enemies with everyone. (Kay here again - O.K., I've had just about enough of this! Laurie is simply not giving me a chance to add editorial comments throughout her column! I mean, take the last sentence, for example. In her original copy, Laurie had written, "I was recruited at the last moment and had a good time...etc". But did she leave it like that?? NOOOO! She adds "recruited as a judge at the last moment..." as an afterthought! See, now I had planned to comment on her last minute recruitment: "Laurie, donning her fatigues, is escorted from the show hall by the MP's, yelling, 'Just send my models to Fort Ord!!'" But does she let me...NOOOO! Oh well...) It was nice meeting (irritating) everyone and I even coaxed (threatened) several fools people into subscribing to The Rag! (yay!)

Say - I just got my first newsletter after joining Sheri Hartman's club for remakes, RRMHR. Very nice. Only a few pages, but good reading and lots of pretty pix. I recommend it highly. I think it's $4.00 a year. If you're game for a new, fresh club for remakes, write Sheri w/SASE: 13432 Floral Ave, Poway, CA 92064. Tell her Laurie Jensen sent you!

I'm having another live show Oct. 10th...What I think I'll do is send this off to Kay "Never Late Than Better...Better Never Than Late..." (How does that go, Kay? Ha Ha...) Fowler so that she can pretend that it's lost in the mail for awhile. (Notice that even though I have Supreme Editorial Power, I still print the derogatory comments made about me by my insane "friends." What a trooper! But it all evens out as I include comments that say, "Kay, do not print!", as you will see later in this VERY column.) Then, after the show, I'll send more drivel (Run away! Run away!) to be added to this. At first, you might think that adding more later would make my column's continuity seem haphazard and disjointed. Ha Ha! It seems (it IS) that way ALL THE TIME. So all you new subscribers, THIS IS AS GOOD AS IT GETS! I have a feeling that most of the "old timers" that have been with us since our first issue (a whole year ago?) (No Laurie, it's only been 9 months - it just SEEMS so much longer!) turn to my drivel column, take a deep breath, take a tranquilizer, take a nap, take another deep breath, and read. (some people take a drink, but this is optional and is neither condoned nor condemned.) (Kay-DO NOT PRINT! - is "condoned" spelled right? It looks like "condorned." Heavens. We really should clean up our act... we have young subscribers? I don't even know!!)

Before I ship this first part off to Kay, I MUST introduce this issue's BOW WOW! This horse makes Linda Watson-McCormick's bow wow (last issue) look like a Eustis! Feast your eyeballs on this pathetic piece of pitiful poo-poo:

SABA-HUE HABAR
upon arrival - 10/85

SABA-HUE HABAR

as received from PW - 10/85

Boy, is this the worst remake you have ever seen OR WHAT?! I honestly gasped when I saw this poor creature. Are those blobs of epoxy or chewing gum? Goodness me!

Incidentally, I'm all out of bow wows. (I know, I know. How can you top this months?! TRY.) I think K.R. has a real dog for us to shred to ribbons. Somebody, anybody? Send in a photo of your ugliest remake and win a cheap disgusting prize!

Oh, no insect pictures this time around. Please do not cancel your subscriptions...the insect pictures will return next time.

And speaking of next time - I'm SO EXITED! (No, folks, this is NOT a typo - she wrote "EXITED" From her mind, from reality, who knows...) We're going BI !! (Bi-monthly, that is!) I am so pleased that I will be able to annoy everyone even more frequently! I'm also trying to talk the girls (K & H) (We sound like a brand of sugar, don't we...) into putting a cover model on the front. (Maybe even a photo of the band...) Actually, I need to take a picture of the band for the naming contest, right? Gosh! I'd better get moving! Bye for now!

Well, I hear Diane Jenkins goes to some pretty swanky weddings. Good eats, hey Diane? I hear the rumaki was only surpassed by the beef presto-log. Good thing she left her indentured servant at home!

And speaking of Diane, has anyone ever seen her without shorts...oops, I mean wearing long pants instead of shorts? Every time I've seen her she's had shorts on. I know how Kathleen Rose feels about shorts...she says, "I wouldn't wear those in my own bedroom...with the doors closed...with the lights off..." Hey, you and me BOTH, Kathleen. My legs are cellulite-city. I've worn out dozens of loofahs trying to massage the cottage cheese look from my bod, to NO avail. (I know you all really wanted to know that exiting piece of news). (O.K. - that's the second time we've spelled that word incorrectly. Time for Anti-Dyslexia Reinforcement Training. Now Laurie, get out your crayons and write, "EXITING," while giving yourself a severe electrical shock with your car's jumper cables. Now write, "EXCITING," and reward yourself with bottles of wine until the electrical shock no longer fazes you.)

Got some incriminating photos for y'all... (Stole these from C. Munde when she was looking - I run faster than she does, that slug! Ha Ha, just kidding, Cheryl!) (Ha Ha, bet she isn't, Cheryl!)

The Wells maintain their composure after a minor automotive setback at a rest stop on the way to Vegas.

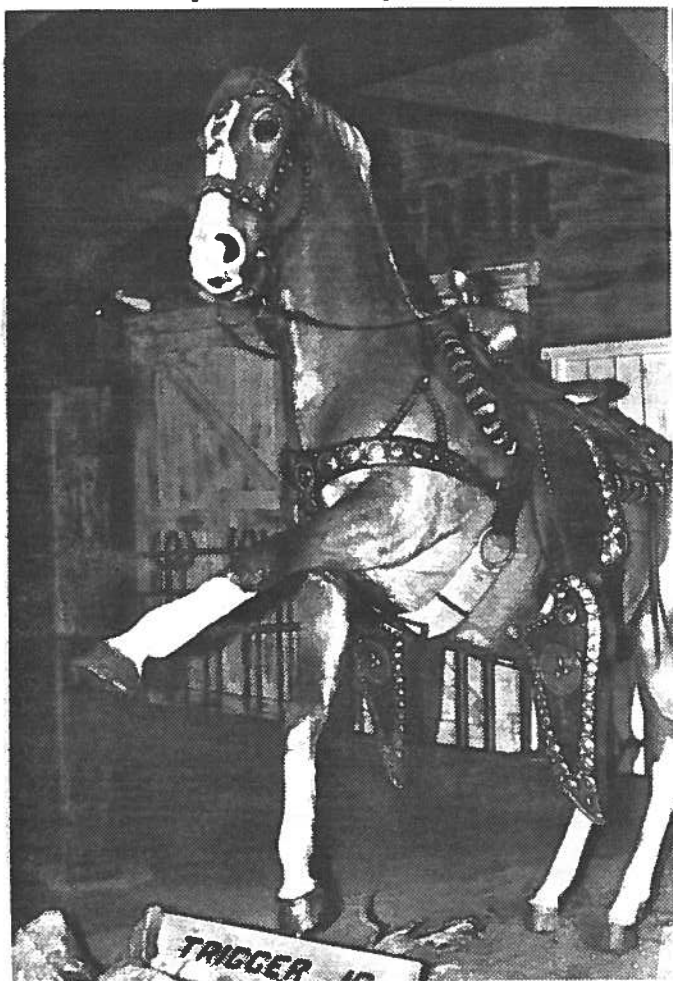

Cheryl Mundee's High School Graduation Photo

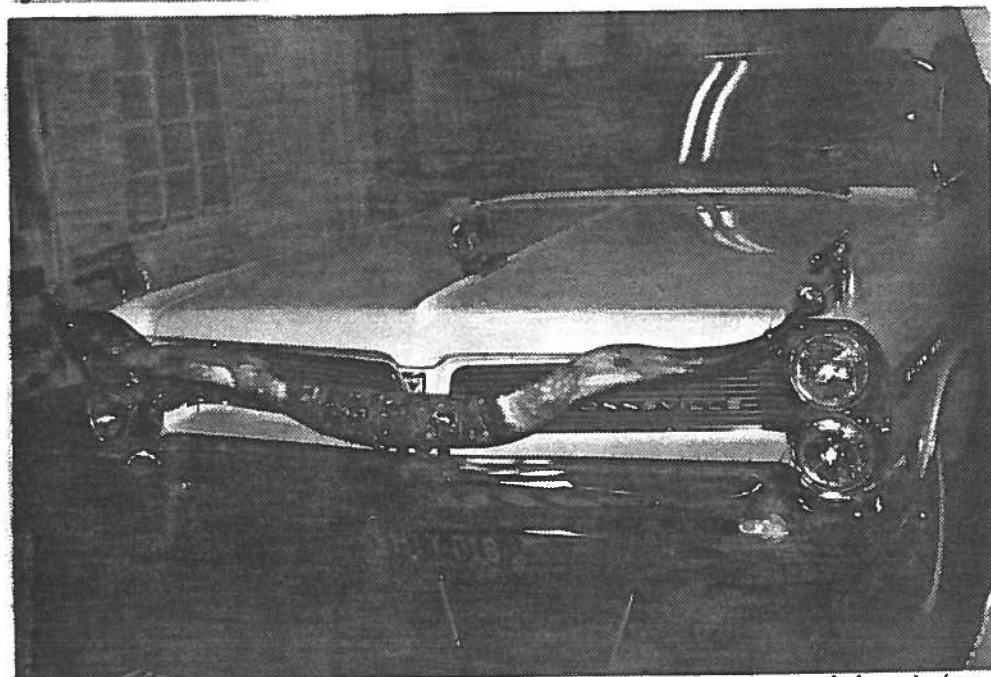

Cheryl "Chesty" Mundee modeling her latest high-fashion creation, a "Madeline nightshirt" (guaranteed to inflame your bedpartner, or so says Cheryl...tho the one she gave me seems to be ineffective...) (What's ineffective, Laurie? The bedpartner that she gave you, or the nightshirt?)

While Cheryl visited Roy Rogers' museum, she took pix of Trigger...

(Note the Natural Pose)

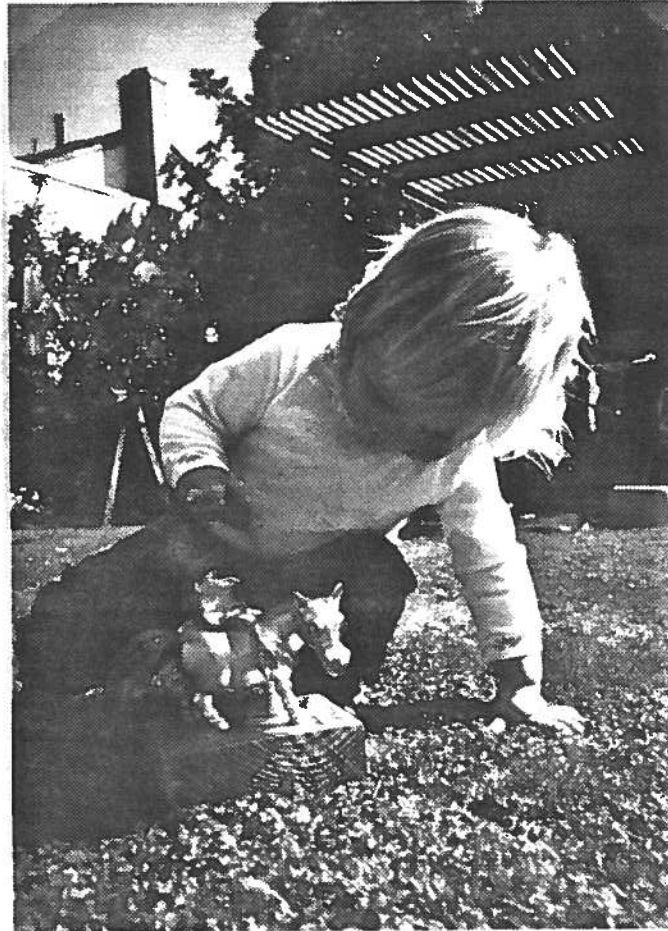

And Roy's auto....

I told Heather that we should try and purchase this car for "The Ragmibile"... (She didn't think it was a very good idea).

Well, well, well. I finally have a photo of the "Cheap Disgusting Prize" that was awarded to Judy Renée Pope and Paula O'Keefe for naming my band of stuffed dead frogs "The Zomboid Hoppers." So without further delay, I submit for your inspection -- this...

This is a picture of Laurie's daughter, Merry, with the Cheap, Disgusting Prize. We'll let you choose which is which....

Since this item defies description, AND they say a picture is worth 1,000 words, I will refrain from further explanation of the prize.

For you subscribers that missed the last frog naming contest (due to brain-death or some similar affliction) I am having yet another, more specific frog-naming contest! Yay! Name any or all members of the Zomboid Hoppers Band! Send in your entries to me (Laurie Jensen). Winners will receive typical prizes (cheap & disgusting). The pic of the band is on the front cover, so have at it!! Let's get those names coming! The frogs will be numbered, left to right, 1-7 (the turtle is number 5). Please note that there are TWO tiny frogs in the center (one plays the trumpet, one plays the harp). The other frogs play (in order), the bongo, the saxophone, the maracas, and the "fish"; the turtle plays the trumpet. Have fun!!!

Since this is so long already, I will forego the insect pictures. (STOP cheering.)

Until next time, I bid you a fond and froggy farewell. Keep those cards and letters coming with YOUR latest drivel so I can blast even more peoples reputations to smithereens!

Love to all,

Laurie

P.S. SMILE, MARNEY!!! (More about this in the next issue...)

P.P.S. K.M. says that her "buds" are no-"bud"y's business but her own!! Oh Well!! All I can sing is "I've got plenty of nothing, and nothing is plenty for me." I cannot speak for my husband, however...

BULLFROG[®] INVASION SWEEPS AMERICA MORE AREAS THREATENED

Redondo Beach, CA: Experts here report that the massive amphibious assault of Bullfrogs, which originally hit California beaches, has now intensified, marching relentlessly across the countryside, leaving virtually no area of America unaffected.

No matter where you live be on the watch for these Bullfrogs. Particularly if you love being out in the sun.

The invading Bullfrogs belong to a new species. These Bullfrogs are equally adaptable to open air, fresh water or to salt water. These Bullfrogs follow the sun. They are expected to have invaded every state and county by early June.

Don't be caught unprepared.

Warn your friends. Do not warn your enemies.

Watch for further details.

LIVE SHOW REPORT....

Laurie Jensen's live show held on October 10th was a huge success! We had 15 exhibitors and many guests. A special treat was in store as we had Kay Fowler come all the way from PA to attend!

Gobs and gobs of gorgeous horses were shown. Grand Champion was won by "J's Quiet Elegance" owned by Diane Jenkins. Heather Wells' "Forfar" was the Reserve.

Everyone brought goodies for the potluck lunch and all persons involved had a great time visiting, trading horses, gossiping, and wearing camel noses. It was videotaped for future embarrassment.

The next show is Dec. 12th, and will include a year-end awards ceremony.

↑ Laurie "Candid Camera" Jensen

(Kay here - Doesn't this sound like a quiet, dignified show?? SHE LIES!! There was NO decorum involved here, folks! Picture this: you're sitting, trying to quietly eat your lunch, only to look up and find Laurie videotaping you! We did manage to maintain some sense of propriety until the end of the show (we don't want to frighten any parents who happened to be there!), but once the first wave left, and only the "hangers-on" (Bill's term) remained, WATCH OUT!! We watched "The Gods Must Be Crazy" on videotape, we ate ourselves into oblivion, and finally left after Bill called the police (just kidding!).

Remaker of the Issue: Mair Dodd

Hello! Most of you know me as the almost deprived - sometimes depraved Northern California Shower who makes her home in the inner most parts of the FOGBELT. When I am not getting frustrated trying to find little plastic models for bargain prices at various types of sales, I do indulge in a hobby I have on the side. I make beautiful stars out of beat up Breyer horses. I began doing this in 1980. I mean-I don't have people knocking down my door to get in but I make enough on the side, ya know to get by. But seriously now folks-

I do not do any remaking of models other than manes and tails being removed. I specialize in appys, pintos/paints, chestnuts and I just love painting those little calves for Ben Breyer to man handle in those roping classes. I try to offer a reasonable price as I know myself how hard it is to come up with money to purchase a model. Most people shy away because I can't offer photos of their models so I lose business there, but I guarantee all my repaints and I know people who offer excellent photo service and can give you references.

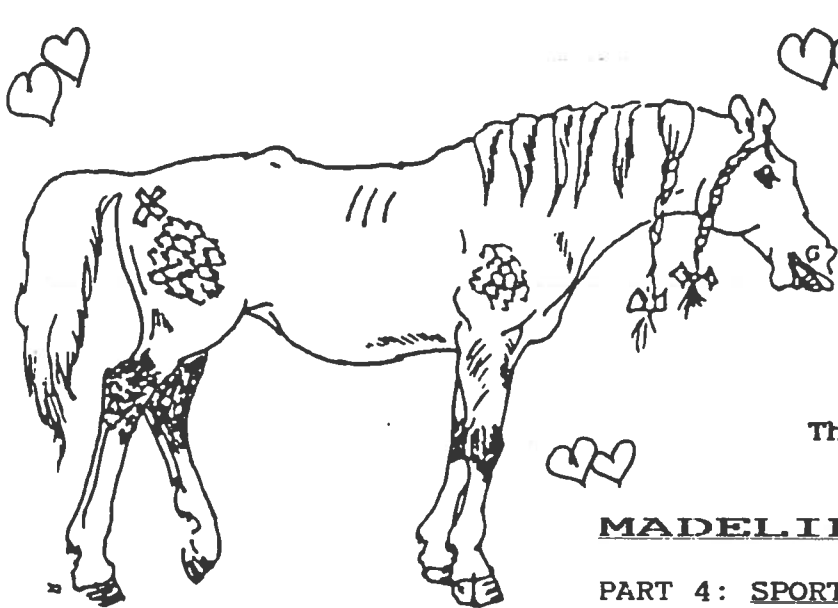

My models have done well against top named repainters. I would like to begin letting people know that I'm out here. (Boy-is she out there!) I'd also like to thank Jean Lindgren who has been one of my most faithful customers and giving me a chance. (Is it okay to thank people in this column?) It is? Well-I'd also like to thank my Mom (Dad, too) because without them....Joshua Tree Creations would not be possible.

If you'd like more information on what we have to offer. Please send a SASE to:

PART 4: SPORTSMANSHIP

PHOTO SHOWS. You get your photos back from a show. You have won many nice champs. maybe even the GRAND!! "Well, I deserve it" you say. "I have paid a lot of money for the pictures and for the model, and this judge SHOULD have given me the Grand". So, you record the results for club year-end points and forget about the judge. Wouldn't it be a nice gesture to say "THANK YOU"? After all, she (or he) has taken valuable time to type up a list, either as a benefit or open show, or maybe that the club needed a judge for a monthly show which requires the judge to volunteer some money to get the results copied. Either way, you want to enter, and you send your photos, with the proper amount of postage, and an SASE, with the proper amount of postage. Maybe when you get your photos back, you don't win any champs. Do you still say "THANK YOU"? Probably not, and I too am guilty. It can get very expensive in stamps and envelopes or a postcard, to jot off a "THANK YOU" to each and every judge. So, this is my time to say, whether I win or lose that I appreciate, and respect, every judge's choices of every show I have entered. I may not agree with some of the placings, but I enjoy showing my models and would like judges to know that I am a "sportsman, er sports lady" as an entrant.

THANK YOU, JUDGES !!

Dear Maddy—

We have a reader here with a very important question.....

DEAR MADDY-

I LIVE IN EARTHQUAKE CALIFORNIA. What can I do to protect my models?

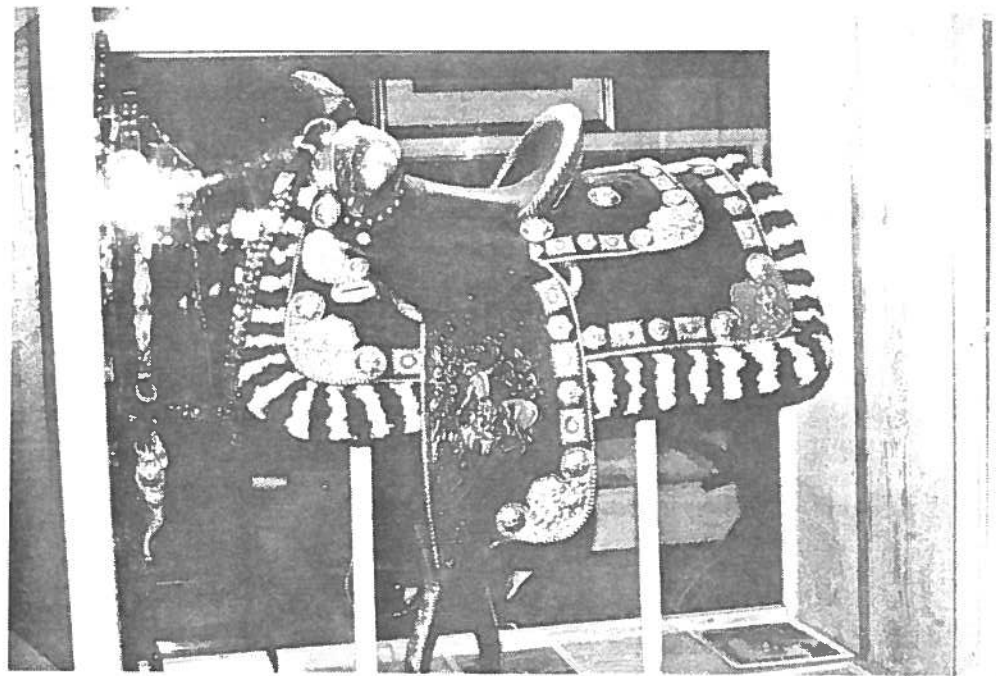

Move to Kansas and then write me again on TORNADOS !!! har har, just kidding!! An easy thing to do is to buy Breyer fences and glue them on to the shelves. Also to put the models so close together that each one is holding up the other and on the end of the shelves put some sort of "block". A trophy, or a Breyer box, or a planter, or a book end!!

The Unknown Column

by Gale Good

We've had great response on your "best finds". Let's hear from the rest of you. Send them to me (Gale Good) at 1359 Sherrill St., Anaheim, CA 92804 along with your idea for the name-this-column contest. There will be a winning prize of a discontinued Breyer and a runner-up prize of a BHR re-paint. Have two suggestions already: The Brag-A-Bond and leaving it as The Unknown Column. When I get a few more ideas we'll have a vote on the best name. Now let's hear from our readers.

Traci Durrell: My mother, sister and I were shivering in the cold. I checked my watch in anticipation; it was only 8:43. The flea market doors would open in 17 minutes. This should be a particularly good day, I thought. The first flea market of the season means the dealers have had all summer to gather up new treasures. As we peered through the glass doors, we began making our "wishes". I, of course, wished for a model I was quite sure I'd never find: a Breyer pinto Indian Pony...with warpaint! In reality I thought I'd be lucky to find a glossy old FAM or FAS. Before entering the building, we made our game plan. My mother would head to the right, my sister down the middle and I to the left. As I darted through the crowd, a table full of plastic critters caught my eye. For a moment I couldn't believe it--a pinto Indian Pony! I snatched it off the table, paid $8 and hurried on. I passed up assorted Hong Kong and Mattel horses. Down the next aisle I nearly choked. A buckskin Indian Pony... with warpaint! Having bagged these two treasures, I met up with the others and showed off my finds. In utter amazement, my mother opened her sack to reveal two more Indian Ponies: a pinto and an alabaster...with warpaint! Each time since then, before entering a flea market or thrift shop, I make my wish (for woodgrains, decorators, etc.) But I've not yet been able to replicate the Indian Pony coincidence. ((This method does work, although not for woodgrains & decorators. I found the bulking mule the day after a friend mentioned needing one. Another friend found a woodgrain belgian after I asked her to look for a grey smoke belgian for me. And, are you ready for this, after receiving this write-up I have found two pinto Indian Ponies with warpaint!! How's that for coincidence?!))

Val Siebert: (Sent to Heather Wells) You want to hear about great finds? Ok, eat your heart out Heather because this is what I found in your backyard (well, not actually, but I got my map out and this find was only a couple miles from your doorstep). A friend of mine that lives in Riverside (glad she doesn't know Heather) called me and told me she had a friend that was going to throw away a box full of Breyer horses (I mean in the trash, yes, trash). So I jumped into my old VW Bug and rushed out to Riverside ((I can't imagine anyone wanting to rush to Riverside)) to pick up the horses. This is what I got for the price of gas (roundtrip), and yes every model, all 18 are in mint to excellent condition. Are you crying yet, Heather? This is, so far, my best find for 1987. Bay Bucking Bronco, buckskin Quarter Horse, buckskin Indian Pony with symbols, sorrel Appaloosa Gelding, Rearing Stallions in alabaster and palomino, palomino Grazing Foal, glossy grey Appaloosa Family Stallion, two glossy alabaster Family Stallions, glossy alabaster Family Mare and Foal, glossy bay Family Mare and Foal, bay Fighting Stallion, Clydesdale Mare and Foal and a Donkey. Ok, how's that for a free find? Oh, okay, so it cost me a couple gallons of gas. Alright, so I didn't find a Decorator, but 15 of the 18 are discontinued models! I have all my model and non-model collector friends out there looking for me at garage sales and swapmeets. Ok, Heather, are you still gasping for air? I have another great find story but I'm going to make you wait. Ha, Ha, happy finding and collecting.

Cheryl Greene: While buying a Mortens horse at a local flea market, I asked the lady if she had any other horses. ((Very smart!)) She said she had some at home and I made arrangements to go to her house. When I got there I discovered she had not looked for the horses even though I had called the night before. She had boxes stacked everywhere, up to the ceiling, inside and outside her house. She found a couple of Breyers but insisted that there were two white horses around somewhere. She started to dig in a cardboard box that was sitting outside unprotected. Out of the bottom she pulled, through unwrapped old planters and very heavy glassware, what appeared to be a turning mustang. She put him down on the cement, none to gently, and started to search for the other horse. The diamond shaped eyeliner, outlined nose, pink muzzle & ears plus other features like his head turned much too far for the mustang, the tail not attached and the mane half up and half down made me doubt that it was an HR. But there was the remains of a sticker and when I got home to check my list I was on cloud nine. An "Abu Farwa" in mint condition. Needless to say his name is Minor Miracle and he only cost $7 ((that is a miracle!)).

Nancy Falzone: Several years ago a man out California way got in touch with me. He had a small collection of HR horses for sale that he had bought from the factory. I purchased them all for a reasonable price and about two weeks later a major airlines called and said I had a package. After a 45 minute trip I learned the package was my HRs and that the "postage" was $110.00!!!. I didn't have that kind of money on me but we got it worked out. The box was too big to get in my car so in sub-zero weather we had to unpack the box and put 55 or so individually wrapped horses in my car. I couldn't wait to get home to see what I had. Well, most were common but three rare pieces made it worth my purchase price. There was two pieces of the Black Bisque Horse mold done in test colors of glossy olive green and a glossy brick red which thrilled me to death. The third was the very rare Thoroughbred & Jockey and I was extremely excited when I saw what it was. It was the only piece to arrive broken (one hind leg break) and it is unfinished and without the original stand but still a nice model. I was very lucky to have acquired it. I assume it was a factory reject that the man bought and was therefore never finished. To me it is beautiful just like it is.

For Sale: Absolutely Perfect Horse

by Dawn Johnson
reprinted from: Montana Arabian Horse Association Newsletter

I'm shopping for a new horse. Sometimes I think it would be easier to get an honest deal on a used Edsel or land in Florida. After reading enough newspaper ads to wallpaper a 9 x 12 foot room and making enough long distance phone calls to force mortgaging the family home to pay the bill, I have discovered an amazing fact. Every horse for sale is "gentle," "calm," "beautiful," "well-trained" and ABSOLUTELY PERFECT for anything from third level dressage to packing in the Andes. After driving distances equivalent to the Trans-Siberian Highway to see these incredible animals. I am often disappointed to find horses whose biological classification as "equine" leaves some doubt. So to assist other unsuspecting buyers, I have compiled a list of sellers' typical comments and their translations. Maybe some horse hunter will be saved from the disappointment of expecting a *BASK++ and finding a Dobbin.

THEY SAY:

Show Champion

Has some 'cow' in him

Spirited
Has some 'buck' in him

Green broke

NEVER bites, kicks, shies, colics, bolts, rears, cribs, bucks

Easy keeper

Longes

Best offer
Price negotiable

Started under saddle

WHAT THEY REALLY MEAN IS:

The horse was awarded a participation ribbon for lead line in a 4-H show in 1962.

The animal is a cross between a Quarter Horse and a polled Hereford.

The horse was considered for the lead role in the upcoming Disney film "Killer Stallion of the Western Plains."

This can range from "light green" which means that the horse has barely glimpsed Man, to "dark green" which means that the horse can walk, trot and canter, but not necessarily when the rider asks him to.

The horse had been dead for 11 years.

The horse survives just fine on tree bark and corral fencing.

Easily confused in the seller's mind with "lunges."

The owner will consider trading for a baseball card collection.

Usually a typographical error which should read "startled under saddle."

PEOPLE, PLACES, & THINGS

Nobody sent in any B-days this issue, but I remembered some...

Mair Dodd - December 7th

Gale Good - January 7th

Laurie Jensen - January 16th (somehow I never think of Laurie as getting OLDER...)

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO ALL!!!

One more Video Model report:

From Cathy Keeley - "There was a scene in a sit-com called 'Charles in Charge' where a young lady had a whole collection spread out on a bed (Breyers). "

Thanks Cathy - any more???

From Heather...

I talked with Bob and Joyce Ford of Tomorrow's Treasures in Riverside, CA - they still have some Bessie's and Breyers that they're chearing out before Christmas. They have a new line of Holland Studio Craft from England that has a horse & foal figure (artist work is something similar to Border Fine Arts), and a very cute dapple grey lying foal w/a black pup. They have a 5" line of standing dogs that run $42 to $55. They are nice; I saw the Labs and the collies and they are good! Smaller 3" dogs run about $19, and there are cats and mice, too! If you are interested, write and ask. Check out their sales list in the FOR SALE section!

Your faithful TMR staff has a surprize for all of you! We have arranged with Hagen-Renaker of California to give each subscriber a full color picture of the current Mini line plus the retail price list and mold numbers!! Thank you Hagen-Renaker -- and Happy Holidays to all our Readers!!!

On a similar note, BHR sells the complete line of H-R minis. Karen offers a 10% discount to TMR subscribers with a minimum order of $10.00! For larger orders, phone her and say those magic words..."I'm a TMR subscriber," and she'll work out a discount amount with you!

In February, TMR hopes to have a line of Sam Savitt postcards, and possibly some notecards available to our subscribers. More on this next issue....

We have an address change to report:

Mindy Binkley - 4331 N. W. 7th Court, Plantation, FL 33317

We have a submission from Cathy Keeley of Jacksonville, FLA:

"YOU DO WHAT?"

I think the biggest problem with model horse collecting, showing, and (oh my!) breeding is admitting that you actually participate in such an activity. Really, when is the last time you announced in public your intention of holding a live model show. 'Excuse me, a what?' This is the part where you receive stunned stares, a wide berth, and the people who used to know you no longer do. What I wouldn't give to see someone explain model breeding to a normal non-collecting person and not receive a butterfly net and personalized straight jacket for Christmas. Try being an adult defending "playing with plastic horses." Have you ever been in the middle of an outdoor photo set up and three stereotype two-hundred pound goons stop their four wheel drives to watch. It's amazing how silent they can be. You're really in trouble when they go get their wives, children, 10 dogs and soda pop for an afternoon visit! The next time you buy a house and realize its most important feature is the horse room, relax, you're not alone, and your fellow collectors will take very good care of you!"

Kay here - this is a rather interesting topic -- how do the rest of you tell people about your hobby? I know how Gale deals with it -- she doesn't tell!! Personally, I have both my remaking and The Model Rag on my RESUMÉ! Of course, one has to phrase these things just so. I call it "customizing miniature equine sculptures," instead "torching and burning plastic horsies." And, the Model Rag is termed, "a quarterly (now bi-monthly) collectors journal." Most people I have interviewed with expressed a great deal of interest in my work - you just have to know how to put things! Most people can deal with the idea of people who collect model trains or dolls - if you explain model horse collecting on the same level, most people can understand. You'd be surprised at the number of people who say, "I used to collect those when I was little!" I'm trying to get two people at my office to part with their old models!! We'll see...

Sorry - no recipes this issue. I was going to give you all Laurie's latest dish: Honey-glazed Hamster! No, just kidding - that's what K.H. called it at Laurie's show in October. It's really Honey-glazed Chicken, and it's delicious! Maybe next time??

We have an update on Mair Dodd's new book, "Confessions of a Deprived Northern California Shower." Mair says she has one page written, and estimates that the book will be on the market somewhere around the year 2000. She wanted to get a headstart on the advertising push, so she's going to promote for the next, oh, 12 years or so. Good luck, Mair, and let us know when your book tour comes through our areas!!

We have a correction to make regarding our last issue: on Kathleen Moody's show ad, the prizes should read as follows. Halter champ will receive a halter & rosette. The Performance champ will receive a Western Bridle (only) & rosette - "For Heaven's Sake, NO SADDLE!!" The Overall Grand Champ gets a model & rosette. (3 Champs will receive prizes & rosettes, 3 Reserves will receive rosettes - other champs named only - classes get flats 1-3, 4-6 places are certifs.

EDITORS' NOTES: Bookkeeping-wise, The Model Rag is sound, unlike the Stock Market - listen up Shearson-Lehman Brothers! This being our fourth issue, we are sitting good. Our first was over-budget, but we learned! Our next two have come in under-budget. (Kay here - it looks like we'll run slightly over-budget on postage with this one, as we have decided to splurge and give you all a really FAT issue for the holidays! But our benefits and auctions have added quite a bit to the kitty - not to mention the advertising fees!) We've advertised in other model horse newsletters, plus we've had three benefit live shows. Thanks Laurie! We sold our auction Bloodhound to Karen Grimm, and Cheryl Munde is holding a benefit photo show for us! Thanks to both! We've got plans for '88...a new computer for Heather (my Christmas present from Mikey!) to hook-up with Kay's! Plus a few photo shows throughout the year, and more auction items. We thank all of you for subscribing and passing on those exciting words, "I saw it in The Model Rag!"

This will be our last quarterly issue...we'll go bi-monthly starting February, 1988, with the ad deadline of February 1st, to be mailed on the 15th! Please see the second page information sheet in this issue for updated subscription and advertising rates. Those who have paid for a full-year subscription will receive four issues. We will let you know when you receive your last issue of your subscription. And remember, each subscriber gets a 50 word classified ad per issue...FREE!!! Well...that's it for Fowler, Jensen and Wells...Minds over Models!! Get it!?!

Today's Trivia Question: Do Frogs Have Ears? (Do you know??)

Answer: (from our resident bug expert) - Yes, they're called Tympanic Membranes (Do you CARE???)

From a out-raged (or outrageous) reader:

I just can't believe all those models you people are finding at sales, etc. I wear myself ragged in search of plastic treasures and I end up coming home with another egg poacher that I don't need or a paperback book I've already read. I'm down and out I tell ya. I'm down and out. (Sounds like a James Cagney movie...)

Kay here - If it makes you feel any better, I have found diddley squat since moving back here to the Frozen Wasteland (which by the way - IT IS AT THIS VERY MOMENT!) What you, gentle reader, should do it GO WITH YOUR INSTINCTS! Give up that silly collection of plastic horsies, say to someone recently relocated to another planet (oops, I mean STATE), and GO FOR THOSE EGG POACHERS!! But, I would recommend that you only pick up those egg poachers that you NEED!

Hmmm...empty space - how tempting! I (Kay) made it to my first live show back here in September. Met some interesting folk, including Sandy Tomezik, Nora Doyle, Susan Rudnicki, Lisa Strang, Linda Perry & her dad, Carol Gerhardt, and Sue Bensuma, to name a few. They didn't have quite the totally warped personalities that I'm used to dealing with (you know who you are!), but I think that, with practice, they too can become mentally disadvantaged! Really had a good time - even though they didn't have either the Day-Glo Spaghetti or the Honey-Glazed Rodent that I am accustomed to. Oh well....

LAS VEGAS PURGATORY

(The following report was not written by a shower so you can't claim sour grapes. I merely went to see what it was like and to help sell models. This article in no way reflects the opinions of the editors of this newsletter.)

A five hour drive to a live model horse show isn't too bad unless you have a badly sprained gas-pedal foot (thank god for cruise control and a nutty friend to keep you awake). You may question the "nutty" friend reference but then you've never endured the chorus from the theme songs to Gummy, Yogi Bear, Super Chicken, George of the Jungle and the Fig Newton commercial (complete with poses). Cruise control is also good for not exceeding the speed limit like that red porsche that just rocketted by. Oops, the cops got him.

The hotel wasn't bad. No roaches just crickets. The hotel people were friendly and smiled alot at these weird people. I asked one if he thought we were all crazy and he said 'No, his mother or grandmother (I don't remember which) collected them too'. Unfortunately he hadn't remained in contact with her so he had no idea whether she still had them or where she was located. (Sigh!)

The convention hall was huge, well laid out, tablecloths on every table. The California group managed to set up pretty close together. I never did count to see how many people came but I'd guess there were between 40-50 showers plus family support groups.

So what's so bad about this, you wonder. The music. Apparently the organizer's father was into country western music. It is not my favorite but I can tolerate it if it is kept low which it was not. At times it was so loud I couldn't talk to the person sitting next to me! It was explained that part of the audio system wasn't working so they had to play the music constantly while working on it. But at that volume?! and all day? Sometimes they forgot to turn it down when they made an announcement and other times they forgot to make the announcements. And then they wonder why people missed classes or never came to pick up their models after a class was over. By the second day I was ready to offer a $20 bounty to anyone who would "kill" the "music". It is like being trapped in a room filled with smokers or someone who is a chronic knuckle cracker. It's been proven that constant irritations like these can snap one's sanity and when you don't have far to go in the first place--watch out! I'm afraid I was very rude and I apologize to those people around me. Luckily the music was turned down the rest of the second day or there would have been mayhem.

Some of the judges were mainly repaint/remake people who had little or no knowledge of original finish models. When judged together the OF models usually suffered. I heard some rumblings about how the organizer's RRs were usually the top placing horses in any class they were in. I'm not saying they should be disqualified but I do think impartial judges should have been used both days.

The class list was also the strangest I've ever seen. To put models in to horse-types rather than breeds has certain breeds competing against each other where no comparisons can or should be made. And the time between performance classes dragged out because classes such as barrel or jumping classes were divided into two classes--one for standing models and the other for action ones. Since the same tack is required for both this means untacking one model and retacking the other leaving alot of dead time between the two classes. It was totally unnecessary for the two classes to be separated in the first place.

Then there were the ribbons and awards. After paying the rather substantial registration fee you would expect at least placings to sixth if not tenth. Instead there were really nice and fancy ribbons (almost mini rosettes) for 1st and 2nd and then a Top Ten ribbon given to the rest of the placings. For people who belong to clubs and turn in points this was very disappointing. You didn't know whether you were 3rd or 10th. So when it came time for championships only models who had won a 1st or 2nd were considered because one didn't know if the 3 Top Ten ribbons they had were all 3rds (which would have topped a model with one 1st) or what. I know how inexpensive these roll ribbons are as we have used them in benefit shows. But wouldn't it have been better to have roll ribbons for each placing and less fancy ribbons for 1st and 2nd. Some of the trophies looked like they were recycled ones and not new. I saw one person's trophy that had a crack on the base of the plastic (not metal) horse statue, a rusting bolt, an oversize plate that didn't fit and cobwebs! Big trophies aren't necessary. I think smaller, nicer ones would have been better. Even recycled trophies are fine if you're told that's what they are (and if you haven't paid $25-35 dollars for registration). I know halls can be expensive but maybe they should have looked into a hotel that would have given a discount (or even free) if a certain number of hotel rooms are rented by convention goers.

On the plus side I met many people I've only read about or written to and made several new friends. I saw some beautiful models I would have given my eye teeth for and I don't even collect RRs. Food was easily accessible, inexpensive and pretty good. I had fun going to Circus, Circus, out for dinner and down to the jacuzzi. It was an interesting experience and I know the organizers were trying hard. But if asked would I do it again the answer would probably be no. Sorry.

But, never fear - news has it that some molds are staying, but in new colors. Here's what we've heard:

- 4, 5 & 6 - Family Arabs in LIVER CHESTNUT
- 48 - Morgan in BAY
- 67 - San Domingo in DUN
- 60 - Midnight Sun in BAY
- 64 - Foundation Stel. in RED ROAN

- 35 - Fighting Stel. in DUN APPALOOSA
- 59 - Morganglanz in DAPPLE GREY
- 205 - Old Timer in BAY
- 51 - Yellow Mount in TWO NEW COLORS (?)
- 52 - Five Gaiter in CHESTNUT

Also, look for a John Henry model, a Scamper (QH barrel racer) model, and the yearly model, which will be a bay/blanket Appaloosa mare named "Breezing Dixie," who is a QH-type Western Reining Champion.

The 1988 catalogs will be out sometime in the beginning of next year, depending on the number of printing mistakes. Unfortunately, prices are going UP!! So get them where you can!!

Did you know that Breyer distributes models around the world? In addition to North America, they send horses to Japan, Italy, Australia, and England!

Come the first of the year, Bentley Sales Co. will be having a special run....come on.... guess....okay, okay...I'll give you a clue..."it's a bucking good mold!" This went right over Laurie's head, and we all know how that goes...Kay got it (of course!)...allright, allright...it's THE BUCKING BRONCO!! Mr. Bentley didn't know which colors yet, but he said Jill Gollner would help pick out the colors. (Late update - word from Jill Gollner on the colors: chestnut, appaloosa (probably a leopard), red roan, plus an undecided fourth color!! Also, according to Jill, the red roan, "will be something totally different than what we're used to seeing." It won't have the "skin disease" that the recent red roans have had.) Also, the Bentleys have included a "Glue Factory" sales list in this issue - check it out in the FOR SALE section.

Also, I talked with George at Horses International (Phoenix, AZ), and they have a special run in the works...not sure which mold(s) yet. We'll let you know (hopefully) by the Feb/March issue! They still have chestnut Legionerios and white Foundation Stallions left! Get 'em while you can!

Last time I talked with Sue at Your Horse Source (Jackson, Wyo), she said the white Hanoverians were sold out, bay almost sold out (less than 50), and the chestnuts and blacks were about the same, but selling steadily.

Hobby Center Toys in Ohio (1-800-862-8697) has a special run set called Triple Crown Winners, classic sized. They are Whirlaway, Count Fleet, and Citation, using the Silky Sullivan, Terrang, and Kelso models, respectively. While the horses are approximately the same colors as the original models, they are slightly varied, and the markings on each are different. Each set comes with a tag stating the limited edition of 1,000 sets, and detailing each horse and the year he won. The set is $20.00 plus $3.00 postage. We read about this in Teena Housman's newsletter.

News at Hartland Collectables is good news for Hartland Collectors...they're now in Tenite plastic! Yes even remakers can torch and burn! I talked with Paula Groeber about the '87 colors...next issue (Feb '88) we'll enclose a color flyer of the new Tenite colors - thanks Paula! I've seen these new colors and they are great! What a change from Stevens! The 11" Appaloosa is very nice, in fact all the Tenite colors are super. For those of you looking for "other-type" molds, here are your horses - check it out. New colors for '88 (at least in the thinking stage): 11" QH in palomino, 9" Arab in true pearl albino, 9" Saddlebred in light bay. Also thinking about bringing back the 9" Rearing Mustang, Polo Pony, and TB...Yea! Paula said every 9" Saddlebred stand up straight before she even paints it! Why didn't she work for Hartland originally ... then we wouldn't have those leaners. But she hints that she's hoping to have a new mold for 1988 - that would be NICE!! Also, the 50 run special of the 11" QH red roan, complete with live show quality tack, is priced at $129.00, not the mis-printed $179.00. This tack is excellent for the live shower...saddle only (no cinches) is just $39.00 plus shipping, etc....you can choose from two different pattern designs. I've seen it -- it's good! You can write Paula at: Hartland Collectable, RR2, Box 137, New Haven, MO 63068.

I don't know about elsewhere in these here United States but H-R's are popping out in California. Not only did S.L. purchase some, but so did K.G....Roan Ladies, Mavericks, Vanguards, Tony...yes, we drooled all over these!!!

We've been getting some interesting mail lately..

From P & J: "I had a great time reading this silly thing. Actually laughed even. So I can only say, you've improved on its already brilliant content."

Anonymous - We've had a request for the brand name of the cereal mentioned in Laurie's last Drive Column. You remember...the one with the "Bringing Frogs Back From the Dead Ritual" on the back. While we don't usually make commercial endorsements, the cereal in question is "TOAD-ALL," or was it "SUGAR HOPS?".....

Yes indeed, folks! Those creative (or was it DEFECTIVE??) minds at The Model Rag have been at it again! Rumors emerging from the West Coast speak of the possibility of a Model Rag video tape! Or, to use Laurie's words, "Did Heather tell you about her hare-brained scheme?" A bit harsh, perhaps, but it is really an interesting thought. Laurie told me some of the possible selections: "The Amazing Ginzu Dremel" - "It cuts through this Breyer as if it were a tin can!"; "Gale Good's Favorite Hits" - "Just listen to the Golden Moldies that you'll receive..."; Cal Wells and her dog spots" - "We've got miles and miles of models to choose from! Take this one here - a 1968 Maverick, owned by a little old lady in Pasadena, and only taken out on Sundays. Yours for just $6995..." Well, enough from this end - any thoughts (or brainwave activity, for that matter) from any of our viewing audience???

Now, it is time, once again, for an installment from the book, Horse Nonsense, by W.C. Sellar and R. J. Yearman:

"Women, especially, find exquisite boredom in trying to describe horses by their colours. After being rebuked a few times for calling a blue-rose horse 'gun-metal', liver-chestnuts 'coffee', duns 'beige', and sorrels 'nude', and so on, they usually give it up, contenting themselves with the knowledge that a dappled or fish-net style is available both in horse and hose.

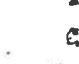

The fact is, almost any horse is a 'dark horse' when it comes to telling its colour, because it is a code of honour among horsemen to call obviously black horses 'brown' and obviously brown horses 'light-bay' or 'chestnut' and the demonstrably horse-chestnut coloured ones 'dark bay', and finally insult the rare camouflage-painted varieties by calling them piebald or even skewbald (though they are not bald at all, in fact quite as horsute as the other)."
