Editors notes;

Finally got a chance to get this typed up and out to you. Have had 3 live shows to attend in less than 9 days! So, it's been quite hecctic to say the least.

Am sure by now, everyone who attended the August monthly show, now has their photo's back, it was unfortunate, as it did put a crimp in September's show, in which only 2 members were able to get photo's in to it. I have written to our August show holder and let her know, that she is no longer in our club! We must up hold our rules of misconduct and I believe this is a prime example of it. Hope this type of thing won't happen again, but their are no guarantees.

No new word from H-R as yet, but will keep you posted! Am hoping they will help Sponsor our 1986 Nationals, will let you all know more on this later on also.

Happy showing!

H-R # B 772 KELSO

To finish off with our famous TB's we have the last two DW's Kelso is one. He was made from 1962 to 1971, and again in 1974. He was made in a dark bay, with 2 white socks on his rear legs. He stands 6½" high.

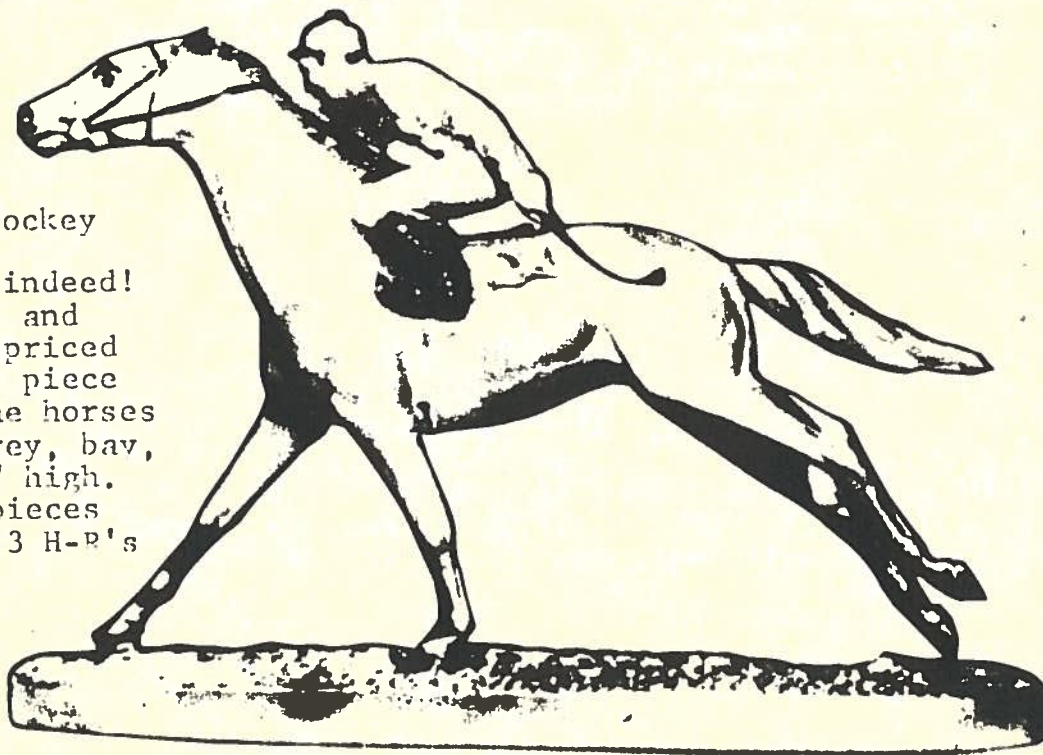

H-R # B 741 Terrang

This last TB was also done in a dark bay, but coloring ran in shades from medium bay to black. He was released from 1961-1971, and again in 1974. No white is on this mold. He stands 6½".

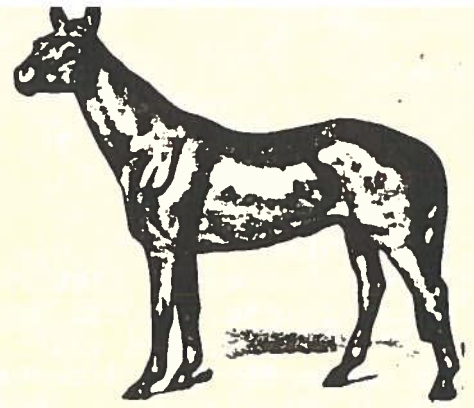

H-R # B760 TB & Jockey

Here is a VERY RARE H-R indeed! It was only made in 1962 and at the time the highest priced H-R made - $20.00!! This piece is on a ceramic base. The horses came in three colors; grey, bay, and brown. It stands 6½" high. This is one of the few pieces H-R had riders on. Only 3 H-R's had riders.

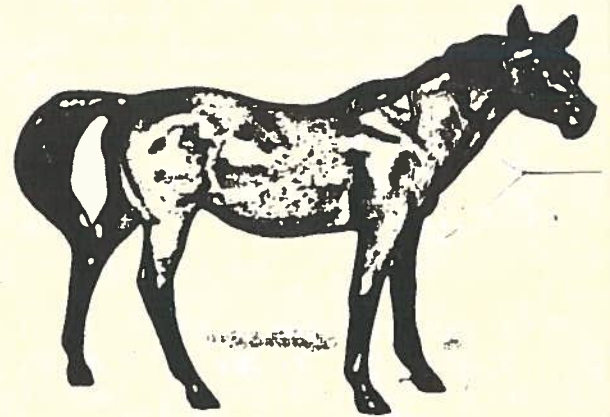

H-R # A012 NATIVE DANCER

Minature Series, made in 1961 to 1965 only. This mold only came in 'mouse grey' color, he stands 3" at ear tips, and is lovely.
