LIVE SHOW REPORT - - WESTERN REGIONAL CONGRESS

Over 50 exhibitors and their 1254 (!) models converged at the Fullerton Holiday Inn during the weekend of May 7th and 8th.

Open show judges Marney J. Walerius and Cheryl Munde put in long hours sifting through classes full of beautiful models. Organizer Laurie Jensen stated, "The quality of models I've seen this weekend surpasses any of the shows I've attended in the past." Exhibitor Kathleen Rose agreed, saying, "The competition is tough...so many nice horses and the tack this year is so realistic!"

Novice show judges Kathleen Maestas, CeCe O'Connor, Carolyn Ruth, and Gale Good all commented on the tough decisions they had to make while judging their division. The novice Breyer collector's class was top-notch, containing wonderful woodgrains, test colors, special runs, and elusive decorators. Open exhibitor Heather Wells was "thrilled" to see a "poodle-cut" black angus "in person." Both the Open and Novice Collector's classes were a visual banquet of goodies!

Saturday evening featured the equine artist and sculptor Rich Rudish as volunteer auctioneer at an entertaining and successful auction. Laurie Jensen "thanked the heavens above" that so many people donated items to benefit W.R.C. "I also owe a lot to Chris (Cook), Ed (Gonzales) and Carol (Williams)," she said. "They organized the auction and persuaded Rich to officiate...it was a great idea. And Rich was a wonderfully witty auctioneer! He did a great job!"

Two unfortunate incidents occurred, however. Sometime Saturday a horse donated to WRC was stolen off the sale table. Then, during the night, Kathleen Rose's truck was stolen! Fortunately, both the model and the truck turned up, none the worse for wear! The horse mysteriously re-appeared in a brown paper bag dumped on top of one of the show secretary's type-writer cases. And the truck was found by the Riverside police several days after the show, with its contents (tools) intact!

All in all, it was a fun and exciting weekend. From the start of the celebration at Medieval Times on Friday evening, to the end of the day Sunday, a good time was had by all.

Next year's Congress will be held in the ballroom of the Ramada Inn in beautiful San Clemente, CA. Be sure to mark May 13 & 14 on your 1989 calendars. You won't want to miss W.R.C. '89. Show packets are available from Laurie Jensen. Send LSASE to: W.R.C./Jensen, 32891 Calle del Tesoro, San Juan Capistrano, CA 92675

OREGON LIVE SHOW '88 REPORT

Fourteen entrants from around Oregon vied for awards at the Oregon Live Show '88. The show was held at the Willamette Grange Hall in Corvallis, Oregon on April 30. Judge was Traci Durrell-Kalife.

With a total of 196 horses, competition was tough in both halter and performance classes, with 56 and 73 entries respectively!

An added attraction was the display of 18 R/R horses done by different artists (Kathy Maestas, Chris Cook, Sue Rowe, Linda Leach, just to name a few). It was interesting to compare artistic styles and see samples of the works of so many remakers. The sale table was also a busy place, with several items finding new homes.

Eight door prize drawings, for entrants only, were held throughout the day. Prizes including model tack, Stablemates, horse book and belt buckle were donated by Linda Spiesschaert, Rita Durrell, and Traci Durrell-Kalife.

Evelyn Holden donated a buckskin Breyer Action Stock Foal in box for the raffle. Entrants and spectators alike could purchase tickets. The lucky winner was one of our spectators, Hassan Rhium.

Miniature silver trays, donated by Linda Spiesschaert, were awarded to champions. Champions and Reserves also received rosettes.

Grand Champion: Latigo's Wastina - Linda Spiesschaert
Reserve Grand: J's Tom Kay - Leah Fuller
Runner Up: Diamond Bar Link - Jenny Fyellingness

I am not an expert on old Hartlands/Breyers/HR's etc. I do judge without bias: OF's - RRH's regardless of whether famous or friend. I do not judge photography - only the horse and the presentational effort. Contact: Bettye Brown, 1950 Adelaida Rd, #109, Paso Robles, CA 93446.

Autographed Marguerite Henry books. I know a store that has these. Not all titles, and some books are a little shopworn. There is Brightly, Born to Trot, Mustang. Contact me if interested. Gayle Roller, 829 Valley Crest Dr, Vista, CA 92084.
