Hagen - Renaker Association Club News

Editor's notes;

Hello again! This month we have lot's of news to report on, so here goes. Frist off, LIL' BIT COUNTRY now has a VERY limited amount of Palomino QUARTER HORSE FAMILYS!!! Fantastic, and just in time for CHRISTAMS! See ad in this issue!

We also want to let you know about the OLD mold piece that we had wanted to do. H-R said they haven't found the mold yet, but IF and WHEN they do we will be FIRST. So, we are looking into doing something else OLD!!!

Their are so may OLD pieces of which some can't be found, or that have been missed placed, it's a real tragity !! Keep your fingers crossed, we will get some SOON!

Our club Benefits are going to be comming up in the next couple of months, hope you all will ENTER and help our club raise the need-ed moneys for our Commerical ribbon awards for 1986!

On a last note here, PLEASE take the time to read an OPEN letter to all club members concerning PERFORMANCE CLASSES, it's important, and feel every one can benefit from it.

IF any one would like to write a monthly column to help out tack problems, PLEASE let me know. It's unfortunate that I can't undertake this mv self, but with the club, newsletter, business, husband, and home, I just can't.

On to our show results.

Open Letter to HRAC Members

Dear Members:

I enjoyed judging the monthly HRAC show for October; many of you have some truly beautiful HRs. I did have some difficulty placing the performance classes, however, due to various tack problems. My previous main club showing experience has been in a club that emphasizes realism, including correctly scaled and fitted tack, particularly in the area of bits on bridles. I had a difficult time, therefore, in placing many models whose bits were too low or high, hanging below the chin, sticking out sideways or similarly misplaced. I also found it difficult to place models in their deserving positions due to saddle problems such as girths too far back on the barrel and the saddle simply being too big for the model. Another area of concern is reins - I saw them tied in a knot (!), lying in the saddle seat (the person would be sitting on them), double reins too tight or loose (or both at the same time). Just little things, but they detract greatly from otherwise fine models. I have only been to one live show, as they are few and far between in this area, but I have heard that live shows are tough on proper fit of tack - why, then, should photo shows be any less correct?

Based on the entries in the October show, there are enough members showing their HRs under tack to justify performance championships, but these championships would be false, I feel, if they were earned with the tack problems listed above. This letter is a result of my concern and desire to help - please pay a little more attention to the small details of tack fitting! I always base my model tack fit on the question "Does it look like this on a real horse?" If my answer is "no," then I know I have to correct something. Mini hold wax is available for holding bits 'in' mouths, extra rein on the off-camera side of the model so they look right in the photo, keeping stirrups in position, etc.

Perhaps our editor (and other members of the club, including myself) could include articles and drawings on proper tack fit in future newsletters, which would benefit all of us - I know I'm always improving my photos from things I see in the photos other members submit to shows I hold!

I hope the HRAC members will receive these comments in the spirit they are offered; sharing, caring and helping fellow model showers. I welcome any comments you might have - either through the newsletter, or to me personally. Thank you for listening - I'll see you at the shows!

Modelly,

Daphne

Now you can show your HR minis in PERFORMANCE classes, with tack made just for them! DRM ORIGINALS offers live show quality, guaranteed tack for your HR minis. We offer custom tack orders, made to fit each specific SM mold (Breyer); if the mold is NOT available as a Breyer SM, you must send the model the tack is for, as all bridles and halters are made on the model for best fit - the only exception is the HR prancing or crouching horse; I have that mold.

Inspection photos are available for $1 deposit and long SASE, or see my ads in recent issues of Model Horse Gazette. Tack list and prices available for long SASE; send extra stamp if you are requesting the list and photos together.

The following items are available for immediate purchase. All items will be sold on a first come, first served basis, and orders will be held until checks clear my bank (10 working days). All mold descriptions are Breyer SMS, which were cast from the original HR molds. All items shipped postage paid; however, if you wish your order insured, please add 1.00 to your order up to $25, and $1.25 for orders over $25.

If you send payment for an item which has already been sold, I will notify you and ask you whether you want an identical item made to the one that sold, or if you want your payment returned.
